CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 280characters or less, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics

Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2023 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores because we are lazy in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes

Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles

Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- · Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- · Career Stats
- · Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes

This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

ANTE UF

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent

These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent (pages 4-5)

Additional Information

Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 3).

Frequently Asked Question

"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

LAS VEGAS - DALLAS NOTES

- This is the fourth postseason meeting between the Las Vegas Aces and the Dallas Wings. The last 3 were in the 2008 WNBA Finals. The two franchises were located in Detroit and San Antonio at the time, and the Shock swept the Silver Stars 3-0 to claim their 3rd WNBA Championship (2003, 2006). Current Aces head coach Becky Hammon averaged 14.0 ppg and 5.0 apg in the 3-game series.
- The Aces have won the last 8 home games against the Wings. The last time the Wings earned a W in Las Vegas was on Aug. 17, 2018, when Dallas prevailed 107-102. Since that date, the Aces have claimed a 13-2 overall record against the Wings.
- The Aces posted a 3-1 record over the Wings this season, upping the franchise all-time record between the clubs to 39-37. Jackie Young scored 28 points in a 89-82 win over the Wings on July 5 in Las Vegas, her second-best scoring output of the season. Two days later in Dallas, the Aces dropped a nail-biter, 80-78, and Kelsey Plum scored a high of 21 for the visiting squad. Back in Vegas on July 30, the Aces led wire-to-wire and Plum finished with 28 points and Chelsea Gray had 27. In their final meeting of the season, A'ja Wilson celebrated her 27th birthday by collecting a double-double of 28 points and 14 rebounds in a 104-84 vinctory in Dallas on Aug. 8.

- Two of the Aces league-record 11 games with 100+ points this season came against the Wings on July 30 and Aug. 8.
- The Aces have allowed teams to score more than 90 points 6 times and grab more than 40 rebounds 7 times in 42 games this year. Dallas accomplished both by scoring 91 points and recording 41 rebounds on July 30.
- On July 7, in the Aces lone loss to the Wings, Dallas picked off 13 steals, the second-most by any Aces opponent this year. The Wings also forced the Aces into 17 turnovers, the second-most turnover total for Las Vegas in 2023.
- Alysha Clark scored in double-digits 10 times in the regular season, 3 of which were against Dallas.
- Chelsea Gray scored a season-high 27 points on July 30.
- 3 of Kelsey Plum's 16 20+ point games came against Dallas, including 28 points on July 30, her third-best output of the season.
- A'ja Wilson scored 20+ points in all three Aces wins, including 28 points on Aug. 8. She was held to 18 in the lone loss.

RAREFIED AIR

Only 5 players in the history of the league have each produced 60 or more games with 20+ points and 10+ rebounds. Of those 5, 2 are active and are on this year's Aces squad-Candace Parker (2nd) and A'ja Wilson (5th).

The Aces scored 100 or more points in 7 games in 2021 and 2022, and upped that to a WNBA record-setting 11 times this year. The WNBA record for most times reaching the century mark in a season was originally set by the 2010 Phoenix Mercury.

LAYING POINTS

Only 22 players in WNBA history scored 40 or more points in a single game (as of Sept. 10), with a total of 40, 40+ point games overall and 35 in the regular season. Kelsey Plum (at Minnesota, July 9) and A'ja Wilson (vs. Washington, Aug. 11) are 2 of them, having scored 40 points apiece in games this season. Wilson followed her 40-point game up with a 53-point outburst against Atlanta on Aug. 22.

Plum and Wilson became the first pair of teammates in league history to accomplish the feat in the same season. Only one franchise in W history has seen 3 different players score 40 or more, but not in the same season (Los Angeles: Kristi Toliver, 43, 2015; Lisa Leslie, 41, 2006; Candace Parker, 40, 2008).

IF A T(H)REE FALLS IN THE WOODS ...

Although the Aces have been one of the best 3-point shooting teams over the past 5 years, it wasn't always a big part of their arsenal. In 2022, the Aces began utilizing the 3-pointer to a much greater degree, more than doubling their average made and attempted 3s from 2018, and continued to look beyond the arc in 2023.

BLOCK PARTY

A'ja Wilson led the league in blocked shots nearly all season and finished in 1st with 2.2 per game.

Only 2 players in WNBA history have led the league in blocked shots 3 or more times (Margo Dydek, 8; Brittney Griner, 8). Wilson led the category in 2020, 2022, and thus became the 3rd to lead the league in blocks in 3 or more seasons.

ONE GOOD TURNOVER DESERVES ANOTHER

The Aces took care of the basketball better than almost anybody in the WNBA in each of the past 3 seasons, finishing 0.1 behind Dallas in 2020. They led in fewest turnovers in 2021 and 2022, and topped the league again this season.

50+ MONEY LINE

In scoring 53 points (16-23 FGs, 1-1 3FGs, 20-21 FTs), A'ja Wilson:

- Scored 20 or more points for a league-best 24th time this season, and the 98th time in her career. She has since upped that mark to 103 and ranks 19th in WNBA history for most career 20+ point games, behind Brittney Griner in 18th place with 105.
- Scored 30 or more points for the 10th time in her career, tying her with Becky Hammon for most 30+ point games in franchise history. She since picked up 3 more 30-point games, putting her alone in first place on that franchise list.
- Scored at least 40 points in a game twice this season, making her the 7th player in WNBA history to score 40 or more points in a game twice in the same year.
- Made 20 free throws, marking the second-most free throws ever made in a WNBA game (22, Cynthia Cooper)
- Set the franchise single-season scoring record, passing Kelsey Plum's 726 points scored in 2022. Wilson closed the season with 912 points.

TRIPLE CROWN

Chelsea Gray made history with the first points-rebounds-assist game in franchise history when she recorded 22 points, a career-best 11 rebounds and 11 assists against New York on Aug. 17. It was the franchise's 2nd triple-double—Margo Dydek had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots against the Orlando Miracle on June 7, 2001.

Gray's triple-double was the second of her career (13 points, 10 rebounds, 13 assists; July 7, 2019 vs. Washington). It also marked the 30th in league history and 10th in the W this season. As of Sept. 10, there were 33 in league history and 13 this season.

TESTING, TESTING, 1, 2 .... 3?

In scoring a then-career-high 40 points (17-25 FGs, 0-1 3PTs, 6-7 FTs) against Washington on Aug. 11, A'ja Wilson not only tied the franchise record set by Kelsey Plum earlier this season, she also broke her own WNBA record for most points scored in a game without hitting a 3-pointer.

Also, Wilson's 17 made field goals are the second most in a game in WNBA history and the most in franchise history (18, Lauren Jackson, Seattle at Washington, July 24, 2007). Her 17 made 2-pointers tied Lauren Jackson's WNBA record for most made 2s in a game (Seattle vs. Los Angeles, Aug. 6, 2003).

A'ja Wilson has made a living at the free throw line, leading the league in attempts in each of her first 3 seasons in the league, while finishing 2nd in 2021 and 2023 and 3rd in 2022.

TIPPING BACK 40S

In scoring 40 points against the Lynx on July 9, Kelsey Plum not only upped the franchise scoring standard, since eclipsed by A'ja Wilson, but after making 77.78% (14-18 FGs) of her attempts, she also set the bar for all-time WNBA single-game shooting percentage when scoring 40 or more points, bypassing the 77.27% shot by Liz Cambage when she set the WNBA single-game scoring mark of 53 points.

HEAD COACH BECKY HAMMON

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
