FLIPPING THE SCRIPT

New York became the first No. 8 seed in WNBA history to win a playoff game against a No. 1 seed, taking Game 1 in Minneapolis 91-75 on Sept. 27. It was just the third win by a No. 8 seed in any playoff game in league history and the first since 2016.

HISTORIC HOT START

The Liberty went on a 15-0 run from 8:08 to 6:21 in the first quarter, the first time in WNBA history a team has recorded a 15-0 run in the opening quarter of its first game of a postseason, per Elias Sports Bureau.

LIBERTY CATCH FIRE FROM DEEP IN WIN OVER LYNX

New York made 13 3-pointers in Game 1 to match the franchise record for a playoff game, and its 52.0 percent (13-for-25) mark from beyond the arc was the best by the Liberty in any playoff game with at least 20 attempts. New York also handed out 25 assists, tied for the third-most in a Liberty playoff game, and shot 63.0 percent (17-for-27) from the field in the second half while scoring 51 points after the break.

STEWART SOARS TO HELP LIBERTY PULL AWAY

Breanna Stewart became the first player in WNBA history to post at least 30 points, 10 rebounds, five assists and two steals in a playoff game, finishing Game 1 with 34 points and 12 rebounds on 61.1 percent (11-for-18) shooting to go with six assists, two steals and two blocks. It was the second 30-point, 10-rebound game in Liberty postseason history, with Stewart accounting for both, and she ranks second in league history with three career 30-point double-doubles in the postseason. Stewart's 34 points matched her highest playoff scoring total since joining the Liberty, and she passed Seimone Augustus (362) for seventh on the WNBA's all-time postseason field goals list.

LEO'S LEAGUE FIRST

Leonie Fiebich became the first player in WNBA history to record at least 15 points, eight rebounds and three assists while shooting 85 percent from the field in a playoff game, finishing Game 1 with 16 points on 6-for-7 shooting, four 3-pointers and a playoff career-high eight rebounds. Fiebich scored her 150th career postseason point and matched Vickie Johnson (32) for the fifth-most made 3-pointers in Liberty postseason history.

PAULINE'S PLAYOFF DEBUT

Pauline Astier became the first player in league history to record at least five points, three rebounds and three assists in the first quarter of her playoff debut, finishing Game 1 with seven points, eight rebounds and five assists in 29 minutes. She is the sixth player in WNBA history to record at least eight rebounds and five assists in her first career playoff game, and she joined Rebecca Lobo as the only rookies in franchise history with at least six rebounds and three assists in a Liberty postseason debut.

LIBERTY LOOK TO CONTINUE OFFENSIVE SUCCESS AGAINST LYNX

New York scored 115.4 points per 100 possessions against Minnesota in the 2026 regular season, the best offensive rating by any team against the Lynx this season. The Liberty also led all Lynx opponents in field goal percentage (48.3) and average points off turnovers (19.3).

SPLIT DECISION

New York won the regular-season series against Minnesota 2-1, taking a 99-86 decision at home on July 3 and a 93-81 road win on Sept. 18 around a 90-85 loss in Minneapolis on July 11. The Liberty held a lead in the fourth quarter of all three meetings, rallying from 15 down to take the lead late in the July 11 loss. The Sept. 18 win handed the Lynx, then 31-10, one of their seven home defeats of the season, and one of just two double-digit losses at home.

TAKEAWAY TROUBLE FOR THE LYNX

The Liberty recorded 12 steals on Sept. 18 to match their season high and turned 19 Minnesota giveaways into 21 points, the Lynx's third-highest turnover total of the season. New York posted a season-high 27 points off turnovers in Minneapolis on July 11, including an 11-0 edge in points off turnovers in the third quarter alone, while the Liberty scored 30 points in the period without committing a single turnover.

SECOND-QUARTER SHUTDOWN

The Liberty held Minnesota to 25 percent (4-for-16) shooting in the second quarter on Sept. 18, the Lynx's lowest field-goal percentage and fewest field goals made in any second quarter of the season, and to 35.1 percent (13-for-37) before halftime for Minnesota's second-worst shooting half of the year. New York also held Minnesota to two fast-break points on July 3, with the Lynx failing to score a single fast-break point before halftime for the first time in 2026.

SABRINA STEPS UP AGAINST THE LYNX

Sabrina Ionescu has connected on multiple 3-pointers against Minnesota in 20 career games including the postseason, the most by any Liberty player against a single opponent in franchise history. Ionescu poured in 19 points in the third quarter in Minneapolis on July 11, her highest-scoring quarter since 2023 and one of only two 19-point quarters by any player in 2026. She added 17 points, a game-high six assists and three steals on Sept. 18, recording all three takeaways in the second quarter to set her career high for steals in a single period.

JJ CONTROLLING THE BOARDS

Jonquel Jones recorded a double-double in all three meetings with the Lynx this season, going for 14 points and 15 rebounds on July 3, 15 and 12 on July 11 and 18 and 10 on Sept. 18. Her 15 rebounds on July 3 came with five assists and two 3-pointers as she joined Tamika Catchings as the only players to record such a line more than once.

STEWIE STUMPS THE LYNX

Breanna Stewart scored a season-high 36 points on 73.7 percent (14-for-19) shooting in the July 3 win, including 16 points on a perfect 7-for-7 in the opening quarter to become the first player in 2026 to score more than 15 points in a first quarter without missing a shot.

ROOKIE MILESTONE IN MINNEAPOLIS

Pauline Astier scored 14 points on 75 percent (6-for-8) shooting on Sept. 18 against the Lynx and grabbed her 100th rebound to become the first rookie in franchise history to reach 300 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists.

MARINE MAGIC

Marine Johannès scored 10 points in the final 1:30 of the third quarter on Sept. 18, becoming the first player to score at least 10 points in the final 90 seconds of a quarter since Kahleah Copper on June 7, 2024 and the first Liberty player to do so since Sabrina Ionescu on July 12, 2022.

STEWIE SHOWS OUT FOR PLAYOFFS

Breanna Stewart has averaged 22.1 points per game throughout her playoff career, the second-highest scoring average by any player in WNBA postseason history. Stewart's 42 points on Sept. 6, 2022 tied the WNBA record for points in a single playoff game, and she has recorded the third-most 20-point games in WNBA postseason history with 30.

RELENTLESS REBOUNDERS

Jonquel Jones and Breanna Stewart are the only players in WNBA history to reach double figures for rebounds in at least 10 playoff games with multiple franchises. Jones (14) and Stewart (11) rank first and second in double-digit rebounding games in franchise postseason history, with no other player doing so in more than five games. Jones has recorded at least five rebounds in 51 consecutive postseason games, the longest such streak in WNBA history by more than 10 games.

PLAYOFF EFFICIENCY

Leonie Fiebich has recorded a 69.4 percent true shooting percentage through her first 15 playoff games, the highest efficiency by any player with at least 60 postseason field-goal attempts. Fiebich also holds a career 49.2% three-point percentage in the postseason, the highest in WNBA history by a player with at least 60 attempts from deep.

SAB SHINES IN BIG MOMENTS

Sabrina Ionescu has knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 28 of her 29 career postseason games, the highest rate by any player in WNBA history with more than 10 playoff games played. Ionescu is also the Liberty's all-time leader in postseason 3-pointers (74). Ionescu is one of two players in WNBA history to average more than 2.5 three-pointers per game in the postseason (min. 10 playoff games), along with Diana Taurasi.

DANGEROUS FROM DEEP

The 2024 WNBA Champion New York Liberty, who defeated the Lynx in the 2024 WNBA Finals, set a WNBA postseason record in 2024 by becoming the first team in league history to make 100 3-pointers in a single playoff run.

FINISHING STRONG

Since the WNBA expanded to a 40-game season in 2023, each of the last three WNBA champions have ranked top-6 in both offensive and defensive rating over the final 15 games of the regular season. The Liberty, Dream and Aces were the only teams to do so in the final 15 games of 2026.

CLOSE CONTEST

The Liberty and Lynx are separated by just seven regular-season wins, marking the smallest gap between a #1 and #8 seed in any season since the WNBA changed the playoff format to eliminate conferences in 2016.

NEW YORK MAKES HISTORY AT THE FIBA WORLD CUP

The Liberty were the league's most represented team at the 2026 FIBA Women's World Cup in Berlin, sending seven players and placing a player on each of the four semifinalists (France, Spain, Germany and Team USA), marking the first time a WNBA team has been represented on all four World Cup semifinal teams.

STEWIE WINS GOLD WITH TEAM USA

Breanna Stewart won her fourth consecutive gold medal with Team USA, tying Sue Bird for the most all-time, while leading the Americans in both points (12.8) and rebounds (7.3) per game and shooting 55.8 percent from the field across six contests. She was named Women's World Cup MVP for the second time, making her the only two-time MVP in men's or women's FIBA World Cup history, and earned All-Star 5 honors for the third straight World Cup, the first player to do so in Women's World Cup history. Stewart passed Cheryl Miller (264) for fifth on Team USA's all-time World Cup scoring list and is now the only player in Team USA history ranked in the top five for career points, rebounds and assists at the World Cup.

HAN LEADS THE CHARGE FOR CHINA

Han Xu led China in scoring (18.8) and rebounding (10.8) and finished second among all players in Berlin in both categories, becoming the first player to average more than 18.5 points and 10 rebounds per game at a World Cup since Haixia Zheng did so for China in 1994. Han earned All-Second Team honors and was the only player in the tournament to shoot better than 50 percent from deep on more than 2.0 attempts per game.

LIBERTY DOMINATE IN GERMANY

Leonie Fiebich led Germany to its first World Cup semifinal appearance with 9.9 points, a team-high 8.6 rebounds and 3.6 assists per game and became the first German player in World Cup history to earn All-Star 5 honors. Marine Johannès helped France to its first World Cup silver medal and its first podium finish since 1953, leading all players in Berlin with 20 3-pointers. Raquel Carrera averaged 8.0 points and 5.7 rebounds as Spain claimed the bronze medal, while Pauline Astier and Elizabeth Balogun each made their World Cup debuts.

The 2026 season marks the 30th anniversary of the Liberty as one of the WNBA's three remaining original franchises. The organization is bringing the historic campaign to life by celebrating the trailblazers, moments, and community that have defined the organization since 1997.

Throughout the season, the Liberty are celebrating the franchise's legacy with commemorative merchandise, in-arena giveaways, community events, theme nights, and original storytelling that highlight the special people and moments that have defined the Liberty's journey. New York will honor the legendary Liberty players who made significant contributions to the Liberty's tradition of excellence and played pivotal roles in some of the most memorable moments and seasons in the franchise's 30-year history.

Anchored by a "30 Seasons" throwback-inspired logo, the campaign's visual identity blends the franchise's earliest influences with a modernized aesthetic. The bold "30" symbolizes three decades of continuity and strength, incorporating the original orange torch from the Liberty's original Lady Liberty primary logo, representing both the origins of the franchise and the energy that continues to drive it forward. Angular crown details, accented with the team's original blue colorway, pay homage to the Liberty's foundational era and trailblazing spirit since 1997. A star set on the finger of the torch-bearing fist stands as a symbol of the Liberty's 2024 WNBA Championship, capturing a defining moment in franchise history. Completed with a contemporary color palette and dimensional accents, the logo blends retro inspiration with modern design, capturing the movement of the city and the momentum of the team today.

The "30 Seasons" mark appears across merchandise, in-arena branding, digital platforms, and storytelling moments, serving as a unifying symbol that connects generations of players and fans through a shared past and a collective future.

BROOKLYN BASKETBALL

Brooklyn Basketball opened the 18,600 sq. ft. Brooklyn Basketball Training Center in September of 2025 and since then, the initiative has continued to grow and expand their reach across New York.

This marks the third year of the partnership between Brooklyn Basketball and the NYC Department of Education on an innovative program that gives elementary and middle school students access to free, in-school basketball clinics. This year alone, the program has reached over 23,000 youth across 170 schools and is on track to exceed 35,000 students by the end of 2026. In addition to schools, Brooklyn Basketball has partnered with organizations like the YMCA and Boys & Girls Clubs to bring community-based clinics to neighborhoods across Brooklyn, making the game more accessible.

Brooklyn Basketball also brings schools to the Brooklyn Basketball Training Center for programs during the school day. To date, the training center has hosted over 1,600 students from 24 schools, many of whom do not have their own facilities, for on-site experiences. The center has also hosted after-school programs, weekend training, camps, all-girls programs and other activations, while making space for students to finish homework and address other needs before and after training.

The multi-court youth basketball training facility is the first in the tri-state area to use Shoot 360 technology. Shoot 360, a leader in basketball innovation and skill development, uses advanced ball detection technology that is leveraged by teams across the WNBA and NBA, and now by the training center as well. The technology utilizes interactive features and physical activity to measure participants' skillset and analyzes performance data for suggestions on how participants can improve their game. Empowering youth with this technology aligns directly with Brooklyn Basketball's mission to deliver high-quality, inclusive, and accessible basketball programming.

The Brooklyn Basketball Training Center is right across the street from Barclays Center on Flatbush Avenue, providing the Liberty and the Nets a unique opportunity to impact children, families, schools and programs across New York.

CHRIS DEMARCO

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON WITH NEW YORK | 1ST SEASON IN WNBA

Four-time NBA Champion Chris DeMarco was named the 10th head coach in New York Liberty franchise history on December 3, 2025. DeMarco arrives in Brooklyn following 14 seasons with the Golden State Warriors, where he won NBA titles in 2015, 2017, 2018, and 2022. He joined Golden State under Mark Jackson in 2012 and was retained by Steve Kerr, working across player development, assistant coaching, and defensive roles during the Warriors' championship era.

In Golden State, DeMarco played a pivotal role on Steve Kerr's coaching staff, largely focusing on the team's individual skill development and systems, that ultimately culminated in one of the most successful dynasties in modern basketball history. During DeMarco's tenure, Golden State's defense held opponents to the league's second-lowest shot quality over the past 10 seasons (49.9% qSQ), per Second Spectrum. The Warriors also led the league in net rating three times during that span and won an NBA single-season record 73 games in the 2015-16 season.

In addition to his NBA success, DeMarco has served as head coach of the Bahamas Men's National Team since 2019. Under his leadership, the team achieved its most significant victory in program history, defeating host Argentina in the 2024 Olympic Pre-Qualifying Tournament final. He has also been a featured coach at Basketball Without Borders (BWB) Americas, mentoring top international prospects and advancing the game globally.

The 2026 campaign is DeMarco's first as a WNBA head coach after beginning his professional career with the Warriors in video and scouting before advancing to Director of Player Development and ultimately serving as an assistant coach.
