On July 22, the Liberty became the third team in WNBA history to overcome an eight-point deficit in the final minute of regulation, and the first team in franchise history (seventh in WNBA history) to come back from a 12-point deficit in the final five minutes and win in regulation.

LAST CALL AT MOHEGAN SUN ARENA

The Liberty closed the book on the franchise's all-time matchup against Connecticut with an 82-75 win on Aug. 15, completing a 3-0 season sweep in the final meeting between the teams before the Sun's planned relocation to Houston for the 2027 WNBA season. New York went on a 15-0 run in the second and held the Sun to 10 points in the period on 17.6 percent (3-for-17) shooting, the second-fewest by a Liberty opponent in any quarter this season. Connecticut shot 35.8 percent (24-for-67) from the field, the third-lowest by a Liberty opponent, and the Sun's 24 made field goals was the second-fewest by a New York opponent in 2026. Jonquel Jones tied Tina Charles for the second-most career double-doubles at Mohegan Sun Arena (45), combining regular season and playoffs.

JJ RULES THE BOARDS

Jonquel Jones poured in 23 points on Aug. 15 in Connecticut, including 19 before halftime for her highest-scoring half of 2026 and 13 in the second quarter for her best single quarter of the year. She knocked down three 3-pointers to tie her career high for a single quarter and passed Essence Carson (705) for the 10th-most field goals made in Liberty franchise history with 707. Jones has now recorded at least 10 points and seven rebounds in seven consecutive games, the longest such streak of her Liberty tenure.

She grabbed a season-high 18 rebounds to go with 11 points, four assists, a block and a steal against Los Angeles on Aug. 13, tying her high for rebounds in a Liberty uniform. It was her sixth game with at least 17 rebounds with New York, twice as many as any other player in franchise history, and the 25th game of her career with at least 15 boards, the fifth-most in WNBA history. Jones set her season high with four offensive rebounds in a single quarter in the first and tied her career high with eight rebounds in a quarter for the third time this season, matching the number of eight-rebound quarters by the rest of the WNBA combined so far in 2026. Jones posted a double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds with three blocks and three 3-pointers at Indiana on Aug. 11 while shooting 71.4 percent (5-for-7) from the field and 75 percent (3-for-4) from deep, becoming the first player in franchise history to record that line multiple times in a Liberty uniform. She is the only player to do so multiple times in 2026 and joins Elena Delle Donne (2019) and Napheesa Collier (2025) as the only players to do it twice in a single season in WNBA history.

LIBERTY DOMINATE ACES TO CLINCH SEASON SERIES

The Liberty routed the Aces 111-71 on Aug. 9 for the third-largest margin of victory in franchise history and the team's largest win over Las Vegas all-time. New York's 111 points marked the second time the Liberty topped 110 this season, the first time in franchise history they have done so multiple times in the same year. New York outscored Las Vegas 52-26 in the paint and 13-4 on second-chance points, and the team's 37 points in the fourth quarter set a season high for any quarter. Chris DeMarco became the fastest coach in franchise history to 20 wins (33 games).

MARINE MAGIC

Marine Johannès scored a career-high 27 points off the bench against Las Vegas on Aug. 9, shooting 64.3 percent (9-for-14) from the field and matching her career high with seven 3-pointers on 58.3 percent (7-for-12) from deep. She poured in 20 points in the second half, the highest-scoring half of her career, and tied her career high with four 3-pointers in a quarter in the fourth. Johannès matched the franchise record for 3-pointers off the bench in a single game and became the seventh reserve in WNBA history to knock down seven threes in a game. She also surpassed her previous career highs for 3-pointers (65) and points (281) in a single season.

Johannès added 17 points on 66.7 percent (6-for-9) shooting from the field and 62.5 percent (5-for-8) from beyond the arc with five assists in Connecticut on Aug. 15. It was her 14th game in a Liberty uniform with at least five made 3-pointers, the second-most in franchise history behind Sabrina Ionescu, and her sixth game with five or more threes this year, tied for the third-most by any player in 2026. She collected her 100th career steal and set a career high for field goals made in a single season, passing her previous best of 100.

ALLEN ANSWERS THE CALL

Rebecca Allen made her first Liberty start since 2022 on July 20 at Dallas, recording her 200th career block to become the 12th player in WNBA history with 200 blocks and 200 3-pointers in fewer than 300 games. She added 12 points on 66.7 percent (4-for-6) shooting from the field on Aug. 5, including 10 points in the opening quarter for the highest-scoring first quarter of her career and her highest-scoring quarter of the year. She contributed 13 points on 71.4 percent (5-for-7) shooting with a pair of 3-pointers, eight rebounds, two assists, two steals and a block on Aug. 9. Her eight rebounds were her most in a game since June 30, 2024. Allen finished with 11 points on 66.7 percent (4-for-6) shooting at Indiana on Aug. 11 and matched her season high with 13 points on 50 percent (5-for-10) shooting and 60 percent (3-for-5) from long range on Aug. 13, reaching 1,000 points in a Liberty uniform. She has connected on multiple 3-pointers in five straight games, the longest such streak of her career.

STREAKING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

New York scored at least 90 points in a WNBA-record 10 consecutive games through Aug. 13, the longest such streak in WNBA history. The Liberty also reached 10 second-chance points in a franchise-record 17 straight games.

STEWART'S BLOCK PARTY CONTINUES

Breanna Stewart blocked two shots on Aug. 1 at Phoenix to pass Kiah Stokes (195) and become the Liberty's all-time franchise blocks leader with 196. Stewart blocked at least one shot in 11 consecutive games through Aug. 9, tied for the longest blocks streak of her career. Stewart has recorded a steal or a block in 34 consecutive games, the longest streak in the WNBA this season, and has scored in double figures with a steal or block in a franchise-record 26 straight games. Stewart became the first player in Liberty franchise history to reach 200 blocks on Aug. 9, joining Sylvia Fowles as the only players in league history to record at least 200 blocks each with multiple franchises.

DEPTH DELIVERS

The Liberty's reserves scored 58 points against Las Vegas on Aug. 9, the third-highest bench scoring total in franchise history and New York's highest since 2016. Marine Johannès scored a career-high 27 points while matching the franchise record for 3-pointers off the bench in a single game with seven, also tying her career high. Rebekah Gardner put up 11 points and a season-high seven rebounds, including four offensive boards to match her career high, while Marine Fauthoux dished out a career-high nine assists, including a career-best seven in the second half. Han Xu chipped in 14 points on 71.4 percent (5-for-7) shooting from the field.

The Liberty's reserves previously outscored the Los Angeles bench 41-19 on July 28, with Gardner (15), Han (13) and Fauthoux (13) each scoring 13 points, marking the second time in franchise history that three Liberty reserves have done so in a game. Gardner shot 83.3 percent (5-for-6) from the field in her highest-scoring game since July 23, 2022 while making her 100th field goal in a Liberty uniform and recording her 25th career double-digit scoring game. Han set a career high with three 3-pointers, scoring 11 points in the first quarter for her highest-scoring quarter of the season while posting a career-best plus-29, tied for the third-highest by a Liberty reserve in franchise history. Fauthoux set her career high with 13 points, including 10 in the fourth for the highest-scoring quarter of her career.

RALLY IN THE DESERT

The Liberty erased a 10-point third-quarter deficit and closed the period on a 12-1 run to take a 94-92 win at Phoenix on Aug. 1, completing a 3-0 season sweep of the Mercury. New York held Phoenix to 25 percent (4-for-16) shooting in the first quarter, matching the lowest field-goal percentage and fewest field goals made by any Liberty opponent in a quarter this season. The Liberty shot 66.7 percent (6-for-9) from beyond the arc in the second half, their best 3-point percentage in any half this season. This was New York's fourth time coming back from an eight-point deficit to win in five games, the first time in franchise history the Liberty recorded four such wins in a five-game span.

PAULINE POWERS UP THE ROOKIE RANKS

Pauline Astier scored 19 points on 66.7 percent (8-for-12) shooting with four assists and two steals at Las Vegas on July 30, joining Teresa Weatherspoon as the only rookies in Liberty franchise history to record at least 19 points, four assists and two steals while shooting better than 60 percent from the field in a game. She scored her 300th career point on Aug. 3 to become the first rookie in Liberty franchise history with 300 points and 100 assists. Astier passed Kia Nurse (310) for the fourth-most points by a rookie in franchise history on Aug. 5, finishing with 11 points on a perfect 4-for-4 from the field to go with five assists and three rebounds. It was her ninth game shooting 50 percent or better from the field while dishing out at least five assists, tying Paige Bueckers for the fifth-most such games by a rookie in WNBA history. In her first six games after the All-Star Break, Astier became the first rookie guard in WNBA history to shoot 70 percent from the field on at least 30 attempts in a six-game span. She passed Anna Cruz (121) for the second-most assists by a rookie in Liberty franchise history on Aug. 13.

500 THREES FOR SABRINA

Sabrina Ionescu became the third player in WNBA history to make 500 3-pointers within the first 200 games of her career, reaching the mark in her 199th game on Aug. 1 at Phoenix. Ionescu led New York with 27 points, a season-high 10 assists and seven rebounds on Aug. 1 at Phoenix for her fourth career game with 25 points, 10 assists and seven rebounds, and no other player in WNBA history has done so more than twice. Throughout the season, the Liberty are celebrating the franchise's legacy with commemorative merchandise, in-arena giveaways, community events, theme nights, and original storytelling that highlight the special people and moments that have defined the Liberty's journey. New York will honor the legendary Liberty players who made significant contributions to the Liberty's tradition of excellence and played pivotal roles in some of the most memorable moments and seasons in the franchise's 30-year history.

Anchored by a "30 Seasons" throwback-inspired logo, the campaign's visual identity blends the franchise's earliest influences with a modernized aesthetic. The bold "30" symbolizes three decades of continuity and strength, incorporating the original orange torch from the Liberty's original Lady Liberty primary logo, representing both the origins of the franchise and the energy that continues to drive it forward. Angular crown details, accented with the team's original blue colorway, pay homage to the Liberty's foundational era and trailblazing spirit since 1997. A star set on the finger of the torch-bearing fist stands as a symbol of the Liberty's 2024 WNBA Championship, capturing a defining moment in franchise history. Completed with a contemporary color palette and dimensional accents, the logo blends retro inspiration with modern design, capturing the movement of the city and the momentum of the team today.

The "30 Seasons" mark appears across merchandise, in-arena branding, digital platforms, and storytelling moments, serving as a unifying symbol that connects generations of players and fans through a shared past and a collective future.

BROOKLYN BASKETBALL

Brooklyn Basketball opened the 18,600 sq. ft. Brooklyn Basketball Training Center in September of 2025 and since then, the initiative has continued to grow and expand their reach across New York.

This marks the third year of the partnership between Brooklyn Basketball and the NYC Department of Education on an innovative program that gives elementary and middle school students access to free, in-school basketball clinics. This year alone, the program has reached over 23,000 youth across 170 schools and is on track to exceed 35,000 students by the end of 2026. In addition to schools, Brooklyn Basketball has partnered with organizations like the YMCA and Boys & Girls Clubs to bring community-based clinics to neighborhoods across Brooklyn, making the game more accessible.

Brooklyn Basketball also brings schools to the Brooklyn Basketball Training Center for programs during the school day. To date, the training center has hosted over 1,600 students from 24 schools, many of whom do not have their own facilities, for on-site experiences. The center has also hosted after-school programs, weekend training, camps, all-girls programs and other activations, while making space for students to finish homework and address other needs before and after training.

The multi-court youth basketball training facility is the first in the tri-state area to use Shoot 360 technology. Shoot 360, a leader in basketball innovation and skill development, uses advanced ball detection technology that is leveraged by teams across the WNBA and NBA, and now by the training center as well. The technology utilizes interactive features and physical activity to measure participants' skillset and analyzes performance data for suggestions on how participants can improve their game. Empowering youth with this technology aligns directly with Brooklyn Basketball's mission to deliver high-quality, inclusive, and accessible basketball programming.

The Brooklyn Basketball Training Center is right across the street from Barclays Center on Flatbush Avenue, providing the Liberty and the Nets a unique opportunity to impact children, families, schools and programs across New York.

CHRIS DEMARCO

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON WITH NEW YORK | 1ST SEASON IN WNBA

Four-time NBA Champion Chris DeMarco was named the 10th head coach in New York Liberty franchise history on December 3, 2025. DeMarco arrives in Brooklyn following 14 seasons with the Golden State Warriors, where he won NBA titles in 2015, 2017, 2018, and 2022. He joined Golden State under Mark Jackson in 2012 and was retained by Steve Kerr, working across player development, assistant coaching, and defensive roles during the Warriors' championship era.

In Golden State, DeMarco played a pivotal role on Steve Kerr's coaching staff, largely focusing on the team's individual skill development and systems, that ultimately culminated in one of the most successful dynasties in modern basketball history. During DeMarco's tenure, Golden State's defense held opponents to the league's second-lowest shot quality over the past 10 seasons (49.9% qSQ), per Second Spectrum. The Warriors also led the league in net rating three times during that span and won an NBA single-season record 73 games in the 2015-16 season.

In addition to his NBA success, DeMarco has served as head coach of the Bahamas Men's National Team since 2019. Under his leadership, the team achieved its most significant victory in program history, defeating host Argentina in the 2024 Olympic Pre-Qualifying Tournament final. He has also been a featured coach at Basketball Without Borders (BWB) Americas, mentoring top international prospects and advancing the game globally.

The 2026 campaign is DeMarco's first as a WNBA head coach after beginning his professional career with the Warriors in video and scouting before advancing to Director of Player Development and ultimately serving as an assistant coach.
