MATCHUP QUICK HITS

Wednesday's matchup will mark the Liberty's 65th all-time regular-season meeting against Los Angeles and the final head-to-head matchup of their four-game season series in 2024. Against the Sparks, the Liberty is 33-31 (.516) in their all-time regular season series.

The Liberty last played the Sparks in the regular season on August 15th in their third meeting of the 2024 regular season at Crypto.com Arena, as New York earned a 103-68 win to extend the longest win streak against Los Angeles in franchise history to eight games.

Breanna Stewart led the Liberty offense with 27 points on 67% (10-15) shooting from the field and 75% (3-4) shooting from deep.

Sabrina Ionescu recorded 18 points, eight assists, and four rebounds while making three three-pointers in the win.

Jonquel Jones scored the game's first five points and finished with nine points, five rebounds, four assists, two steals, and a block.

Kayla Thornton scored 16 points off the bench on 56% (5-9) shooting from the field and 67% (4-6) shooting from beyond the arc.

Nyara Sabally set her career high with nine rebounds and added six points and three assists while shooting 75% (3-4) from the field.

This marked New York's third win by at least 35 points in 2024, setting a new WNBA record for 35 point wins in a single season.

The Liberty's 103 points scored and 35-point margin of victory marked the highest-scoring outing and biggest win by New York in the history of the matchup between these two original WNBA franchises.

New York held the Sparks to 10 points in the opening quarter for the lowest-scoring first quarter by a Liberty opponent since 2019. The Liberty also allowed just 28 points in the first half, marking the lowest first-half scoring output by a Liberty opponent so far in 2024.

The Liberty's 10 steals in the first half marked the franchise's first double-digit steals total in the first half since 2007.

New York finished with a season-high 37 bench points in the win over Los Angeles.

The Liberty finished with 31 assists to tie the team's season-high assist total, marking the third time New York has recorded at least 30 assists in a single game this season. No other team has had multiple games of 30 or more assists so far in 2024.

On both June 20 and June 22 against Los Angeles, the Liberty had four starters with five or more assists to become the first team in WNBA history to accomplish this feat more than twice in a single-season and the first to have four or more starters record at least five assists in consecutive games.

On June 22nd, the Sparks blocked just one shot against New York, marking the first time in Liberty franchise history that a player (Breanna Stewart, six blocks) out-blocked the entire opposing team by more than three blocks in a single regular-season game.

MATCHUP QUICK HITS

Kayla Thornton made 76% (10-13) of her three-point attempts over her last two matchups with Los Angeles, which is the highest three-point percentage over consecutive games by a Sparks opponent all-time (min. 10 total attempts).

Sabrina Ionescu's 3.3 career threes made per game vs. Los Angeles is the most all-time among Sparks opponents (min. 10 games).

Breanna Stewart's career 22.1 points per game is the third-highest career scoring average against Los Angeles in WNBA history (min. 10 games). Stewart also ranks second all-time in average field-goals made against the Sparks, at 8.0 (min. 10 games).

Jonquel Jones's career 57.0% field-goal percentage is the second-highest career field-goal percentage against Los Angeles in WNBA history (min. 500 total minutes). Jones also ranks third in career rebounding average (9.1) against the Sparks (min. 10 games).

Liberty Head Coach Sandy Brondello shot the highest career three-point percentage against the Sparks (62.5%) among all players with at least 10 three-point attempts against Los Angeles in WNBA history.

During Monday's win over Phoenix, the Liberty went on a 10-0 run in the fourth quarter for the team's 35th scoring run of 10 or more consecutive points in 2024, setting the all-time WNBA record for most scoring runs of at least 10 points in a single season, per Elias Sports Bureau.

New York held the Mercury to nine points in the first quarter for the lowest-scoring first quarter by a Liberty opponent since 2018.

Phoenix also finished the opening quarter without an assist, marking the second time the Liberty held an opponent to zero assists in a single quarter this season, which is the most in the WNBA.

The Liberty forced the Mercury into 22 turnovers, which is the most by a Liberty opponent this season.

Courtney Vandersloot set her season highs with 16 points and three triples on Monday and tied her season high with six rebounds.

Sabrina Ionescu passed Kia Vaughn (263) for sixth in total rebounds in Liberty franchise history and set her season high with three steals during the Liberty's win in Phoenix.

Betnijah Laney-Hamilton returned from a nine-game absence to play her 100th career game in a Liberty uniform as she came off the bench to record nine points and three assists while tying her season high with three steals.

Leonie Fiebich recorded her 13th game with a plus-minus of at least +10, which is the most by a Liberty rookie in franchise history. Only four players all-time (Maya Moore, Elena Delle Donne, Yolanda Griffith and Nneka Ogwumike) had more such games as a rookie.

Sabrina Ionescu scored at least 10 points in all 29 games so far this season, which is tied for the most in the WNBA in 2024 and is the second-longest streak of double-digit scoring to start a season in franchise history, behind Breanna Stewart's 39 games in 2023.

Opponents shot -18.1% below expected FG% on 162 layups with Breanna Stewart as the closest defender, which is the lowest among 105 players who have defended at least 30 layups in 2024 according to Second Spectrum.

Sabrina Ionescu ranks second in the WNBA in first-quarter scoring in 2024 (6.8 first-quarter points per game) and ranks atop the league in double-digit scoring performances in the first quarter so far this season (8).

Betnijah Laney-Hamilton leads the WNBA in plus-minus per game (+11.7) in 2024.

Leonie Fiebich averaged a +13.6 plus-minus in 13 games as a starter, which is the highest among all WNBA starters in 2024.

New York recorded a league-best +30.9 net rating in 42 clutch-time minutes so far this season.

The Liberty averaged a league-high 12.4 fast-break points per game so far this season.

2024 STORYLINES

NOTHING BUT NET

The Liberty recorded a league-best 12.6 points per 100 possessions so far in 2024 and are the only team in the league to record a net rating better than +10.0 this season.

New York's +12.6 net rating is on pace to be the best in franchise history and the eighth-highest in WNBA history. Each of the previous seven teams who recorded a net rating of +12.5 or better went on to win the WNBA Championship that season.

TEAM	SEASON	NETRTG	RESULT
NYL	2024	+12.6	TBD
LVA	2023	+15.3	Champions
SEA	2020	+15.0	Champions
WAS	2019	+14.8	Champions
MIN	2017	+14.1	Champions
HOU	2000	+18.4	Champions
HOU	1999	+13.1	Champions
HOU	1998	+17.4	Champions

The Liberty are the only team in the WNBA this season with an offensive rating above 105.0 (106.5 points per 100 possessions) and a defensive rating below 100.0 (93.8)

New York leads the league in net rating (+12.6), offensive rating (106.5) and defensive rating (93.8) this season, becoming the ninth team in WNBA history to lead the league in all three categories with fewer than 10 games remaining in the season. Each of the previous eight teams made the WNBA Finals and seven of the eight went on to win the WNBA Championship that season.

PRIMED FOR PARIS

Breanna Stewart and Sabrina Ionescu each won Gold Medals after leading USA to a 6-0 record at the 2024 Paris Summer Olympics.

Stewart was named to the All-Star Five in Paris after averaging 16.3 points, 5.3 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.7 blocks on 56.7% shooting from the field, while Ionescu's +6.5 plus-minus was tied for the eighth-best among all players in Paris.

Head Coach Sandy Brondello and the Australia Opals earned a Bronze Medal in Paris for the country's first Olympic medal since 2012.

Leonie Fiebich and Nyara Sabally led Germany to the Quarterfinals in the country's first Olympic berth all-time for women's basketball.

Fiebich tied for the fourth-highest steals average in Paris at 2.5 steals per game while leading Germany in minutes at 33.3 per game.

Sabally recorded her first career double-double in the Olympics with 20 points and 13 rebounds in Germany's Quarterfinals loss to France, and her 14 free throws made marked the most made free throws by a player in a single Olympic match since 1984.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Liberty look to continue building on a strong defensive performance in 2023, where New York ranked third in defensive rating (99.4) while leading the league in in defensive rebound rate (73.3%) and opponent eFG% (47.6%).

eFG% counts three-pointers as 1.5 shots and two-pointers as 1 shot to account for the difference in points value.

No team held the Las Vegas Aces to a lower eFG% (50.9%), FTA rate (20%), or offensive rating (103.1) than the Liberty did in 2023.

After holding Las Vegas to the team's first single-digit scoring quarter of the season in 2024, each of the last three single-digit scoring quarters by the Aces have come against the Liberty's defense.

New York held opponents to a league-low 55.2% field goal percentage on shots within five feet of the rim in 2024.

The Liberty limited opposing offenses to a league-low 8.5 second-chance points per game this season, which is on pace to be the fewest by any team since 2021.

Breanna Stewart (-18.1%) and Nyara Sabally (-11.4%) rank first and ninth, respectively, in the WNBA this season for opponent field-goal percentage below expected on layups as the closest defender (min. 30 layups defended) according to Second Spectrum.

2024 STORYLINES

PLAYOFF PUSH

The Liberty became the first team to clinch the 2024 WNBA postseason with a victory over Las Vegas on August 17.

This marks the first time in franchise history that the Liberty have been the first team to clinch a WNBA playoff appearance, per ESPN.

JUMP FROM JJ

Jonquel Jones showed significant growth as a playmaker and shooter prior to the Olympic Break, as she averaged a career-high 3.5 assists per game and set her career high with eight assists on June 20 vs. Los Angeles.

Jonquel leads the WNBA in efficiency (72.6% eFG%) on fourth-quarter shots with the score within 10 points (min. 25 attempts).

SA-THREE-NA

Sabrina Ionescu set the WNBA single-season record for made three-pointers with 128 in 2023.

Ionescu's 44.8% three-point percentage in 2023 was the best in WNBA history among players who attempted at least 200 threes.

In 2023, Sabrina became the first player in WNBA history to make at least 100 above-the-break three-pointers in a single season.

Ionescu has hit at least one three-pointer in each of her last 54 games, the longest streak in Liberty franchise history.

With the 13th 30-point game of her career, Sabrina passed Cappie Pondexter for the most 30-point games in Liberty franchise history.

STEW-WAY PLAYER

Breanna Stewart's 23.0 points per game last season was the third-highest scoring average for a player selected to an All-Defensive team in the same season in WNBA history.

Stewart's 39 games scoring in double figures tied for the most in the league (Arike Ogunbowale) and tied the record for most double-digit scoring games in WNBA single-season history.

Stewart set a WNBA single-season record with four games of 40 or more points in 2023, and also became the first player to score 900 points in a season throughout WNBA history.

THREE-AND-B

Betnijah Laney-Hamilton tied the WNBA single-season record for most corner three-pointers made since 2009 with 37. Tied for third on that list are Liberty assistant coach Roneeka Hodges (34 corner three-pointers made in 2009) and Nicole Powell (34 in 2010).

The former WNBA Most Improved Player led the league in three-pointers made from both the right corner and the left corner in 2023.

SELFLESS SLOOT

Courtney Vandersloot earned her seventh career WNBA Peak Performer award in assists after finishing the 2023 regular season with a league-best 8.1 assists per game.

The veteran point guard was either first or tied for first in assist average against five WNBA teams in 2023 (DAL, CON, IND, SEA, CHI).

TEAM	APG
Chicago Sky	8.5
Connecticut Sun	8.0
Dallas Wings	9.0
Indiana Fever	11.0
Seattle Storm	9.3

Vandersloot has recorded 61 career points/assists double-doubles, which is more than twice as many as any other player all-time.

2024 STORYLINES

REVAMPED RESERVES

New York remodeled the second unit this offseason to bring in more athleticism and playmaking, adding Kennedy Burke, Leonie Fiebich, Ivana Dojkić, and Marquesha Davis.

The bench is led by returner Kayla Thornton, one of the most active three-and-D players in the league.

Dojkić looks to help New York push the pace, as she ranked in the top ten for fast-break points per 100 possessions in 2023 (4.7).

Davis, the 11th overall pick in the 2024 WNBA Draft, was one of three SEC players to average multiple two-point field goals made in transition per game during the 2023-24 NCAA season.

The top three lineups in net rating with more than 75 minutes played this season are all Liberty lineups.

LINEUP	TEAM	NETRTG
Ionescu, Fiebich, Thornton, Stewart, Jones	NYL	+27.7
Ionescu, Laney-Hamilton, Fiebich, Stewart, Jones	NYL	+25.9
Vandersloot, Ionescu, Laney-Hamilton, Stewart, Jones	NYL	+23.9

New York's went 11-0 in games where the Liberty's reserves outscore the opponent's bench so far this season.

RISING ROOKIE

Leonie Fiebich recorded an average plus-minus of +13.6 in 12 games as a starter, which is the highest plus-minus among all WNBA starters in 2024.

Fiebich is on pace to become the first rookie in WNBA history to average a plus-minus of +10.0 or better as a starter (min. 10 starts). Her +13.6 plus-minus as a starter is the best by any NBA or WNBA rookie with at least 10 starts since the NBA began tracking play-by-play data in 1996-97.

Leonie is the only rookie to be a part of multiple lineups with a net rating above +10.0 in 2024 (min. 50 minutes played).

The reigning LF Endesa MVP tied for the longest steals streak among 2024 rookies, recording a steal in nine consecutive games.

On July 11, Leonie tied the Liberty franchise record for the highest single-game plus-minus by a rookie, with a +27 against Chicago.

Fiebich became the first 2024 rookie to record a plus-minus of +20 or better in a single game this season, and she is also one of four 2024 rookies to record multiple games of at least four three-pointers this season.

Leonie Fiebich and Caitlin Clark are the only two 2024 rookies to record consecutive games with at least seven rebounds and five assists this season. Only five other rookies since 2000 have reached that stat line in consecutive games (Tamika Catchings, Candace Parker, Breanna Stewart, Aliyah Boston, and Dorka Juhász).

Fiebich became the first rookie since Napheesa Collier in 2019 to post a plus-minus of +20 or better in consecutive games.

Leonie's 2.04 AST/TOV leads all rookies (min. 20 games), and is the best by a rookie taller than 6'3 all-time (min. 500 minutes).

Her seven consecutive games recording a plus-minus of +10 or better is the longest such streak by a first-year player in WNBA history.

Fiebich also became one of two 2024 rookies (Caitlin Clark) to record at least seven rebounds and a steal with multiple three-pointers and a field-goal percentage of 50% or better.

Leonie is on pace to become the fourth rookie since 2010 to average at least 1.3 made three-pointers and one offensive rebound per game (min. 500 total minutes), joining Breanna Stewart, Elena Delle Donne, and Maya Moore.

Opponents scored 0.816 points per chance on drives with Leonie Fiebich as the ballhandler defender, which is the fifth-lowest among 33 defenders to face at least 100 opponent drives this season, and the lowest among all rookie defenders.

2024 STORYLINES

DROPPING DIMES

The Liberty posted the highest assist rate (75.0%) in WNBA history in 2023 and set a franchise record with 24.1 assists per game.

The Liberty recorded more assists than their opponents in 32 games last season, the most in WNBA single-season history, and went 29-3 (.906) in those games.

Courtney Vandersloot connected with Breanna Stewart for 116 assists in 2023, making them the first assister-scorer duo in WNBA history to exceed 100 assists in a single season.

The Liberty have recorded at least 15 assists in 102 consecutive games since May 2022, the longest such streak in WNBA history.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

For the first time in franchise history, the Liberty had multiple players with 10 or more double-doubles in a single season in 2023 (Breanna Stewart and Jonquel Jones).

Breanna Stewart tied the Liberty franchise record for single-season double-doubles in 2023 with 20 (Tina Charles, 2015).

Jonquel Jones set a WNBA postseason record with eight double-doubles to begin the 2023 WNBA Playoffs.

Liberty players accumulated 41 double-doubles in 2023, the second-most double-doubles by a team in WNBA single-season history.

The Liberty averaged 15.5 second-chance points per 100 possessions and 47.7 points in the paint per 100 possessions with Jonquel in the game in 2023, compared to just 11.6 second-chance points and 35.6 points in the paint per 100 possessions without her playing.

The duo of Jonquel Jones and Breanna Stewart have each recorded a double-double in the same game eight times since joining the Liberty, which is the most by any duo in franchise history.

For the second time in Liberty franchise history and the 24th time in WNBA history, three players on the same team recorded a double-double in the same game (Jones, Stewart and Vandersloot on August 20).

RUNNING IT BACK

The Liberty return all five members of the 2023 squad's All-Star starting unit with a full year of chemistry under their belts. New York's lineup of Courtney Vandersloot, Sabrina Ionescu, Betnijah Laney-Hamilton, Breanna Stewart, and Jonquel Jones started a league-high 35 games last season and posted a +20 net rating in 517 minutes together on the court.

New York's 2023 starting unit posted a +5.2 net rating in 246 postseason minutes, leading the Liberty to the franchise's first WNBA Finals appearance since 2002 and the first home Finals win in franchise history.

The Liberty's starting unit has the third-best net rating (23.9) of any lineup with more than 75 minutes played so far in 2024.

MVP PARTY

Breanna Stewart won 2023 WNBA MVP, while Jonquel Jones won MVP of the 2023 Commissioner's Cup, previously won the 2021 WNBA MVP, and was named the International Player of the Year in the Women's Chinese Basketball Association this offseason.

Leonie Fiebich won MVP of the LF Endesa League in Spain for the second consecutive season in 2023-24, and was also selected to the 2024 All-EuroLeague First Team.

Kennedy Burke was named the LFB MVP in France in back-to-back seasons and was a 2024 All-EuroLeague Second Team selection.

SANDY BRONDELLO

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEAD COACH
3RD SEASON WITH NEW YORK | 12TH SEASON | NO. 6 ALL-TIME IN WINS

Veteran WNBA coach, player, and former Australian Olympian Sandy Brondello (braun-DELL-oh) was named the ninth head coach in Liberty franchise history on January 7, 2022. Brondello joined New York after an eight-year head coaching tenure with the Phoenix Mercury where she led the team to a playoff appearance in each of her eight seasons. After the 2023 season, Brondello holds an overall regular season record of 212-156 (.576) over her 11 combined seasons at the helm of the Liberty, Mercury and San Antonio Silver Stars, making her the seventh-winningest coach in WNBA history.

Additionally, Brondello has compiled a 31-27 postseason record throughout her head coaching career, ranking her as the fourth-winningest coach in league postseason history. In 2014, Sandy was named the WNBA Coach of the Year after she led Phoenix to a WNBA regular season-record 29 wins and capped the season with a WNBA Championship. In 2023, Brondello led the Liberty to the Commissioner's Cup Championship and first WNBA Finals appearance since 2002.

A 19-year veteran of the WNBA coaching ranks, Brondello has been affiliated with the league for 24 of its 27 seasons, including her time as a player. A proven winner internationally and in the WNBA, her 19 total years as an assistant coach and head coach have featured 16 playoff appearances, highlighted by a perfect 11-for-11 in postseason berths as a head coach.

In those 11 postseasons, Sandy led her teams to eight Semifinals round berths (formerly conference finals) and three WNBA Finals appearances in 2014, 2021, and 2023. Prior to her time with the Mercury, Brondello served as lead assistant coach for the Los Angeles Sparks (2011-13) under 2012 WNBA Coach of the Year Carol Ross. Brondello led the San Antonio Silver Stars to a 2010 playoff berth in her debut season at the helm following five seasons on the Silver Stars bench as an assistant under Dan Hughes (2005-09), the fifth-winningest coach in league history.

A 2010 inductee into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame, Brondello was named the 11th head coach for the Australian Women's National Basketball team on April 17, 2017. Most recently, Brondello led the Australian National Team to a Bronze Medal in the 2024 Paris Summer Olympics. In addition to her work internationally with the Australian Women's National Basketball team, Brondello previously served as an assistant coach with UMMC Ekaterinburg in Russia from 2012-2017.

Brondello finished a stellar 17-year professional playing career with a five-year run in the WNBA in which she played for Detroit (1998-99), Miami (2001-02) and Seattle (2003), and was named a 1999 WNBA All-Star. She began her career with the Women's National Basketball League (WNBL) in Australia (1986-96), and was named the league MVP in 1995. The 5-7 guard was a 10-time German Cup champion while playing with BTV Wuppertal (1992-2002), a three-time European Cup All-Star selection (1994, 1996, 1997), and the 1996 European Cup MVP when she led her team to the title.

An 18-year member of the Australian National Team, Brondello is a four-time Olympian, a two-time silver medalist (2000, 2004) and was named the 1992 Australian International Player of the Year.

Brondello is married to Liberty assistant coach, Olaf Lange, and the couple have two children, Brody and Jayda.
