A BOLD NEW ERA

ATLANTA DREAM REBRAND 2020

Created by local designer David Tann of the Tantrum Agency, the Dream's new brand is bold and engaging, bringing together key elements of the legacy brand and evolving it to reflect the future of the franchise. A fresh new logo and color palette will accompany the Dream in their move to the Gateway Center Arena, along with a new court design and updated uniforms to be revealed in advance of the 2020 season.

Pantone 186 #e3173e	Pantone 447 #363a37	White	Pantone 422 #929799	Pantone 279 #4891ce

Global Logo | Primary Icon | Shield (Secondary) | ATL (Secondary)

The exciting new primary logo is composed of a combination of icons that relate directly to Atlanta and its history. The rising phoenix symbolizes the city's rise from the ashes of the Civil War to become a world city. The shooting star ties the Dream back to its roots and is prominent within the formal logo. Finally, the basketball represents the game we pour everything we have into each day. All of these elements, which come together in a badge, will create a commitment to a winning team in an unparalleled city.

> "The Atlanta Dream's new brand reflects our strong heritage as a city and a team, while looking toward the future. Our team worked closely with David Tann to reflect the strength of diversity, talent and athleticism that that all Dream fans and the City of Atlanta can be proud to wear."
> – Dream President and General Manager Chris Sienko

NOTES AND STORYLINES

2020 WNBA Season at IMG Academy
The league's 24th season will take place in Bradenton, Florida at IMG Academy, the Official Home of the 2020 WNBA season, and will include a 22-game schedule for each of its 12 teams. The Dream's regular season will run from July 26 to September 11, and will be followed by a standard-format Playoff series.

WNBA Players Boycott Games
All three WNBA games initially scheduled to be played Wednesday night (8/26) were postponed after players collectively decided to sit out. The Dream and Mystics were set to tip off at 7 p.m. ET. The Sparks and Lynx were set to play at 8 p.m. ET. The Sun and Mercury were initially scheduled to play at 10 p.m. ET. Players from all four teams met prior to the scheduled tip-off time for the Dream-Mystics and came to the decision that they would not play. Games scheduled for Thursday night (8/27) were also postponed.

~~Three~~ Four Players Get 30
For the first time in franchise history, four different players have recorded 30-point outings in the same season, although the team set the record back at three. Monique Billings started it off with 30 points in the Dream's season opener against Dallas (7/26), Betnijah Laney tied her record with 30 points against New York (7/31), and Chennedy Carter helped set the record with 35 points against Seattle (8/6). Most recently, Courtney Williams became the fourth different player to do it with 30 points against Washington (8/19), following Laney's career-high 35-point performance.

C. Williams (30) and Laney (35) became only the second pair in franchise history to record 30+ points each in the same game. The last duo to do it was Angel McCoughtry and Izaine Castro Marques as they scored 32 points each against Connecticut on July 7, 2010. They are only the 9th duo of teammates to do so in WNBA history, with the most recent being Skylar Diggins-Smith and Odyssey Sims with Tulsa in 2014 (from Across the Timeline).

WNBPA Messaging Around Actions with the Anthem
"We are standing united across the league during opening weekend to make a statement about how the anthem does not represent freedom, justice and liberty for all Americans. We will continue to protest in varius forms."

Returning Players
Dream veteran center Elizabeth Williams and forward Monique Billings are the only returning players on Atlanta's roster this season. They are joined by 11 new players, three of which are rookies. Blake Dietrick played for the Dream in 2018 and returned for training camp in 2019, but was waived by Atlanta and picked up by Seattle for the 2019 season.

Only one other team* in WNBA history has returned two or fewer players from the previous season - Phoenix in 2017 (returned Diana Taurasi and Brittney Griner).
*Not including first-year expansion teams

Career Milestones
Achieved:
- Elizabeth Williams reached 1,000 career rebounds on July 31st vs. New York, and 1,500 career points against Seattle (8/6).
- Courtney Williams reached 100 career steals with one against Dallas (8/8).
- Betnijah Laney reached both 500 career points and 500 attempted field goals on 8/12 against Seattle.
- Glory Johnson reached 2,500 career points on 8/21 against Los Angeles.
- Shekinna Stricklen reached 200 career steals on 8/21 against Los Angeles.

Upcoming:
- E. Williams needs 8 blocks to surpass Erika de Souza (281) as Atlanta's career blocks leader, and is 8 away from 300 career blocks.
- Williams also needs only 3 rebounds to reach 1,000 in a Dream uniform.
- Shekinna Stricklen is 6 made free throws away from reaching 250 in her career.

Elizabeth Williams
With Dream veteran Tiffany Hayes choosing to forego the 2020 season, Elizabeth Williams becomes the Dream's current active leader in nearly every statistical category with 1,512 points, 997 rebounds, 276 blocks, 149 games played and 4,486 minutes in a Dream uniform. She took over as the Dream's team captain this year in her fifth season with the team, and holds the secretary position on the WNBPA's Executive Committee.

In her first game of the season, Williams shot a perfect 7-of-7 from the field and 3-of-3 from the charity stripe, tying the franchise record for most field goals without a miss.

Opening Night
In the Dream's 105-95 season-opening win over Dallas, Atlanta showed off a fast new offensive pace to emerge as the top-scoring team through the first games. Monique Billings led all scorers over the weekend, finishing with 30 points and 13 rebounds for her second career double-double. All five starters for the Dream scored in double digits and combined for 100 points for the first time in franchise history and just the sixth time in WNBA history.

Occurances of starters combining for 100+ points, WNBA:

7/6/2007	Phoenix Mercury	106
7/7/2007	Connecticut Sun	101
6/13/2009	Phoenix Mercury	103
7/24/2010	Phoenix Mercury	100
7/22/2014	Minnesota Lynx	104
7/26/2020	Atlanta Dream	100

It was the Dream's first 100-point scoring outing since August 9, 2018 (109 vs. Las Vegas).

Only five Dream games in franchise history have resulted in a combined score higher than the season opener's 200 points:

7/22/2014	Minnesota 112, Atlanta 108
7/7/2010	Atlanta 108, Connecticut 103
6/27/2008	Connecticut 109, Atlanta 101
8/7/2018	Atlanta 109, Las Vegas 100
8/11/2011	Phoenix 109, Atlanta 95
7/26/2020	Atlanta 105, Dallas 95

Hollywood
Chennedy Carter has proven herself to not only be one of the top rookies in the league this year, but one of the best players in the WNBA through the first six games. She now holds the franchise record for points scored by a rookie in a single game (35 vs. Seattle, 8/6) and became the youngest player in league history at 21 years and 266 days old to score 30+ points in a game.

Carter set the franchise record for most points scored by a rookie with her 35-point outing against Seattle (8/6). She is just the fourth first-year player to score 25+ points in a game for Atlanta, and the third to score at least 30. It marked just the sixth time in Dream history that a player has recorded 30+ points and 7+ assists in a game (Betty Lenox – 1, Iziane Castro Marques – 1, Angel McCoughtry – 3).

The outing made her the first player in the WNBA to score 35+ points since Indiana's Kelsey Mitchell on September 8, 2019.

She is the first Dream rookie to score in double-figures in each of her first six games – a record she set back in her fourth game.

Lady Vols
Glory Johnson and Shekinna Stricklen will appear on the same roster for the first time in their professional careers this summer. The last time the duo played together was at the University of Tennessee, when they led the Lady Vols to back-to-back Elite Eight appearances and three-straight SEC Tournament Championships under legendary coach Pat Summitt. Stricklen and Johnson were selected second and fourth overall, respectively, in the 2012 WNBA Draft. Their first game together on the same professional roster was on July 31 against New York.

Johnson and Stricklen saw their most productive game together against Los Angeles (8/21), combining for 39 points, 8 rebounds and 4 steals.

Connecticut South
Shekinna Stricklen and Courtney Williams, who helped Connecticut reach the WNBA Finals last season, are new to Atlanta but not to Nicki Collen, who spent 2015-17 as an assistant with the Sun. Last year, Stricklen ranked third in the league in made threes (76) and Williams was 20th in scoring (13.2 ppg). Dream guard Betnijah Laney and center Elizabeth Williams also spent a year each in Uncasville, with E. Williams being drafted by the Sun in 2015.

Offseason Moves
Atlanta had the most active offseason of any team in the league this year, aquiring 10 new players through Free Agency, the Draft and trades prior to coming to Florida. The Dream traded for Courtney Williams from Connecticut and Kalani Brown from Los Angeles, along with a talented crop of Free Agents that included Glory Johnson and Shekinna Stricklen. "Dream fans should be blown away by their team's offseason. Buy stock now," - Matt Ellentuck, SB Nation.

Bluejay in Red
Jaylyn Agnew joined the Dream in late June this year after a standout career at Creighton. Drafted with the No. 24 overall pick in the 2020 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics, Agnew became the first Bluejay to be drafted into the league. The Mystics waived her on May 25, but she was picked up by the Dream on June 24. She became the first Creighton women's basketball player to check into a WNBA game on July 26, playing 10 minutes for Atlanta against Dallas.

The AAPF and the #SayHerName Campaign
Launched in December 2014 by the African American Policy Forum (AAPF) and Center for Intersectionality and Social Policy Studies (CISPS), the #SayHerName campaign brings awareness to the often invisible names and stories of Black women and girls who have been victimized by racist police violence, and provides support to their families.

Black women and girls as young as 7 and as old as 93 have been killed by the police, though we rarely hear their names. Knowing their names is a necessary but not a sufficient condition for lifting up their stories which in turn provides a much clearer view of the wide-ranging circumstances that make Black women's bodies disproportionately subject to police violence. To lift up their stories, and illuminate police violence against Black women, we need to know who they are, how they lived, and why they suffered at the hands of police.[1]

Dream Draft Four in 2020 WNBA Draft
The Dream drafted four players in the 2020 WNBA Draft, headlined by guard Chennedy Carter out of Texas A&M with the No. 4 overall selection. Collen picked Texas Tech forward Brittany Brewer with the No. 17 overall selection (second round) – Carter and Brewer both signed contracts with the team for the 2020 season.

Collen also selected Oregon State guard Mikayla Pivec and Clemson forward Kobi Thornton with the No. 25 and 27 picks (third round), respectively.

A Bold New Era
Atlanta implemented a rebrand prior to the 2020 season, unveiling new logos and colors for the first time since its inaugural season (2008). The Dream also has new uniforms, a new mascot and had been slated for a new home – the Gateway Center Arena @ College Park. The new primary logo reflects a combination of icons related to Atlanta's history. Centered around a basketball, the rising phoenix symbolizes the city's rise from the ashes of the Civil War to become a world city, and a shooting star ties the Dream to its original roots.

Are We Done Talking About Breonna Taylor?
Of course not. On the day of this game, it will have been 172 days since she was murdered in her own apartment. The officers responsible for her death have not been arrested. Moving forward, players will have the option to keep her name on the back of their jerseys. Ten Dream players will still be wearing her name plate for the duration of the season.

Inspire Brands Teams Up with Dream for 2020 Season
Inspire Brands became the first-ever official jersey badge partner of the team this season. Beginning with the 2020 season, Inspire's brands will be featured on the upper-left shoulder of all editions of the Dream's jerseys, beginning with the Buffalo Wild Wings logo this year. Inspire is a multi-brand restaurant company whose portfolio includes more than 11,100 Arby's, Buffalo Wild Wings, SONIC Drive-In, Rusty Taco, and Jimmy John's locations worldwide.

After spending the first four years of her career with Indiana and Chicago, guard Betnijah Laney is finding her place with Atlanta. Originally brought in for her defensive mindset, she has proven herself to be a strong offensive player and has been a standout for the Dream throughout the season. Laney often credits her success this season to

In her first game in red and gray, Laney started and put up a career-high 19 points with 3 assists and grabbed two defensive boards.

She put up the first 30-point outing of her career against New York (7/31), becoming the second Dream player to collect 30 points in a game this season. So far, four different players have tallied 30-point games (Carter, C. Williams, Billings twice), for the first time in franchise history.

With her career-high 35 points against Washington (8/19), she recorded her 10th double-figure outing of the season. Prior to coming to Atlanta, she had only scored in double digits on 10 occasions in four years.

Laney is now the first Dream player to record multiple (2) 30-point outings in a season since Angel McCoughtry had three in 2017.

> "It feels good to be recognized for everything that I'm doing. It's the opportunity that I've been given."
> – Betnijah Laney after her 17-point outing vs. Phoenix

She recorded back-to-back double-doubles against Los Angeles (8/21) and Minnesota (8/23). In those two games she averaged 15.5 points, 10.5 assists, 6 rebounds and 1.5 steals.

She led the team with 22 points and five assists against Minnesota (8/28) for her 13th double-figure outing of the season and fourth 20+ point performance.

The outing made her the first player in the WNBA to score 35+ points since Indiana's Kelsey Mitchell on September 8, 2019.

She is the first Dream rookie to score in double-figures in each of her first six games – a record she set back in her fourth game.

After being sidelined for six games with an ankle injury, Carter returned to the court last week and looked like her pre-injury self against Los Angeles (8/30), scoring 26 points in 26 minutes.
