CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in ~~140 280 characters or less~~, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the next 2 pages, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics
Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous game in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All Aces and Sun box scores are located online here: 2023 Aces Box Scores || 2023 Sun Box Scores (PDF)

Individual Player Profiles
Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes
This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent
These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent.

Additional Information
Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 4).

Frequently Asked Question
"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue
If you have any additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to the following people:

DOMINANCE

The Aces are off to a 15-1 start, and by at least one measure, they have had the most dominant 16-game start to a season in WNBA history. The team's +15.6 scoring differential is the highest for a team after 16 games in league history, eclipsing the +14.1 mark set by the 2000 Houston Comets. The next 5 milestones for scoring differentials are:

Number of Games	Diff.	Year & Team
First 17 Games	14.2	1998 Houston Comets
First 18 Games	14.8	2000 Houston Comets
First 19 Games	14.8	2000 Houston Comets
First 20 Games	14.6	2000 Houston Comets
First 21 Games	14.6	2000 Houston Comets

RISING UP THE RANKS

With their June 29 win against New York, the Aces moved into for No. 3 spot in league history for victories before a 2nd loss on the season. The record is a 20-1 start to the season, accomplished by the 1998 Comets and 2016 Sparks.

Team	Year	Start	Finish
Houston	*1998	20-1	WNBA Champion
Los Angeles	*2016	20-1	WNBA Champion
Las Vegas	2023	15-1	???

PASSING FANCY

Against New York on June 29, Jackie Young passed out 6 assists to become the franchise's 6th player with 500 or more assists. Chelsea Gray, who has dropped 503 dimes in an Aces uniform, is now the third current Aces player with 500 or more assists for franchise teams.

	Player	Franchise Assists
1.	Becky Hammon	1,133
2.	Danielle Robinson	841
3.	Kelsey Plum	674
4.	Sophia Young-Malcolm	554
5.	Jennifer Azzi	532
6.	Jackie Young	509
7.	Chelsea Gray	503

RUN THE COMMISH'S TABLE?

With 4 games remaining on the Aces' WNBA Commissioner's Cup schedule, the Aces are looking to run the table for the first time in the competition's young history. The Sun posted a 9-1 record in 2021 and the Sky and Aces notched identical 9-1 slates in 2022. Holding a 6-0 mark, Las Vegas is the lone undefeated team in this year's standings.

POINT GAWD OR SHOOTING GAWD?

Over her last 41 games, including the 2022 postseason (dating to 7/6/22), the 2022 WNBA Final MVP is averaging 16.4 points and 6.5 assists while connecting on 54.8 percent from the field, 47.5 percent from 3-point range, and 92.1 percent from the free throw line. The Aces are 33-7 over that span.

Only 4 players in WNBA history have averaged more than 16.0 points and 6.0 assists over a full season. None have come close to shooting as well as Gray has over her last 40 games.

	YEAR	PPG	APG	FG%	3G%	FT%
Chelsea Gray	last 41 gms	16.4	6.5	54.8	47.5	92.1
Diana Taurasi	2013	20.3	6.2	45.6	34.6	85.4

Sabrina Ionescu	2022	17.4	6.3	41.1	33.3	93.1

PAINTING THE TOWN RED

The Las Vegas Aces led the league in points in the paint in 2019, 2020 and 2021, and are currently leading the league again this season with 41.0.

Year	PITP	Rank
2023	41.0	1st
2022	34.3	5th
2021	41.2	1st
2020	42.7	1st
2019	37.8	1st

STREAKING ALONG

The Aces on June 8 had their 11-game winning streak, which included their 4-0 run to close the 2022 regular season, halted by the Sun. It was the longest winning streak for the team since moving to Las Vegas, and the second-longest in franchise history. The franchise record is 12-straight Ws, set by the San Antonio Silver Stars from June 24-Aug. 12, 2012. The Aces are streaking again, having won 8-straight contests, dating to June 11, which is tied for the third-longest streak in franchise history.

Team	Wins	Dates
Silver Stars	12	June 24, 2021-Aug. 21, 2012
Aces	11	Aug. 7, 2022-June 6, 2023
Starzz	8	July 24, 2001-Aug. 7, 2001
Aces	8	June 11, 2023-present

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

If you want to know which team historically has the best chance at winning the WNBA Championship, look no further than scoring differential—the difference between a team's points scored and points allowed.

In the WNBA's first 26 years, the team that led the league in scoring differential during the regular season won the championship 19 times. The five teams that had a positive double-digit scoring differential all won the title.

SCARCER THAN PINK BARBIE PAINT

Only 8 times in the history of the WNBA have teams breeched the 40 points in the paint mark by the end of the season, including the 2020 Aces, who set the benchmark with an average of 42.7 points in the paint. The Aces are again scoring over the 40-point mark in the paint and should they finish at 40 or above, this year's Aces would be the 9th team to accomplish the feat. Connecticut also is making a run at the rare mark this year.

TOP OF THE PECKING OERDER

Seven teams in WNBA history have boasted both the best offense and defense in the same season as measured by Offensive (OER) and Defensive Efficiency Ratings (DER)—points scored and allowed per 100 possessions. Twelve games into the 2023 season, the Aces have their sights set on becoming the 8th, currently ranking first for OER and DER. Six of those teams ended up winning the title *.

Team	Year	OER	DER
Houston *	1998	104.1	86.7
Houston *	1999	104.4	91.4
Houston *	2000	109.1	90.8
Phoenix *	2014	106.4	94.1

Las Vegas	2023	114.1	94.5

THAT'S OFFENSIVE

The Aces have had one of the best offenses in the league since making the move to Las Vegas. In 2020 they ranked 2nd in the WNBA in Offensive Efficiency, and in each of the past two years they finished 1st, and rank 1st through 16 games in 2023.

A'ja Wilson—Averaging 10.5 rebounds over her last 8 games, and reached double digits in 7 of those games… Averaged 1.9 blocks over last 7 games ...Has played in 114 straight games, which is the longest active streak in the W.

Jackie Young—Has scored in double figures in every game this season and scored 20+ points 8 times … Shot 4 for 11 (.364) on June 24 after making 27 of 42 shots (.643) over previous 3 games … Has made 20 of her last 41 3s (.469) over last 8 games after going 2 for 9 (.222) over her previous 3 contests ... made 21 of her past 22 free throw attempts.

Aces Offense—Scored 90+ points in all but 3 games this year, including 3 100-point games … Scoring differential through the first 16 games (+15.6) is the largest scoring differential over that span by any team in WNBA history ... The Aces current 14-game home winning streak is the longest in franchise history. The streak of 14-straight (or more) home wins has been accomplished 9 times in WNBA history, and the record is 28 by the Sparks in 2000-02.

WARNING: EVEN MORE OFFENSIVE

Not one single team in the history of the league has finished the season with a final offensive rating in the teens. In 2019 the Washington Mystics came close with an all-time W record 112.9 offensive rating.

From 1997-2015, it was rare for teams to even round out the year in triple digits. From then, there was a sudden jump and, aside from 2019 when only 3 teams closed the year in triple figures, the majority teams from 2016-2022 finished with a 100+ offensive rating.

It is quite possible that the Aces, currently boasting a 114.1 OER, will not only finish with an offensive rating over 100, but they could set a new high-water mark in the process.

MILESTONE WATCH: DEFENSIVE BOARDS

Candace Parker has 2,836 defensive rebounds in her career and needs 39 to overtake Sylvia Fowles (2,874) an become the all-time WNBA career leader for defensive boards.

BOOM! BOOM! OUT GO THE LIGHTS!

The Aces, who are shooting a league-high 50.3% field goal percentage, have put up the top 2 and 5 of the top 10 single-game field goal percentage marks in the league this year.

HIGH ROLLERS

The Aces scored 90+ points in each of their first 5 games in 2023, becoming the only team in league history to accomplish that feat. In fact, no other team has scored 90+ in each of the first three games of the season.

Las Vegas also scored 90+ points in 6-straight games dating back to 2022, which is the 2nd longest such streak in W history (Phoenix, 2010, 7 straight). Indiana ended the Aces run by holding them to 84 points on June 4. The Aces have now scored 90+ points in all but 3 games this season, and are averaging a league-high 93.7 ppg.

IF A T(H)REE FALLS IN THE WOODS ...

Although the Aces have been one of the best 3-point shooting teams over the past 5 years, it wasn't always a big part of their arsenal. In 2022, the Aces utilized the 3-pointer to a much greater degree, and are slightly trailing the use of 3s in 2022 so far this season.

50-40-90 TABLE FOR 3?

In 2019, Washington Mystics guard/forward Elena Delle Donne became the first, and to date only, member of the WNBA's 50-40-90 club by finishing a season with a field goal percentage of 50% or higher, a 3-point field goal percentage of 40% or higher, and a free throw percentage of 90% or higher while qualifying for league leadership in each category.

Chelsea Gray and Jackie Young are both knocking on the door of the 50-40-90 club. Gray is currently shooting 50.9% from the field, 46.3% from 3-point range, and 96.9% from the charity stripe; while Young currently sits at 56.8 FG%, 47.3 3PTFG% and 83.1 FT%.

(RE)BOUNDING ALONG

A'ja Wilson currently sits in the No. 3 spot for rebounds in franchise history. With 1,404 boards, Wilson needs 126 to draw even with No. 2 Margo Dydek (1,530). If she keeps the same pace (9.3 rpg.) she has had through the first 16 games of the season, Wilson will sit alone at No. 2 later this year.

ACES IN THE COMMUNITY

$12,000 AND COUNTING EARNED FOR NAMI SOUTHERN NEVADA

For each Commissioner's Cup win this season, teams earn $2K to donate to a chairty of their choice. The Aces are playing for NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) Southern Nevada, and have earned $12,000 for the organization through six CC victories (standings page 13). The Aces' next 4 games also mark their their final 4 Commissioner's Cup contests, and they are hoping to up the contribution to NAMI Southern Nevada to an even $20K.

NAMI is the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness, and relies on gifts and contributions to support its important work throughout Southern Nevada.

FLYING ACES

The Aces continue making an impact in the community in a variety of ways. On June 9, BUCKET$ and Aces staff members visited Nellis Air Force Base where they met with troops, toured the fitness facility and flightline, and passed out Aces gear and tickets for the July 5 "Heroes of the House" Aces game as a way of saying thank you for all they do.

NUMBER IX, NUMBER IX, NUMBER IX

After a successful inaugural event in 2022, which celebrated the 50th anniversary of the passage of Title IX, this year's The IXs Awards again recognized outstanding people who have been instrumental in the fight for equality in sports and beyond.

Held June 13 at Allegiant Stadium, The IXs honored Wyomia Tyus with the Legacy Award, Jackie Joyner-Kersee with the Icon Award, Jessica Mendoza with the Game Changer Award, Elaine Wynn with the Impact Award and Annick Haczkiewicz with the Next Gen Award.

Emceed by Chris Spencer, the IXs features performances by Judith Hill and Broadway in the Hill, and concluded with a 30-minute fireside chat with Tyus.

Highlights from the 2022 The IXs celebration included a fireside chat with Billie Jean King, who was recognized with the Legacy Award, and members of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team, who collectively earned the Game Changer Award.

FIVE YEAR BULL MARKET

Jackie Young, Phoenix's Sophie Cunningham and Chicago's Marina Mabrey are trying to join a group of just 15 WNBA players who managed to increase their scoring averages every season from year 2 to year 5. Through her first 11 games, Cunningham bettered her 2022 average, dropped slightly after Game 12 but is still in the hunt to better her fourth-year numbers.

MST3K

A'ja Wilson reached the 3,000 career point mark against the Sun on June 8 (watch it here). At 26 years, 303 days, she became the fifth youngest player to score 3,000 points in her career (Lauren Jackson, 25 years, 27 days).

Wilson also reached the 3,000-points pinnacle in her 157th game, which is the 7th fewest games needed to reach the mark (Elena Delle Donne, 148).

NOTHIN' BUT NET

The Aces made 58.5% (38-65) of their field goals against the Sky, June 11, which is the best shooting percentage in a game by any team this season. It also marked the 2nd-best percentage for the Aces since the team moved to Las Vegas (59.72%, 43-72 FGs vs. Atlanta, July 4, 2021).

The Aces are netting 50.3% of their shots from the field and hitting an even deadlier 57.1% of their 2-point shots this year. Not only do those numbers lead the league, they would also bypass the 2020 Sky for the all-time WNBA season records in both categories, should they keep up the pace through the end of the year.

YOUNG, WILD & FREE

Jackie Young put up 28 points on June 15, but not a single one came from the free throw line. In fact, she wasn't even sent to the line once in the game.

Young's 28 points (12-18 FGs, 4-7 3PT FGs) are the second-most by a player who did not attempt a free throw in Aces franchise history. Becky Hammon owns the top spot with 30 points versus Phoenix on Aug. 22, 2010.

FAST 50

No, not another Fast & The Furious sequel. Becky Hammon has 41 wins in her first 52 games as a head coach in the W, and could become the 2nd fastest coach to win 50 games. Michael Cooper tops the list with 50 victories in his 1st 57 games on the sidelines.

BOARD ALLERGIES

Offensive Rebound Percentages have been declining for years now as teams have relied more and more on the 3-pointer shot as a weapon.

From 1997-2003, no team grabbed fewer than 30 percent of available offensive rebounds.

From 2004-09, 7 teams grabbed fewer than 30 percent.

In 2022, 7 teams finished below 30 percent, including the Aces, whose percentage was the fourth lowest in WNBA history. The 2023 Aces and Mystics are both threatening to break into the top 5 at the end of the season.

This season, 9 teams are below 30 percent.

LOW ON RESERVES

Las Vegas' bench averaged a league record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history have averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves.

Two years later, in the Aces' championship season, the bench averaged 12.9 points—12th in the league. This year, Las Vegas' reserves are averaging 14.3 points per game (2nd fewest in the league), with the Dallas Wings "leading" the way with 12.1 per game.

HIGH SCORERS

The 2010 Phoenix Mercury hold the league record for scoring average in a season, but the Aces have a chance to break that mark in 2023.

In addition, since 2020, when they averaged 88.7 ppg, the Aces have increased their scoring year over year and upped the franchise scoring record in the process.

DOUBLE NICKLE

You've heard of the double-double, but probably not the double-nickel. That's because the feat of blocking 5 shots and picking up 5 steals in the same game has only been done twice in WNBA history.

Candace Parker was the first to pull it off blocking 6 shots and recording 5 steals as a member of the Los Angeles Sparks in a double overtime game against Indiana on May 29, 2008. Natasha Howard accomplished it while playing for the Seattle Storm in a regulation game against the New York Liberty on August 6, 2018.

AGE IS ONLY A NUMBER

When Candace Parker suited up for the Aces in the team's season opener she became the 6th-oldest player in franchise history to see action in a regular season game.

AGE IS ONLY A NUMBER, PART 2

Last season, the average weighted age of the Aces was 26.89 years, making them the 4th youngest team in the league. It also marked the first time since the 2009 Phoenix Mercury that a league champion was below the league average in weighted age.

NO BECKY, NO PROBLEM

Tyler Marsh served as the acting head coach in the Aces 105-64 win over Seattle on May 20, and Natalie Nakase was the acting head coach in the 94-85 victory at Los Angeles on May 25.

RAISE THE STAKES

The Las Vegas Aces produced a five-part docuseries that chronicles the team's journey to winning the 2022 WNBA Championship. If you've not watched it yet, follow the links below to follow along as we recap the historic season.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

Three members of the Las Vegas Aces—A'ja Wilson, Chelsea Gray and Jackie Young—have been named starters to the 2023 AT&T WNBA All-Star Game and one, Kelsey Plum, was named as a reserve. Wilson was the leading All-Star vote-getter for the second consecutive season, and will serve as a team captain for the third time in her career.

WEEK 5 PLAYER OF WEEK

A'ja Wilson earned Western Conference Player of the Week honors for helping power the No. 1 Aces to a 2-0 record for the week ending June 25. It is Wilson's 11th such honor after she earned it 5 times in 2022, twice in 2019 and once each in 2021, 2020 and 2018.

CHICKEN DINNER SHORTAGE

San Antonio had a rough go of it over its 15 years in the W. Although the Stars made 7 trips to the postseason, they boasted just 4 winning seasons after relocating from Utah.

ACES THEME NIGHTS

Throughout the season the Las Vegas Aces are celebrating fans of all ages and backgrounds in a variety of ways.

On May 27 members of the 2022 WNBA Championship team received their rings and the championship banner was unfurled from the roof. The next day the first 7,500 fans were given a replica banner to commemorate the Aces first WNBA title. But that was just the beginning. June 11 was Kids Day, on June 15 the Aces celebrated Pride Month and June 26 was Bobblehead Night, featuring giveaways of limited-edition 2022 WNBA Finals MVP Chelsea Gray bobbleheads.

July 5 vs. Dallas: Heroes of the House

The Aces will celebrate first responders, members of the military and all local heroes on Heroes of the House Night. The first 5,000 fans in attendance will receive a custom Las Vegas Aces "Challenge Coin," which has been a U.S. Armed Forces tradition for more than a century.

July 11 vs. Phoenix: Sneakerhead Night

Love shoe culture? Prove it! Fans are encouraged to show "heat on the feet" and come dressed in their hottest sneakers. The first 5,000 fans in attendance will receive a pair of custom Las Vegas Aces socks.

Aug. 1 vs. Atlanta: Breast Health Awareness Night

The Aces are asking fans to pink out the house as the organization raises awareness for cancer. The first 5,000 fans in attendance will receive pink thundersticks. Fans are encouraged to fill out "I Play For" signs to honor those past and present fighting cancer. Special moments throughout the game will pay tribute to survivors and honor lives lost.

The Aces will once again be joining forces to raise funds benefitting the Kay Yow Cancer Fund while simultaneously raising awareness around Triple Negative Breast Cancer. This game is about more than a competition. This game is about stopping the clock against cancer! Fans have the opportunity to join the Aces by participating in the "Shooting For a Cure" PledgeIt Campaign.

Aug. 18 vs. Los Angeles: Alumni Night

It's time to celebrate and honor the history of the Aces as we honor alumni. The franchise will be bringing back former players who played for the Utah Starzz (1997-2002), the San Antonio Stars (2003-2017) and Las Vegas Aces (2018-current). These players have shattered expectations on and off the court. They have stood at the forefront of advancement, inclusion and social change, and following the game fans will have the opportunity to attend an autograph session with franchise alumni.

Sept. 10 vs. Phoenix: Fan Appreciation Day

The Aces will celebrate and show appreciation to their loyal and dedicated fanbase! All fans in attendance will receive an exclusive team poster, and the Aces will thank the fans with in-game giveaways, contests and 40% off at in-arena retail locations.

RECORD SETTING DEBUT

The Aces 105-64 win at Seattle to open the 2023 season set 3 league and/or franchise benchmarks.

The 41-point win set a league mark for opening day margin of victory, which previously was 36 points (Connecticut 101, Las Vegas 65 on 5/20/2018).

It was also the largest margin of victory for the franchise in the history of the series (previous record was 24 points, 90-66, on 9/14/2012).

The Aces broke the league record for most defensive rebounds (44) in a regulation game (previous record of 43 was accomplished twice.

VOTE! VOTE! VOTE!

The Aces are featured prominently in this year's ESPY Awards, and fans can vote for A'ja Wilson for Best Female Athlete and Best WNBA Player, Candace Parker for Best WNBA Player and the Aces for Best Team. The ESPY Awards are slated for July 12 at 5 pm PT on ABC.

GOLDEN STARTERS

We believe that the Aces are just the second WNBA team to feature a starting lineup with five Olympic gold medalists. Chelsea Gray, Candace Parker and A'ja Wilson earned their golds playing traditional 5x5 basketball, while Kelsey Plum and Jackie Young made up half of the 2020 U.S. Olympic 3x3 Team. The 2015 Minnesota Lynx started Olympic gold medalists Seimone Augustus, Sylvia Fowles, Asjha Jones, Maya Moore and Lindsay Whalen, who made up 5 of the 12-member U.S. roster in 2012.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, SD native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who will be inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame this year, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
