CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in ~~140~~ ~~280~~ characters or less, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics
Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2023 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes
Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles
Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes
This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent
These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent (pages 4-5)

Additional Information
Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 3).

Frequently Asked Question
"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

NEVER BEEN BETTER
The Aces Big 4 of Chelsea Gray, Kelsey Plum, A'ja Wilson and Jackie Young are firing off career-high seasons in various categories.

Gray, who is dishing out a franchise- and career-high 7.1 assists, is also posting career-highs of 15.1 points and 4.0 rebounds per game.

Plum's shooting from the field overall (.473) and from 2-point range (.547) are her best shooting performances since joining the league in 2017.

Wilson is currently posting career-highs of 22.3 ppg, 9.6 rpg, 2.2 bpg, 54.6 percent shooting from the field and 55.8 from 2-point range.

Young, who has increased her scoring each year in the W and is averaging a career-high 18.0 points a game on career-bests of 52.3 percent from the field overall, 57.3 percent from 2-point range and 45.3 percent from 3-point.

SHOOTING OFF FIREWORKS
The Aces, scoring a league-high 92.6 ppg, continue to post league-bests of 48.3% shooting from the field and 84.1% from the line, while ranking second from 3-point range with 37.4%, a mere 0.2% behind the Liberty. Leading the league in scoring differential (12.3), offensive (112.5) and defensive (97.6) efficiency rating, as well as effective field goal percentage (55.0), Las Vegas also turns the ball over fewer than any team in the league (11.9), leads the league for blocked shots (4.8 bpg) and has the fewest of its own shots blocked (2.9) per game.

INTO THE HOME STRETCH
The Aces have sewn up at least a top two seed in the WNBA postseason, and they lead the 2nd place New York Liberty by a half game with 2 games on their schedule and 1 on New York's.

A'ja Wilson (22.3), Kelsey Plum (18.4) and Jackie Young (18.0) are vying to become the first trio of W teammates to average 18 or more points per game in the same season.

UPPING THE ANTE
Las Vegas' win over Chicago on Aug. 24 was its 30th of the season, passing the 2014 Phoenix Mercury (29-5) for the most wins in a WNBA season. Vegas now has 32 wins to its credit this season and is looking for No. 33 against the Mercury.

7.13 SHADES OF GRAY

After recording the 2nd- and 3rd-best passing seasons in franchise history over the previous 2 years, Chelsea Gray has placed herself in a good position to take the top spot.

Player	Year	APG
Chelsea Gray	2023	7.13

ALWAYS ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Jackie Young was named the WNBA's Most Improved Player a year ago, and is making the case for winning the award for a second straight season. The 5th year guard is on pace to set career highs in all three shooting percentage categories and is leading the league in effective field goal percentage. She is second in the WNBA in offensive efficiency and behind only MVP candidates A'ja Wilson and Breanna Stewart in Win Shares.

POINT GAWD OR SHOOTING GAWD?

In the 62 games she's played since the 2022 All-Star Break, including the 2022 postseason, the 2022 WNBA Finals MVP is averaging 16.3 points and 6.9 assists, while connecting on 52% from the field, 43.9% from 3-point range, and 89.9% from the free throw line.

For context, in the 21 games played prior to the 2022 midseason snub, Gray averaged 12.4 points, 6.0 assists and shot 45.5% from the field, 29.1% from 3-point and 91.3% from the line.

Only 4 players in WNBA history have averaged more than 16.0 points and 6.0 assists over a full season. None came as close to shooting as well as Gray has over the 59 games since the 2022 All-Star Break.

GOOD GAWD!

Prior to this season, no WNBA player had ever averaged at least 7.0 assists and 15.0 points per game in a season, but 2 players are threatening to do so this year—the Aces' Chelsea Gray and Connecticut's Alyssa Thomas. The highest scoring average for a player who averaged at least 7.0 assists in a season prior to 2023 was Courtney Vandersloot's 13.6 points per game in the 2020 season when she averaged 10.0 assists per game.

TRIPLE A

A'ja Wilson established the fanchise record for scoring average in a season as a rookie, and she is taking another run at it this year. She could also become the only player in franchise history to average 20 or more points in a season on 3 occasions.

	Player	Year	PPG
1.	A'ja Wilson	2023	22.26

SILENT BUT DEADLY ASSASSIN

Jackie Young may be quiet off the court, but she is a deadly assassin on it. She is connecting on a league-best 45.3 percent of her 3-pointers on the year, and is taking a run at the top 5 in WNBA history for highest 3-point percentage when attempting at least 150 from distance. The record is 45.28 percent set by Maya Moore in 2023, but Young is in good shape to claim that title.

TOP OF THE PECKING OERDER

Seven teams in WNBA history have boasted both the best offense and defense in the same season as measured by Offensive (OER) and Defensive Efficiency Ratings (DER)—points scored and allowed per 100 possessions—and 6 of them have won the title (*). The Aces have their sights set on becoming the 8th, currently ranking first for both OER and DER.

PLEADING THE SIXTH

No player in the league has meant more to their team's bench this season than Alysha Clark has to the Aces. Only 6 players in the WNBA have played in at least 30 games as a reserve this year, and averaged at least 15.0 minutes per game in those appearances.

LAYING POINTS

Only 22 players in WNBA history scored 40 or more points in a single game (as of Sept. 5), with a total of 40, 40+ point games overall and 35 in the regular season). Kelsey Plum (at Minnesota, July 9) and A'ja Wilson (vs. Washington, Aug. 11) are 2 of them, having scored 40 points apiece in games this season. Wilson followed her 40-point game up with a 53-point outburst against Atlanta on Aug. 22.

Plum and Wilson became the first pair of teammates in league history to accomplish the feat in the same season. Only one franchise in W history has seen 3 different players score 40 or more, but not in the same season (Los Angeles: Kristi Toliver, 43, 2015; Lisa Leslie, 41, 2006; Candace Parker, 40, 2008).

ONE GOOD TURNOVER DESERVES ANOTHER

The Aces took care of the basketball better than almost anybody in the WNBA in each of the past 3 seasons, finishing 0.1 behind Dallas in 2020. They led in fewest turnovers in 2021 and 2022, and are the tops in the league again this season.

LOW ON RESERVES

Las Vegas' bench averaged a league-record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history have averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves. Two years later, in the Aces' championship season, the bench averaged 12.9 points—12th in the league. This year, Las Vegas' reserves are averaging 13.6 points per game (fewest in the league).

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN, WIN, WIN

When Jackie Young turned 25 last September 16, she had 87 regular season wins to her credit—one off the record for most wins prior to turning 25 held by Lynx legend Maya Moore (88).

Mwadi Mabika held the league mark for wins through her 26th birthday until Jackie Young, at 25 years, 329 days, passed Mabika on Aug. 11, and now owns the record outright. Looking ahead to her 27th birthday next year, Moore currently owns the No. 1 slot for wins before turning 27 with 136.

HEIR B&B (BOARDS & BLOCKS)

A'ja Wilson, who secured her 1,500th career rebound this season, is currently 2nd in the league in rebounding (9.6 rpg) and leads the W in blocked shots (2.2 bpg).

Should she lead the league in both categories, she would become just the 3rd player in WNBA history to do so (Lisa Leslie, 2004 and Candace Parker, 2009).

Only one other player in franchise history has led the WNBA in rebounding (Natalie Williams, 2000).

Only 2 players in WNBA history have led the league in blocked shots 3 or more times (Margo Dydek, 8; Brittney Griner, 8). Should Wilson lead the league in 2023, it would be the 3rd time she has done so.

50+ MONEY LINE

In scoring 53 points (16-23 FGs, 1-1 3FGs, 20-21 FTs), A'ja Wilson:

- Scored 20 or more points for a league-best 24th time this season, and the 98th time in her career. She has since upped that mark to 101 and ranks 19th in WNBA history for most career 20+ point games, behind Brittney Griner in 18th place with 104.

- Scored 30 or more points for the 10th time in her career, tying her with Becky Hammon for most 30+ point games in franchise history. She since picked up her 11th 30-point game, putting her alone in first place on that franchise list.

- Scored at least 40 points in a game twice this season, making her the 7th player in WNBA history to score 40 or more points in a game twice in the same year.

- Made 20 free throws, marking the second-most free throws ever made in a WNBA game (22, Cynthia Cooper)

- Set the franchise single-season scoring record (846 as of Sept. 2), passing Kelsey Plum's 726 points scored in 2022.

A'JA THE LOVE BUG

A'ja Wilson poured in a WNBA record-tying 53 points in the Aces 112-100 victory over Atlanta on Aug. 22. The 53-point outburst also set a new franchise scoring standard—just 11 days after tying the previous franchise-high of 40 points set initially by Kelsey Plum on July 9.

TRIPLE CROWN

Chelsea Gray made history with the first points-rebounds-assist game in franchise history when she recorded 22 points, a career-best 11 rebounds and 11 assists against New York on Aug. 17. It was the franchise's 2nd triple-double—Margo Dydek had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots against the Orlando Miracle on June 7, 2001.

Gray's triple-double was the second of her career (13 points, 10 rebounds, 13 assists; July 7, 2019 vs. Washington). It also marked the 30th in league history and 10th in the W this season. As of Sept. 7, there were 31 in league history and 11 this season.

PERFECT 10s

Against the Mystics on Aug. 11, Chelsea Gray and Kelsey Plum became just the second set of teammates in WNBA history to hand out 10 or more assists in the same game, and the first to do so in regulation time. The first set of teammates was … well dang … Gray again, only this time with Odyssey Sims in 2017 in a double overtime game with the Los Angeles Sparks.

TESTING, TESTING, 1, 2 …. 3?

In scoring a then-career-high 40 points (17-25 FGs, 0-1 3PTs, 6-7 FTs) against Washington on Aug. 11, A'ja Wilson not only tied the franchise record set by Kelsey Plum earlier this season, she also broke her own WNBA record for most points scored in a game without hitting a 3-pointer.

Also, Wilson's 17 made field goals are the second most in a game in WNBA history and the most in franchise history (18, Lauren Jackson, Seattle at Washington, July 24, 2007). Her 17 made 2-pointers tied Lauren Jackson's WNBA record for most made 2s in a game (Seattle vs. Los Angeles, Aug. 6, 2003).

ALL RIGHT NOW

A'ja Wilson has made a living at the free throw line, leading the league in attempts in each of her first 3 seasons in the league, while finishing 2nd in 2021 and 3rd in 2022. She currently is ranked No. 2.

2.	Sylvia Fowles	66
3.	Alyssa Thomas	58
4.	Jonquel Jones	57

Wilson's 76 double-doubles are tied with Lauren Jackson for 10th among all-time WNBA career leaders and ranks 4th among active players.

Wilson's 22 double-doubles this season ranks tied as the 3rd most in a single season in WNBA history, and are the 2nd most of any player this year (Alyssa Thomas, 27).

R-E, R-E-B, R-E-B-O-U-N-D, RE-BOUND

Over the previous 4 seasons, the Aces recorded the 4 highest defensive rebounds per game averages in WNBA history. The 2023 Aces and Liberty are currently sitting among the top 5.

	Year	Team	DRPG
1.	2021	Las Vegas	31.28
2.	2019	Las Vegas	29.62
3.	2023	New York	29.31
4.	2020	Las Vegas	29.27
5.	2023	Las Vegas	28.68
6.	2022	Las Vegas	28.42

The Aces hold the top 2 marks for most defensive rebounds in a regulation game in WNBA history, with 44 at Seattle on May 20, 2023, and 43 at Los Angeles on July 1, 2022.

ACES THEME NIGHTS

Throughout the season the Las Vegas Aces are celebrating fans of all ages and backgrounds in a variety of ways.

On May 27 members of the 2022 WNBA Championship team received their rings and the championship banner was unfurled from the roof. The next day the first 7,500 fans were given a replica banner to commemorate the Aces first WNBA title.

But that was just the beginning.

June 11 was Kids Day, on June 15 the Aces celebrated Pride Month, June 26 was Bobblehead Night, featuring giveaways of limited-edition 2022 WNBA Finals MVP Chelsea Gray bobbleheads, July 5 honored members of the military, first responders and all local heroes on Heroes of the House Night and July 11 was Sneakerhead Night.

Breast Health Awareness Night was Aug. 1 and featured moments throughout the game that paid tribute to survivors and honored lives lost. The Aces helped raise funds benefitting the Kay Yow Cancer Fund via the "Shooting for a Cure" PledgIt Campaign.

On Aug. 19 the franchise celebrated its history by bringing approximately 50 alumni to Las Vegas for a weekend of basketball and memories. The alumni were honored on the court at halftime and signed autographs after the game. (See page 40 for the list of alumni in attendance.)

Sept. 10 vs. Phoenix: Fan Appreciation Day

The Aces will celebrate and show appreciation to their loyal and dedicated fanbase! All fans in attendance will receive an exclusive team poster, and the Aces will thank the fans with in-game giveaways, contests and 40% off at in-arena retail locations.

APPROACHING RECORDS & MILESTONES

On Aug. 22 in Atlanta, A'ja Wilson upped the franshise scoring record to 53 points and took over the franchise single-season scoring mark. With 2 games to play, Wilson has leapfrogged, or is on the verge of doing so, to the top of numerous other franchise single-season records, including rebounds, double-doubles, defensive rebounds, field goals made and 2-point field goals made. Wilson also also now holds the franchise record for free throws made, while she and Chelsea Gray, who owns the franshise single-season assists mark, are vying to overtake Natalie Williams for career field goal percentage. It's not surprising, with four additional games on the schedule, that the top three single-season scoring records will likely all belong to members of the 2023 team.

TIPPING BACK 40S

In scoring 40 points against the Lynx on July 9, Kelsey Plum not only upped the franchise scoring standard, since eclipsed by A'ja Wilson, but after making 77.78% (14-18 FGs) of her attempts, she also set the bar for all-time WNBA single-game shooting percentage when scoring 40 or more points, bypassing the 77.27% shot by Liz Cambage when she set the WNBA single-game scoring mark of 53 points.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
