CONGRATULATIONS

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the World Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140-280 characters or less, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the next 2 pages, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics

Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous game in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All Aces box scores are located on line.

LOCAL WATCH PARTIES

In addition to the national TV schedule listed on page 1, the following 29 Las Vegas Aces games also will be broadcast locally on Silver State Sports & Entertainment Network or FOX5.

Individual Player Profiles

Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this document.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes

This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent

These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent.

Additional Information

Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 4).

Frequently Asked Question

"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several typos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

BREAKING RECORDS

The Aces 105-64 victory at Seattle to open the 2023 season set three new league and/or franchise benchmarks.

The 41-point margin of victory over the Storm is the largest margin of victory for the franchise in the history of the series (previous record was 24 points, 90-66, on 9/14/2012).

The 41-point win set a league record for opening day margin of victory, which previously was 36 points (Connecticut 101, Las Vegas 65 on 5/20/2018, per Elias Sports Bureau).

The Aces broke the league record for most defensive rebounds \(44\) in a regulation game (previous record of 43 was accomplished twice, once each by Chicago and Las Vegas).

SEAMLESSLY ON THE SAME PAGE

Tyler Marsh served as the acting head coach in the Aces 105-64 win over Seattle. Natalie Nakase will be the acting head coach against Los Angeles.

GOLDEN STARTERS

We believe that the Aces are just the second WNBA team to feature a starting lineup with five Olympic gold medalists. Chelsea Gray, Candace Parker and A'ja Wilson earned their golds playing traditional 5x5 basketball, while Kelsey Plum and Jackie Young made up half of the 2020 U.S. Olympic 3x3 Team. The 2015 Minnesota Lynx started Olympic gold medalists Seimone Augustus, Sylvia Fowles, Asjha Jones, Maya Moore and Lindsay Whalen.

RAISE THE STAKES

The Las Vegas Aces produced a 90-minute docuseries that chronicles our journey to winning the 2022 WNBA Championship that brought Las Vegas its first-ever major professional sports title. If you've not watched it yet, follow the links below to follow along as we recap the historic season.

- Watch Chapter 2: Enter the Maestro
- Stay tuned for Chapter 3!

HELLO ... MY NAME IS ...

There are three new faces on the Aces in 2023 — a trio of free agents the team signed during the offseason.

Two-time WNBA Champion and two-time MVP Candace Parker was the biggest name acquisition for the team as she looks to become the first player to win a title with three different franchises.

Two-time WNBA Champion and two-time All-Defensive Team honoree (2020 1st, 2019 2nd) Alysha Clark also signed with the Aces during the offseason, as did four-time WNBL Champion Cayla George, who was a member of the 2020 Australia Olympic Team and earned one silver (2018) and two bronze medals (2014, 2022) playing for her country over the past three FIBA World Cups.

ALL ABOUT THAT PACE

The Aces have played at one of the fastest paces in the league since moving to Las Vegas as measured by possessions per 40 minutes.

	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	*2023

BE ... AGGRESSIVE. B. E. AGGRESSIVE

Since moving to Las Vegas, the Aces have worn out a path to the free throw line, finishing 1st in the league in free throw attempts 3 times.

	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	*2023

LOW ON RESERVES

Las Vegas' bench averaged a league record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history have averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves.

Two years later, in the Aces' championship season, the bench averaged 12.9 points—12th in the league.

STARTER KIT

The flip side of the bench coin is that the Aces starters set a WNBA record in 2022 by scoring more points than any starting five in league history, and they're starting tops in the category again in 2023.

IF A T(H)REE FALLS IN THE WOODS ...

Although the Aces have been one of the best 3-point shooting teams over the past 5 years, it wasn't always a big part of their arsenal. In 2022, the Aces utilized the 3-pointer to a much greater degree.

2021	Seattle	28.41

FUN FACT: The Aces hold the top 2 marks for most defensive rebounds in a regulation game in WNBA history with 44 at Seattle on May 20, 2023, and 43 at Los Angeles on July 1, 2022.

GONE STREAKING ...

Kierstan Bell—Did not score in her last 4 games of the 2022 season after scoring 13 points in her previous 6 games ... Got back into the points column in with 3 points at Seattle on May 20.

Alysha Clark—Scored in double figures at Seattle after not doing so in last 7 regular season games.

Sydney Colson—DNP last 5 of 6 games of the 2022 season after playing in each of previous 5. She is now on a 1-game playing streak.

Cayla George—Played her first WNBA game since Aug. 19, 2018, a span of 1,736 days, when she checked in at Seattle on May 20, 2023.

Candace Parker—Made at least 40.0% of her FGA in each of her last 10 regular season games ... scored in double figures 331 of 393 games.

Kelsey Plum—Scored in double figures in 10-straight regular season games (21.6 ppg. during the stretch) ... Made at least 1 3-pointer in 45 straight regular season games, which is tied for the third-longest streak in WNBA history ... Made 14 of her last 27 3s after making 8 of her previous 27.

Kiah Stokes—Tallied more rebounds than points in 9 of 11 regular season games, including her 9-rebound, 2-point output at Seattle.

Riquna Williams—DNP in opener at Seattle (back) ... Averaged 11.5 points over her last 2 games in 2022 after not scoring in double figures since July 17 ... Made 8 of her last 16 3s over 4 games after missing her previous 7.

A’ja Wilson—Scored in double figures for the 25th consecutive regular season game (13 points) ... Recorded the 55th double-double of her career, which is the most in franchise history and second-most in the league since she entered the WNBA in 2018 ...has now recorded a double-double in 31 of her last 56 regular season games ... Has at least 1 steal in 21 straight games which is the 2nd longest active streak in the W.

Jackie Young—Had her streak of making at least 1 3-pointer in 11 straight games (19 for 45) snapped vs. Seattle on Aug. 14, but is starting a new 3-pointers made streak after going 3-of-4 at Seattle in the season opener.

Aces Offense—Was 45 for 93 (.483) from 3 over its last 4 regular season games after making 30.8 percent over the previous 9 games ... Averaged 98.3 points over its last 4 games after averaging 76.5 in its previous 2.

THAT’S OFFENSIVE

The Aces have had one of the best offenses in the league since making the move to Las Vegas. In 2020 they ranked 2nd in the WNBA in Offensive Efficiency, and in each of the past two years they finished 1st, and rank 1st through the first weekend of games in 2023.

BOARD ALLERGIES

Offensive Rebound Percentages have been declining for years now as teams have relied more and more on the 3-pointer shot as a weapon.

From 1997-2003, no team grabbed fewer than 30 percent of available offensive rebounds.

From 2004-09, 7 teams grabbed fewer than 30%.

In 2022, 7 teams finished below 30%, including the Aces, whose percentage was the fourth lowest in WNBA history.

6.06 SHADES OF GRAY

Chelsea Gray recorded the 2nd greatest passing season in franchise history in 2021, and took a run at the top assists averaged mark again in 2022.

Player	Year	APG
Danielle Robinson	2013	6.72
Chelsea Gray	2022	6.06
Chelsea Gray	2021	5.91
Becky Hammon	2011	5.82

While she didn't break the most assists averaged record, Gray did break the franchise record for total assists in a season last year.

POINT GAWD OR SHOOTING GAWD?

The Aces dropped 5 of 7 games heading into the All-Star Break in 2022, but Chelsea Gray helped them go 11-3 down the stretch and win the WNBA Championship thanks to her shooting as much as her passing.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the franchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, SD native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who will be inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame this year, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
