2015 Record:	First Meeting
Last five meetings:	Minnesota, 4-1
Current Streak:	W1
Last Meeting:	NYL 87, MIN 80 (July 6, 2014)

WNBA'S TOP TEAMS SQUARE OFF AT "THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS ARENA"
One of the premier WNBA regular season matchups of the 2015 season will go down on Friday night at Madison Square Garden as the first-place New York Liberty host the first-place Minnesota Lynx at 7:30 p.m. The game will be broadcast on the MSG Network. The two teams have combined to post a record of 37-17 so far this year heading into the first of two meetings in nine days. While New York leads the all-time series 15-14, Minnesota has controlled the most recent matchups, although the Liberty did win at The Garden 87-80, last July. Tina Charles scored a career-high 32 points in that game to snap a five-game losing streak in the series.

MVP CANDIDATES, FORMER TEAMMATES FACE OFF
In addition to important team battle, Friday night's game will feature a pair of league MVP candidates and former college teammates in Tina Charles and Maya Moore. Charles and Moore played three seasons together at the University of Connecticut, posting back-to-back national championship seasons in 2009-10. Both are former league MVP's, with Charles winning the award in 2012 and Moore in 2013. But Moore also has a Finals MVP on her mantle from the 2013 season. This year, Charles ranks fourth in the league in scoring (17.9 ppg), third in rebounding (8.7 rpg) and 14th in field goal percentage (.466) while Moore is second in the league in scoring (20.5 ppg) ninth in rebounding (6.8 rpg) and fifth in steals (1.6 spg).

BILL LAIMBEER

11TH SEASON (THIRD WITH NEW YORK) • NOTRE DAME '79
181-142 (.560) OVERALL RECORD | 44-50 (.468) WITH NEW YORK

Bill Laimbeer, a WNBA Coach of the Year and three-time WNBA Champion, enters his third season as head coach of the New York Liberty.

Laimbeer previously spent eight seasons from 2002-09 as general manager and head coach of the Detroit Shock (now Tulsa Shock), where he earned WNBA Coach of the Year honors in his first full season as head coach (2003). He took over a team that finished 9-23 in the previous year and led them to a league-best 25 wins the following season. The 16-win improvement was the largest in WNBA history. Laimbeer led the Shock to a 137-93 (.596) overall record, including six-straight playoff appearances as the squad won the WNBA Championship in 2003, 2006 and 2008.

As general manager of the Shock, Laimbeer made several key moves during his tenure that were integral in Detroit capturing three WNBA Championships, which still stand as second most in league history. In his first full season, Laimbeer drafted former All-Star and 2003 Rookie of the Year Cheryl Ford. He also acquired the Finals MVP that year Ruth Riley in the WNBA dispersal draft.

Prior to returning to the WNBA, Laimbeer spent two seasons as an assistant in the NBA with the Minnesota Timberwolves (2009-2011).

A 14-year NBA veteran, Laimbeer was a four-time All-Star for the Detroit Pistons. As a member of the famed "Bad Boys," Laimbeer totaled 13,790 points and 10,400 rebounds in his career, becoming just the 19th player in NBA history to eclipse 10,000 in both categories. A key member of back-to-back NBA Championships in 1989 and 1990, he had his jersey No. 40 retired by the franchise in 1995. Laimbeer played college ball at Notre Dame from 1975-79, graduating with a degree in economics in 1979.

Laimbeer and his wife Chris are parents to their son Eric and daughter Keri.

CHARLES SCORED CAREER-HIGH 32 IN WIN OVER MINNESOTA
The last time New York met up with Minnesota, Tina Charles posted a career-high 32 points in an 87-80 New York win over the Lynx at Madison Square Garden on July 6, 2014. Charles enjoyed a stellar offensive day, sinking a career-best 14 field goals on an incredibly efficient 14-of-20 (.700) shooting performance to go along with 10 rebounds. She also posted two steals, two assists and a blocked shot in 37 minutes of action.

LAST TIME OUT - INDIANA 80, NEW YORK 79
- Tanisha Wright has had back-to-back games with six assists.
- Liberty won the points in the paint battle 40-14.
- Tamika Catchings led the Fever scoring effort for the first time this season vs. the Liberty with 14 points.
- There were five lead changes and three ties in the fourth quarter.
- Swin Cash moved into a tie with Taj McWilliams-Franklin for 7th all time in games played with 440.
- Indiana scored 55 points in the first half, the most for a Liberty opponent in any half this season.
- The Fever only scored 25 points in the second half and shot 36.4 percent from the field over the final 20 minutes (8-of-22)
- Kiah Stokes finished with four blocks, the most for her since swatting a franchise record eight in a win over Connecticut on July 16.

WNBA CHAMPIONSHIP CALIBER COACHING MATCHUP
New York Liberty head coach Bill Laimbeer and Minnesota Lynx head coach Cheryl Reeve have combined to win five WNBA titles. Laimbeer won in 2003, 2006 and 2008, with the Detroit Shock, while Reeve won titles in Minnesota in 2011 and 2013. Reeve spent four seasons as an assistant coach on Laimbeer's staff in Detroit, and was on the bench for the Shock's 2006 and 2008 league championships. Both have been named WNBA Coach of the Year, Laimbeer in 2003 and Reeve in 2011, both coinciding with their first championship wins as head coaches.

ROOKIE STEPPING UP
Liberty rookie guard Brittany Boyd has been on a tear lately, scoring in double figures in three of the last four games. She is coming off a 14 points, six assist, six rebound performance at Indiana on Sunday night. Over the last four games, she ranks second on the team in scoring, averaging 13.3 ppg while shooting an impressive 54.8 percent (17-of-31) from the field. Boyd is also averaging 4.3 assists, 4.0 rebounds and 1.3 steals per game during that stretch. She ranks fifth amongst rookies averaging 7.0 ppg and first with 1.2 steals per game.

TANISHA WRIGHT DISHING THE ROCK
Tanisha Wright recorded a New York Liberty individual season-high nine assists in its 90-78 win at Connecticut on August 14, and has dished out six assists in back-to-back games heading into Friday night. She is second for New York and ranks 9th in the WNBA this season, averaging 3.6 assists per game and is one of the best all-time at distributing the basketball, ranking 14th in league history with 1,101-career assists.

ESSENCE CARSON WINS WNBA COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD PRESENTED BY STATE FARM

Essence Carson of the New York Liberty has been awarded the June WNBA Cares Community Assist Award presented by State Farm for her charitable efforts and contributions throughout the tri-state area. In recognition of Carson's efforts, the WNBA and State Farm will donate $7,500 to a charity of her choice. Carson met with contestants from the Garden of Dreams Foundation's youth talent show at Radio City Music Hall. As part of WNBA Cares Week, she led a youth basketball clinic in her hometown of Paterson, N.J. In addition, Carson visited pediatric patients at Hospital for Special Surgery, where she had undergone ACL surgery in 2013. She spent time in the hospital's Lerner Children's Pavilion, playing games, taking photos and signing autographs.

TINA CHARLES DONATING HALF OF 2015 WNBA SALARY TO HOPEY'S HEART FOUNDATION

Liberty center Tina Charles announced she will donate half of her 2015 salary to the Hopey's Heart Foundation. She's dedicated to placing a minimum of 100 automatic external defibrillators (AED) throughout the United States each year. Nearly 390,000 out-of-hospital sudden cardiac arrests (SCA) occur annually. Having an automatic external defibrillators (AED) close by can mean the difference between life and death for a victim of SCA. Hopey's Heart Foundation is committed to improving the health of student and amateur athletes by providing health education, CPR training and lifesaving AEDs in schools, community and recreational centers. To date, Hopey's Heart has placed 142 AED's.

LENDING A HAND

The Liberty recorded 21 assists on 30 made baskets in its win over Atlanta on August 21, and distributing the basketball has proven to be a key to New York's success this season. The Liberty average 17.0 assists per game, which ranks fifth in the league, and in its wins the team is averaging nearly three more assists per game. In 18 victories, New York is averaging 17.7 assists per game, compared to just 15.1 in its eight losses. For the year, the Liberty has recorded an assist on 61.4 percent of its made baskets. Epiphanny Prince (3.7) and Tanisha Wright (3.6) lead New York in assists.

THE BEST START SINCE...

- At 18-7, New York is off to the best start in franchise history. No Liberty team posted 18 wins through the first 26 games of the season.
- With its 90-78 win over Connecticut on August 14, the Liberty surpassed last season's win total and now has the most wins since 2011, when New York finished 19-15.
- The Liberty has won four-games in a row on two occasions. The last New York squad to boast two separate winning streaks of at least four games was the 2007 team.
- For Bill Laimbeer, the 18 wins signify the most for him since his 2008 Detroit Shock squad went 22-12 and won the WNBA title.

SHE'S GOT GAME

Most look to the addition of Epiphanny Prince to the New York Liberty lineup in terms of what she brings to the team in terms of scoring, and no doubt, at 15.3 ppg she provides a sizable offensive boost. However, her all around game rounds out the overall positive impact she has on the court. Prince leads New York with 3.7 assists per game and 2.3 steals per game, boasting six games with at least five assists.

EPIPHANNY PRINCE NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Guard Epiphanny Prince was named the Eastern Conference Player of the Week for the third time in her career and the first as a member of the New York Liberty on Aug. 17. She helped lead the Liberty to a 2-1 record the previous week, averaging 18.0 ppg, 4.3 apg and 3.3 spg while shooting 48.8 percent (20-of-41) from the field. After scoring 22 points with three steals in a win over Chicago on Aug. 11, she came back to post an incredible stat line of 23 points, seven rebounds, six assists and six steals in a victory at Connecticut. A two-time All-Star, Prince scored in double figures in her first 12 games of the season, which included a season-high 30 points at Chicago on Aug. 7.

LIBERTY LIMITING FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE

- The Liberty ranks 1st in the league in opponent field goal percentage, limiting teams to 38.4 percent a game, and first allowing 70.3 ppg.
- New York has held 16 of its 26 opponents under 40.0 percent shooting, the league average for field-goal percentage is .425.
- In its 73-64 win at Atlanta on June 21, the Liberty held the Dream to just 29.7 percent shooting, on 19-for-64 from the field.
- The Liberty had not held an opponent to under 30-percent on the road since June 1, 2007, when it held Minnesota to .274 (20-for-73) from the field in a 70-60 victory.
- New York has held four teams under 30 percent from the field, doing so three times on the road, most recently limiting San Antonio to just 27.0 shooting on August 19.

NEW YORK'S RECORD WHEN...

- San Antonio posted the lowest field goal percentage for a NY foe since 2012, when Phoenix shot just 17-of 69 (.246).
- New York held the Stars to just 45 points in its win on August 19, which matches the fewest points allowed in a WNBA game this season.

BOYD'S BIG BOOST OFF THE BENCH

Rookie guard Brittany Boyd provided a huge second-half lift for the Liberty against the Tulsa Shock on August 15, at Madison Square Garden, nearly leading the team back from a 20-point deficit. Boyd finished with a career-high 22 points, the first 20-plus point game of her career, scoring 16 points in the second half and 13 in the fourth quarter alone. Her layup with 1:09 remaining made New York's deficit a manageable five points, but it was unable to complete the comeback. This was the second time Boyd powered a fourth-quarter charge; she scored 11 fourth-quarter points in a comeback 75-73 win at Phoenix on July 18.

TINA CHARLES NETS SEASON-HIGH 31 POINTS IN WIN AT CONNECTICUT

All-Star Tina Charles topped 30 points for a second time this season, scorching the Connecticut Sun to the tune of 31 points in a 90-78 Liberty win on August 14. Charles matched her career high of 14 made field goals, and finished one point shy of her career-best of 32. She also scored 30 points in an 81-77 win at Seattle back on July 21. Charles ranks fourth in the WNBA averaging 17.9 ppg this season, and is third with 8.7 rebounds per game.

PRINCE FACTOR

Although she missed the first 10 games of the season due to obligations to compete internationally, since rejoining the Liberty at the end of June, guard Epiphanny Prince has had no trouble fitting in, helping lead New York to a 12-4 mark since she made her debut at Washington on July 9. She has scored in double figures in 15-of-16 games this season, posting a season-high 30 points at Chicago on August 7, while averaging 15.3 ppg. Her ability to create for others has also played a key role, as she has four-plus assists in 11 games and is first on the team averaging 3.7 assists and 2.3 steals per game. Tina Charles has also seen her production take off. Over the last 16 games she is averaging 19.7 ppg while shooting 51.8 percent from the field, during the first 10 games of the season she averaged 15.1 ppg, shooting 38.7 percent.

TINA CHARLES PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH OF JULY

Tina Charles was named the Eastern Conference Player of the Week on Aug. 3, and followed that up with her fifth-career Player of the Month award just 24 hours later. Charles was tabbed as the East's top player for July after leading the Liberty to a 6-2 record, while averaging 19.9 points and 9.5 rebounds per game; New York went 4-2 on the road during the stretch. It is the second time she has been named Player of the Month as a member of the Liberty. In two games the week prior to her Player of the Week nod, she posted 18 points and eight boards at Indiana, then erupted for 29 points in a win over Seattle.

MAKING A CASE FOR ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Kiah Stokes is having one of the most impressive rookie seasons in the WNBA and is making a solid case for being considered the league's Rookie of the Year. In terms of total all-around impact and overall team success, it is tough to argue any first year player is more critical to team success than Stokes, who leads all rookies in blocks and rebounds per game and field goal percentage. With Stokes helping anchor the interior, the Liberty lead the league in points against and defensive field goal percentage, and is the toughest team to score against in the paint.

LIBERTY SEASON HEADLINES

- New York has started the year with an 18-8 record, its best start to a season in franchise history, and the Liberty needed just 22 games to surpass its win total (15) from a year ago.
- The Liberty posted a five-game winning streak during the month of July, its longest stretch of consecutive wins since 2010.
- The 2010 season was also the last time New York won three-straight games on the road.
- New York swept the season series with Phoenix for the first time since 2012 and both games from Los Angeles for the first time since 2010.
- The Liberty is 8-2 against the Western Conference this season.
- New York is 9-3 at Madison Square Garden.

BECKY HAMMON INDUCTED INTO LIBERTY RING OF HONOR

One of the greatest players to ever wear a Liberty uniform and a perennial fan favorite, Becky Hammon was inducted into the New York Liberty Ring of Honor with a halftime ceremony on August 2. Undrafted out of Colorado State, Hammon went on to enjoy a 16-year WNBA career, the first eight of which were spent in New York, where she helped lead the franchise to three WNBA Finals appearances (1999, 2000, 2002). She ranks second in franchise history in games played (227) and is third in points scored (2,367) and fourth in assists (575). Hammon became the sixth member of the Liberty Ring of Honor, joining current Director of Player Development Teresa Weatherspoon, Sue Wicks, Kym Hampton, Rebecca Lobo and Vickie Johnson.

NEED FOR PROTECTING THE ROCK

New York is 10-2 this season when it wins the turnover battle, something it has been doing more often since committing 18.5 turnovers per game over the first eight games of the season. The Liberty was 4-4 during that stretch then cut its turnovers down to 13.0 per game over the ensuing nine games, posting an 8-1 record. After 21 turnovers in a loss at Indiana on July 29, New York was back on track with just 10 in a lopsided 78-62 win over Seattle on August 2, outscoring the Storm 27-7 in points off turnovers.

NEW YORK OWNS THE PAINT

Getting to the basket and protecting the rim have emerged as two strengths of this year's New York Liberty team. The Liberty average 33.7 ppg in the paint, which may rank just third in the league, but New York has been outscored in the paint just once this season. The Liberty's defensive ability has been a highlight all season long, and a lot of that success is due to its interior defense. The Liberty continue to lead the league in defensive field goal percentage at .384. New York is allowing just 22.9 ppg in the paint, by far the fewest in the league; Minnesota is second at 28.5.

TINA CHARLES NAMED EASTERN CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the first time this season, New York center Tina Charles was tabbed as the WNBA Eastern Conference Player of the Week on July 20. Charles was a force for New York, as the Liberty went 3-0 in the previous week, picking up wins over San Antonio, Connecticut and Phoenix, scoring in double figures in all three games with a pair of double-doubles averaging 18.0 points and 10.7 rebounds per game while shooting 44.4 percent from the field. She had 22 points and 12 rebounds in a big home win over the Sun and followed that up with 18 points and a season-high 14 rebounds as New York won at Phoenix, 75-73, for the first time since 2012. The Eastern Conference All-Star starter is enjoying a tremendous 2015 season, ranking fourth in the league in scoring (17.9 ppg) and third in rebounding (8.7 rpg) with nine double-doubles.

THEY DON'T SEE HER COMING

New York rookie Brittany Boyd is one of the quickest players in the WNBA, and that athleticism has allowed her to be one of the league's leaders in steals in just her first season. That attribute was on full display when she helped lead a late fourth-quarter comeback at Phoenix on July 18, grabbing three steals in the final 2:41 of the game as the Liberty erased a late seven-point deficit. Boyd is averaging 1.2 steals per game, which leads all rookies and ranks 12th in the WNBA.

KIAH STOKES BLOCKS FRANCHISE RECORD 8 SHOTS

Liberty rookie Kiah Stokes was a shot-blocking machine in the team's 64-57 win over Connecticut on July 16, as she came off the bench to record a franchise single-game record eight blocks, which are also the most for any WNBA player this season. Five of those swatted shots came in the fourth quarter, when New York limited the Sun to just 3-of-16 shooting. The previous Liberty single-game record for blocked shots was six, set by Shameka Christon at Phoenix on July 16, 2006. In a short period of time, Stokes has established herself as a premier defender in the WNBA, ranking third in the league with 2.2 blocks per game while displaying the ability to guard nearly any player on the floor.

#REPRESENTINGNYC #TCinCT CHARLES VOTED ALL-STAR STARTER

For the second time in her career, New York star center Tina Charles was voted by the fans to represented the Eastern Conference as a starter in the WNBA All-Star Game. Charles, who leads the Liberty in scoring and rebounding, and is amongst the league leaders in both categories, finished third in the East front-court players to secure her fourth-straight trip to the All-Star game (2011, 2013, 2014, 2015).

TINA CHARLES - MS. 3,000

Tina Charles became the 10th-fastest player in WNBA history to score 3,000 points when she finished with 21 points and 10 rebounds in a win over Washington on July 9. With 3,299-career points, she now ranks 46th in WNBA history, while her 17.4 ppg scoring average is the 10th-best mark all-time. Charles continues to lead New York in scoring (17.9 ppg) and rebounding (8.7 rpg) this season. She has nine double-doubles this season and her 106 over her six-year career already rank second all-time, trailing just Lisa Leslie's record of 157.

LIBERTY HOST 18,617 FANS DURING CAMP DAY WIN

The New York Liberty defeated the San Antonio Stars, 84-68, Wednesday afternoon at Madison Square Garden in front of 18,617 people, the largest crowd to watch a Liberty game at The Garden since 2002. It was the sixth-largest crowd to ever see a Liberty regular season game at Madison Square Garden, and the most fans since the team drew 19,563 against the Charlotte Sting on August 11, 2002.

CLIMBING THE CAREER CHARTS

With her 21 points against Washington on July 9, Tina Charles became the 10th-fastest player to reach 3,000-career points, doing so in just 175-career games. She also entered No. 50 in the all-time WNBA scoring list at 3,005 points, and in New York's game against Indiana on August 23, she moved past Monique Currie for 45th place all-time and 16th amongst active players. Her 10.4 rpg career-average is the best in WNBA history and her 17.4 ppg career scoring average is currently 10th all-time.

DEPTH CHARGE

Even before Epiphanny Prince returned to the lineup, New York was able to put its depth on display, as the Liberty are averaging 27.8 ppg from its bench which ranks second in the WNBA, and the team has won the bench scoring battle 18 times. For the season the Liberty bench holds a 27.8-19.3 advantage over the opposition.

WIGGINS POURS IN FIVE 3-POINTERS AT CHICAGO

Candice Wiggins was a flame thrower on the June 30 matchup at Chicago, shooting 5-of-5 from 3-point range for a season high 15 points. The performance enabled the sharp-shooting guard to break out of a bit of a scoring slump to start the season, where she hit just one 3-pointer through the first nine games of the year. She has hit a career-best six 3-pointers two times, the last of which actually came against the Liberty on Sept. 1, 2013, when she was a member of the Tulsa Shock.

TINA CHARLES RECORDS 100TH-CAREER DOUBLE-DOUBLE
With 13 points and 12 rebounds in the win at Atlanta on June 21, Tina Charles recorded the 100th-regular season double-double of her career. Charles ranks second all-time in the WNBA in career double-doubles (106), trailing just Lisa Leslie (157), and leads all active players. She has nine double-doubles so far this season.

ROOKIE REBECCA ALLEN TO MISS REMAINDER OF 2015 SEASON
The New York Liberty have been short handed to start the season due to Epiphanny Prince's commitment to compete in the EuroBasket Women 2015 Tournament during the month of June, but that lineup became a little thinner when it was announced that dynamic rookie forward Rebecca Allen will miss the remainder of the 2015 season in order to surgically repair a left-knee injury. That absence leaves the Liberty with 10 active players on the roster until Prince returns.

ISIAH THOMAS NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT
Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Isiah Thomas was named the President of the New York Liberty on May 5; he will oversee basketball and business operations for the franchise. Thomas played a critical role in the Liberty's busy offseason, which featured a number of trades and free agent signings, resulting in a new look team that features a blend of veteran leaders and exciting young talent heading into 2015. Additionally, Thomas created the Director of Player Development position now held by Liberty legend Teresa Weatherspoon, the first such position for any franchise in the WNBA. Thomas played 13 seasons for the Detroit Pistons, winning back-to-back NBA titles with Liberty head coach Bill Laimbeer in 1989-90. He has held NBA front office positions with the Toronto Raptors, Indiana Pacers and New York Knicks, spent three years as the head men's basketball coach at Florida International University, and currently works as an analyst for NBA TV.

LIBERTY MAKE A SPLASH IN THE DRAFT
The Liberty made five picks in the 2015 WNBA Draft, including a pair of first rounders, despite entering the day without a first-round pick, which had been sent to Connecticut in 2014 to acquire All-Star center Tina Charles. New York traded Alex Montgomery to San Antonio and selected All-American point guard Brittany Boyd from California. Additionally, the Liberty traded guard Anna Cruz and two picks to the Minnesota Lynx, selecting center Kiah Stokes from the University of Connecticut with the 11th overall pick.

NEW YORK STATE OF MIND
This year's team will have a local feel with three players hailing from the NYC metropolitan area: Tina Charles (Brooklyn – Christ the King), Epiphanny Prince (Queens – Murry Bergtraum), and Essence Carson (Paterson, N.J. – Paterson Eastside). Additionally, veteran guard Tanisha Wright was born in Brooklyn before moving to Pittsburgh as a child.

FRESH LOOK
This New York Liberty roster will look very different from a year ago. Of the 18 players that reported to camp in 2014, three remain on the active roster heading into 2015 (Tina Charles, Essence Carson, Sugar Rodgers). Carson is the only member of the Liberty that was on the roster when head coach Bill Laimbeer took over prior to the 2013 season.

BILL IS BACK
Head coach Bill Laimbeer returns for his third season with the New York Liberty. Laimbeer has won three WNBA titles (2003, 2006, 2008), all with the Detroit Shock, and was named the WNBA Coach of the Year in 2003 when he led the Shock to the first of three championships.

CONNECTICUT CONNECTION
Including 2015 First Round draft pick Kiah Stokes, the Liberty have a University of Connecticut connection, with three former Huskies on the squad (Tina Charles, Swin Cash), which ties for the most in the league (Seattle, Washington).

WELCOME HOME SPOON!
Liberty legend Teresa "T-Spoon" Weatherspoon rejoins the franchise as its first Director of Player Development. Weatherspoon, who played for the Liberty for seven seasons from 1997-2003, is in the Madison Square Garden Walk of Fame. She was a consultant with the team last season, and was the head coach at her alma mater Louisiana Tech from 2009-13. Weatherspoon is the Liberty's all-time leader in assists (1,306) and steals (453).

VETERAN LEADERSHIP
New York's roster is balanced with young players and veteran leaders who have WNBA titles on their resumes, including a pair of offseason acquisitions in Tanisha Wright and Candice Wiggins.

Swin Cash – The Liberty traded for Swin during the 2014 season and then resigned her this winter. A 13-year veteran, Swin has won three WNBA titles, including two with Bill Laimbeer when she played for the Detroit Shock (2003, 2006). She won her third league championship as a member of the Seattle Storm in 2010. Entering her 14th season in the league, Cash is tied for the second-longest WNBA tenure, trailing just Atlanta's DeLisha Milton-Jones.

Tanisha Wright – Wright played her first 10 WNBA seasons with Seattle, winning a WNBA title in 2010. She has been named to the WNBA All-Defensive team four times and has been exceedingly reliable during her career, as she is the only player in league history to compete in at least 32 games for nine consecutive seasons for the same team.

Candice Wiggins – Wiggins was a member of Minnesota's WNBA Championship team in 2011. She was drafted by the Lynx in 2008 and played there for six seasons before suiting up last year for the Los Angeles Sparks.

HERB WILLIAMS JOINS COACHING STAFF
Longtime NBA coach Herb Williams has joined the New York Liberty staff as an assistant coach. Williams began his coaching career as a New York Knicks assistant in 2003, before serving as the interim head coach in 2004 and 2005. The Columbus, Ohio, native, played collegiately at The Ohio State University from 1977-81, then enjoyed an 18-year playing career before joining the coaching ranks in 2003.

On Wednesday, June 3, the New York Liberty hosted the Summer Tip Off presented by Chase as a part of its WNBA Cares Week initiative. The Liberty saw every member of the 2015 squad, in addition to coaches, and Liberty legends, fan out across New York City and New Jersey to host 11 youth basketball clinics simultaneously. The Libs held at least one clinic in every one of NYC's five boroughs in addition to two in New Jersey. More than 1,000 local youth were impacted through the clinics, and every participant was provided with tickets to the season opener at Madison Square Garden. In addition to Madison Square Garden Marquee partner Chase, the New York City Parks and Recreation Department, Paterson Eastside High School and Queen City Academy stepped up to bring basketball to kids across the NYC metro area.
