CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in ~~140~~ 280 ~~characters or less~~, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics
Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2023 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes
Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles
Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes
This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent
These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent (pages 4-5)

Additional Information
Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 3).

Frequently Asked Question
"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

LAS VEGAS - CHICAGO NOTES

• This is the third postseason meeting between the Las Vegas Aces and the Chicago Sky. In addition to the Sept. 13 game in which Las Vegas defeated Chicago 87-59 in Game 1, the teams previously met in the first round of the 2019 Playoffs. In a game with 20 lead changes and 8 knotted scores, Chicago held a 92-90 edge when Dearica Hamby stole the ball with 7.2 seconds remaining and drained a 25' 3-pointer, known now simply as "The Heave." Chicago was unable to score in the waning seconds and the Aces advanced to the semifinals.

• Four Aces remain from that 2019 playoff game: Sydney Colson, Kelsey Plum, A'ja Wilson and Jackie Young; only 1 remains from Chicago's team: Kahleah Copper.

• The Aces defeated the Sky in all 3 outings this season, extending their winning streak over Chicago to 4-straight. A'ja Wilson scored 21 points to lead the Aces to a 93-80 win on June 11 in Las Vegas; The Aces earned a 107-95 win in Chicago on July 25 behind Kelsey Plum's 27 points; and Jackie Young led with 24 points in the final meeting, a 94-87 victory in Chicago on Aug. 24.

• This series features the 2 most recent WNBA champions, with the defending champion Aces having won in 2022 and Chicago earning the title in 2021.

• The Aces had their top free throw shooting night of 2023 against the Sky, connecting on a perfect 18 of 18 on Aug. 24; it also was one of 3 times this season an Aces opponent did not block a single shot, and the only game in 2023 in which Chicago did not register a blocked shot.

• The 107 points scored by the Aces on July 25 marked the most any team scored against the Sky this season, and that game also featured the fewest opponent turnovers (4) in a Sky game this year.

• The Aces had the best shooting percentage of any Sky opponent, making 58.5% (38-65 FGs) from the field on June 11, which also lists as the 4th-best single-game shooting percentage in the league this season.

LOOK AT ALL THE PEOPLE HERE TONIGHT

The Las Vegas Aces welcomed a franchise-high 17,406 fans to their final regular season game against the Mercury on Sept. 10, eclipsing the previous record for a regular season game of 15,657, set on Aug. 4,1998, when the Utah Starzz played host to the Houston Comets. The Aces also have 7 sellouts this season.

Three nights later, the Aces rewrote their playoff attendance record since arriving in Las Vegas with 12,927 fans at T-Mobile Arena for Game 1 against the Sky. The previous Las Vegas playoff high was 10,211 one year earlier on Sept. 13, 2022. The franchise high for a playoff game is 16,012, set Oct. 3, 2008, when the San Antonio Stars hosted the Detroit Shock in the Finals.

The Aces ranked 1st in the W in attendance this year. Factoring in playoff games, 7 of the top 10 attendance counts since moving to Vegas have come in 2023 and 12 of the top 20.

PAINTING THE TOWN RED
In their 21 games (19-2) ahead of the All-Star Game the Aces were scoring a league-high 40.7 points in the paint. After the midseason break, the Aces posted a 15-4 record and dropped to 35.9 points per game in the paint (6th best in the W). The Aces returned to their early-season form in the first game of the playoffs, scoring 44 points in the paint against Chicago on Sept. 13.

QUAD LIFT
A'ja Wilson (22.8), Kelsey Plum (18.7), Jackie Young (17.6) and Chelsea Gray (15.3) finished the year as the first four teammates to average 15 or more points per game in the same season.

POINT GAWD OR SHOOTING GAWD?
In the 65 games she's played since the 2022 All-Star Break, including the 2022 postseason, the 2022 WNBA Finals MVP is averaging 16.4 points and 7.0 assists, while connecting on 52.3% from the field, 44.0% from 3-point range, and 89.9% from the free throw line.

For context, in the 21 games played prior to the 2022 midseason snub, Gray averaged 12.4 points, 6.0 assists and shot 45.5% from the field, 29.1% from 3-point and 91.3% from the line.

Only 4 players in WNBA history have averaged more than 16.0 points and 6.0 assists over a full season. None came as close to shooting as well as Gray has over the 64 games since the 2022 All-Star Break.

FOUR OF A KIND
The Aces Big 4 of Chelsea Gray, Kelsey Plum, A'ja Wilson and Jackie Young finished the season with career-highs in various categories.

Gray, who dished out a franchise- and career-high 7.3 assists, also posted career-highs of 15.3 points and 4.0 rebounds per game.

Plum's shooting from the field overall (.475) and from 2-point range (.550) are her best shooting performances since joining the league in 2017.

Wilson posted career-highs of 22.8 ppg, 9.5 rpg, 2.2 bpg, 55.7 percent shooting from the field and 57.0 from 2-point range.

Young, who increased her scoring each year in the W, averaged a career-high 17.6 points a game on career-bests of 52.3 percent from the field overall, 57.6 percent from 2-point range, 44.9 percent from 3-point and 86.7 percent from the line.

SHOOTING OFF FIREWORKS
The Aces led the W in 2023 with 92.8 ppg, 4.8 bpg, 48.6% shooting from the field, 54.9% from 2-point, 84% from the line, a +12.6 scoring differential, a WNBA-record for offensive efficiency rating at 113.0, 97.7 defensive efficiency rating, 15.3 net rating and 1.85 assist-to-turnover ratio, and a league-fewest 11.8 turnovers a game.

They missed out on leading in all 4 shooting percentage categories after dropping to 37.2% from 3-point range, just behind NY's 37.4%.

7.26 SHADES OF GRAY

ALWAYS ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Jackie Young was named the WNBA's Most Improved Player a year ago, and made the case for winning the award for a second-straight season. The 5th-year guard set career-highs in all 3 shooting percentage categories and led the league in effective field goal percentage. She is second in the WNBA in offensive efficiency and behind only MVP candidates A'ja Wilson and Breanna Stewart in Win Shares.

GOOD GAWD!

Prior to this season, no WNBA player had ever averaged at least 7.0 assists and 15.0 points per game in a season, but 2 players did so this year—the Aces' Chelsea Gray and Connecticut's Alyssa Thomas. The highest scoring average for a player who averaged at least 7.0 assists in a season prior to 2023 was Courtney Vandersloot's 13.6 ppg in the 2020 season when she averaged 10.0 apg.

BLOCK PARTY

A'ja Wilson, who ranks No. 19 on the league's all-time career blocked shot list and 5th among active players, has blocked more shots than anyone else since entering the league in 2018.

TOP OF THE PECKING OERDER

Up until this year, 7 teams in WNBA history have boasted both the best offense and defense in the same season as measured by Offensive (OER) and Defensive Efficiency Ratings (DER)—points scored and allowed per 100 possessions—and 6 of them have won the title (*). The Aces became the 8th to end the season ranking first for both OER and DER.

SILENT BUT DEADLY ASSASSIN

Jackie Young may be quiet off the court, but she is a deadly assassin on it. She connected on a league second-best 44.9 percent of her 3-pointers on the year, and now ranks No. 2 in league history for highest 3-point percentage when attempting at least 150 from distance. The record is 45.28 percent set by Maya Moore in 2023.

THAT'S OFFENSIVE

The Aces have had one of the best offenses in the W since making the move to Vegas. In 2020 they ranked 2nd in the WNBA in OER, and in each of the past 3 seasons they finished 1st.

BOOM! BOOM! OUT GO THE LIGHTS!

The Aces, who shot a league-high 48.6% from the field in 2023, produced 3 of the top 5 single-game field goal percentages in the W this year, including a season-high 59.7% against the Lynx on July 9.

ALL ABOUT THAT PACE

The Aces have played at one of the fastest paces in the league since moving to Las Vegas as measured by possessions per 40 minutes.

TYING A LLEGEND

A'ja Wilson scored 35 points against Minnesota on July 22 and her 82.4% (14-17 FGs) shooting from the field tied the mark for highest single-game field goal percentage for a W player attempting at least 17 field goals (Lisa Leslie, Aug. 1, 2002, 14-17 FGs).

RAREFIED AIR

Only 5 players in the history of the league have each produced 60 or more games with 20+ points and 10+ rebounds. Of those 5, 2 are active and are on this year's Aces squad—Candace Parker (2nd) and A'ja Wilson (5th).

CENTURY 2023

The Aces scored 100 or more points in 7 games in 2021 and 2022, and upped that to a WNBA record-setting 11 times this year. The WNBA record for most times reaching the century mark in a season was originally set by the 2010 Phoenix Mercury.

LAYING POINTS

Only 22 players in WNBA history scored 40 or more points in a single game (as of Sept. 10), with a total of 40, 40+ point games overall and 35 in the regular season. Kelsey Plum (at Minnesota, July 9) and A'ja Wilson (vs. Washington, Aug. 11) are 2 of them, having scored 40 points apiece in games this season. Wilson followed her 40-point game up with a 53-point outburst against Atlanta on Aug. 22.

Plum and Wilson became the first pair of teammates in league history to accomplish the feat in the same season. Only one franchise in W history has seen 3 different players score 40 or more, but not in the same season (Los Angeles: Kristi Toliver, 43, 2015; Lisa Leslie, 41, 2006; Candace Parker, 40, 2008).

IF A T(H)REE FALLS IN THE WOODS ...

Although the Aces have been one of the best 3-point shooting teams over the past 5 years, it wasn't always a big part of their arsenal. In 2022, the Aces began utilizing the 3-pointer to a much greater degree, more than doubling their average made and attempted 3s from 2018, and continued to look beyond the arc in 2023.

BLOCK PARTY

A'ja Wilson led the league in blocked shots nearly all season and finished in 1st with 2.2 per game.

Only 2 players in WNBA history have led the league in blocked shots 3 or more times (Margo Dydek, 8; Brittney Griner, 8). Wilson led the category in 2020, 2022, and thus became the 3rd to lead the league in blocks in 3 or more seasons.

ONE GOOD TURNOVER DESERVES ANOTHER

The Aces took care of the basketball better than almost anybody in the WNBA in each of the past 3 seasons, finishing 0.1 behind Dallas in 2020. They led in fewest turnovers in 2021 and 2022, and topped the league again this season.

LOW ON RESERVES

Las Vegas' bench averaged a league-record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history have averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves. Two years later, in the Aces' championship season, the bench averaged 12.9 points—12th in the league. This year, Las Vegas' reserves averaged 13.5 points per game (fewest in the league).

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN, WIN, WIN

When Jackie Young turned 25 last September 16, she had 87 regular season wins to her credit—one off the record for most wins prior to turning 25 held by Lynx legend Maya Moore (88).

Mwadi Mabika held the league mark for wins through her 26th birthday until Jackie Young, at 25 years, 329 days, passed Mabika on Aug. 11, and now owns the record outright with 121. Looking ahead to Young's 27th birthday next year, Moore currently owns the No. 1 slot for wins before turning 27 with 136, and Young is currently tied with A'ja Wilson for wins before turning 27.

A'JA THE LOVE BUG

A'ja Wilson poured in a WNBA record-tying 53 points in the Aces 112-100 victory over Atlanta on Aug. 22. The 53-point outburst also set a new franchise scoring standard—just 11 days after tying the previous franchise-high of 40 points set initially by Kelsey Plum on July 9.

50+ MONEY LINE

In scoring 53 points (16-23 FGs, 1-1 3FGs, 20-21 FTs), A'ja Wilson:

- Scored 20 or more points for a league-best 24th time this season, and the 98th time in her career. She has since upped that mark to 103 and ranks 19th in WNBA history for most career 20+ point games, behind Brittney Griner in 18th place with 105.

- Scored 30 or more points for the 10th time in her career, tying her with Becky Hammon for most 30+ point games in franchise history. She since picked up 3 more 30-point games, putting her alone in first place on that franchise list.

- Scored at least 40 points in a game twice this season, making her the 7th player in WNBA history to score 40 or more points in a game twice in the same year.

- Made 20 free throws, marking the second-most free throws ever made in a WNBA game (22, Cynthia Cooper)

- Set the franchise single-season scoring record, passing Kelsey Plum's 726 points scored in 2022. Wilson closed the season with 912 points.

TRIPLE CROWN

Chelsea Gray made history with the first points-rebounds-assist game in franchise history when she recorded 22 points, a career-best 11 rebounds and 11 assists against New York on Aug. 17. It was the franchise's 2nd triple-double—Margo Dydek had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots against the Orlando Miracle on June 7, 2001.

Gray's triple-double was the second of her career (13 points, 10 rebounds, 13 assists; July 7, 2019 vs. Washington). It also marked the 30th in league history and 10th in the W this season. As of Sept. 10, there were 33 in league history and 13 this season.

TESTING, TESTING, 1, 2 …. 3?

In scoring a then-career-high 40 points (17-25 FGs, 0-1 3PTs, 6-7 FTs) against Washington on Aug. 11, A'ja Wilson not only tied the franchise record set by Kelsey Plum earlier this season, she also broke her own WNBA record for most points scored in a game without hitting a 3-pointer.

Also, Wilson's 17 made field goals are the second most in a game in WNBA history and the most in franchise history (18, Lauren Jackson, Seattle at Washington, July 24, 2007). Her 17 made 2-pointers tied Lauren Jackson's WNBA record for most made 2s in a game (Seattle vs. Los Angeles, Aug. 6, 2003).

ALL RIGHT NOW

A'ja Wilson has made a living at the free throw line, leading the league in attempts in each of her first 3 seasons in the league, while finishing 2nd in 2021 and 2023 and 3rd in 2022.

Against the Mystics on Aug. 11, Chelsea Gray and Kelsey Plum became just the second set of teammates in WNBA history to hand out 10 or more assists in the same game, and the first to do so in regulation time. The first set of teammates was … well dang … Gray again, only this time with Odyssey Sims in 2017 in a double overtime game with the Los Angeles Sparks.

TIPPING BACK 40S

In scoring 40 points against the Lynx on July 9, Kelsey Plum not only upped the franchise scoring standard, since eclipsed by A'ja Wilson, but after making 77.78% (14-18 FGs) of her attempts, she also set the bar for all-time WNBA single-game shooting percentage when scoring 40 or more points, bypassing the 77.27% shot by Liz Cambage when she set the WNBA single-game scoring mark of 53 points.

*League Record

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
