CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 6 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in ~~140~~ ~~280~~ characters or less, 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics
Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team's stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2023 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes
Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles
Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2023 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes
This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent
These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent (pages 4-5)

Additional Information
Also included in these notes are an Aces' roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 3).

Frequently Asked Question
"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

LAS VEGAS VS DALLAS NOTES

• This is the second postseason series between the Las Vegas Aces and the Dallas Wings. The first was in the 2008 WNBA Finals. The two franchises were located in Detroit and San Antonio at the time, and the Shock swept the Silver Stars 3-0 to claim their 3rd WNBA Championship (2003, 2006). Current Aces head coach Becky Hammon averaged 14.0 ppg and 5.0 apg in the 3-game series.

• The Aces and Wings are the two highest scoring and rebounding teams in the 2023 postseason. The Aces are No. 1 in both categories (91.8 ppg, 40.0 rpg) and Dallas is a close 2nd (90.5 ppg, 38.5 rpg). They also rank 1 and 2 in steals. The Wings hold a 9.5 spg to 9.0 spg edge over Las Vegas.

• In the 2 Semifinal games combined, each team made 19 of 47 (.404) from 3-point range, and the Aces have netted 67 field goals to the Wings 64. The biggest separator in scoring has come at the free throw line—the Aces have made 35 of 38 (.921) and the Wings are 20 of 31 (.645).

• The Aces suffered 5 of their 6 defeats in the regular season on an opponent's home court. Dallas was 1 of those away losses, and the Aces are 2-2 in 2022 and 2023 in games played in Texas.

• Factoring in playoff games, A'ja Wilson scored 20+ points in all 5 Aces wins, including 34 points on Sept. 24, tying her second-best career playoff scoring game, 30 points on Sept. 26 and 28 points on Aug. 8. She was held to 18 in the lone loss.

• The Aces and Wings benches scored the fewest points of any team over the course of the season, with the Aces scoring a low of 13.5 ppg and the Wings the second-lowest of 14.1 ppg. Dallas has gone in the opposite direction in the postseason with the Wings bench scoring a playoff-high 21.8 ppg, while the Aces reserves are scoring 10.5 ppg, 3 points lower than their regular season mark of 13.5 ppg.

• On July 7, in the Aces lone loss to the Wings, Dallas picked off 13 steals, the second-most by any Aces opponent this year. The Wings also forced the Aces into 17 turnovers, the second-most turnover total for Las Vegas in 2023. In Game 1 Dallas had 10 steals on 16 Las Vegas turnovers, but that dropped to 7 steals on 12 turnovers in Game 2.

• Chelsea Gray scored 20 or more points in 10 games this year, 3 of which came against Dallas. She scored 20 points on July 5, had a season-high 27 points on July 30 and notched a playoff season-high 23 points on Sept. 26.

• 4 of Kelsey Plum's 17 20+ point games came against Dallas, including 28 points on July 30, her third-best output of the season, and a playoff career-high 25 points in the Sept. 24 Semifinal game.

30-PEAT
A'ja Wilson has scored at least 30 points in each of her last three games, became the first player in WNBA playoff history to string together 3-straight games with 30+ points. She had 38 against Chicago to close out the First Round and scored 34 and 30 in the 2 victories over Dallas. Further, back-to-back 30-point games had only been accomplished 3 times in W playoff history—one of those came from Wilson, who scored 33 (Aug. 31) and 34 (Sept. 4) against Seattle in the 2022 Semifinals. Angel McCoughtry in 2011 and Breanna Stewart in 2020 are the only other 2 players to hit the 30-point mark in consecutive playoff games.

IT ONLY MAKES SENSE
Given her scoring output the last three games, it only makes sense that A'ja Wilson's 29.0 ppg through 4 games in 2023 ranks No. 1 all-time among WNBA single-season playoff leaders who played at least 3 postseason games in a single year.

The previous record was 9, achieved twice by Becky Hammon and once by Liz Cambage. The feat ranks tied for 7th all-time in WNBA postseason play. The record is held by Penny Taylor, who hit 18 of 18 from the line on Sept. 16, 2007.

38 SPECIAL
In scoring 38 points against Chicago on Sept. 17, A'ja Wilson established franchise playoff single-game records for points (38) and franchise records for field goals made (15, which also established a new W playoff record) Previous record holders were Becky Hammon with 35 points on Sept. 28, 2008, in the Western Conference Finals vs Los Angeles and Wilson's 14 field goals on Sept. 24, 2022, in the semifinals against Seattle.

The WNBA single-game playoff record is 42 points (Angel McCoughtry, Sept. 7, 2010). Wilson's 38 points came from shooting 15 of 23 from the field and 8 of 10 from the line. She did not attempt a 3-pointer, and her 38 points ranks second in W playoff history for single-game scoring without a 3-pointer (39, Angel McCoughtry, Sept. 24, 2014). She equaled her 15 made field goals on Sept. 24 in a 34-point output against Dallas.

BAKER'S DOZEN+
A'ja Wilson, who swatted 4 blocks in each of her first 3 playoff games this year, has at least 1 block in each of her last 14 playoff games, the longest active streak in the league. The longest streak with at least 1 block in playoff games is 19, set by Lisa Leslie from Aug. 17, 2002 to Sept. 2, 2005. Wilson's 14 blocks are tied at No. 4 among such all-time playoff streaks.

A'ja Wilson became the 4th on that list in the Aces 91-84 victory over Dallas, exactly 19 years since Lisa Leslie first accomplished the feat, and is the first to hit all 3 marks in the same game. DeWanna Bonner is in need of 6 blocked shots to join the 600-300-70 club.

NEVER GONNA GIVE IT UP

PAINTING THE TOWN RED

In their 21 games (19-2) ahead of the All-Star Game, the Aces were scoring a league-high 40.7 points in the paint. After the midseason break, the Aces posted a 15-4 record and dropped to 35.9 points per game in the paint (6th best in the W). The Aces returned to their early-season form in the first 4 games of the playoffs with an average of 40.0 points in the paint.

PAINTING THE TOWN RED, PART DEUX

A'ja Wilson averaged 12.8 points in the paint over the 40-game regular season and jumped up her average to 19.5 points in the paint in the postseason.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

Against Dallas on Sept. 24, the Aces shot a perfect 13 of 13 from the line. It not only marked the 1st perfect game from the charity stripe in the 2023 postseason (New York, 16-16 FTs, Sept. 26), it was the 14th perfect game in league postseason history with 13 or more free throws attempted. The most was 24 by Phoenix in the 2016 Second Round, and the third-most by a Las Vegas team (20 vs Phoenix, 2021; 18 vs Phoenix, 2022).

Additionally, the Aces, who led the league at the stripe during the regular season, continue riding the top of the wave in playoff games and lead all playoff teams with 93.3% (72-78 FTs) from the line.

PEAK PLAYOFF PERFORMER

Since competing in her first playoff game in 2019, A'ja Wilson has scored more points (623), blocked more shots (303) and swatted more shots (71) in playoff games than anyone else in the league. She also ranks second for double-doubles (14).

LOOK AT ALL THE PEOPLE HERE TONIGHT

The Las Vegas Aces welcomed a franchise-high 17,406 fans to their final regular season game against the Mercury on Sept. 10, eclipsing the previous record of 15,657, set on Aug. 4,1998, when the Utah Starzz played host to the Houston Comets.

Three nights later, the Aces rewrote their playoff attendance record since arriving in Las Vegas with 12,927 fans at T-Mobile Arena for Game 1 against the Sky. The previous Las Vegas playoff high was 10,211 one year earlier on Sept. 13, 2022. The franchise high for a playoff game is 16,012, set Oct. 3, 2008, when the San Antonio Stars hosted the Detroit Shock in the Finals.

The Aces ranked 1st in the W in attendance this year, and lead in the postseason as well. Factoring in playoff games, 7 of the top 10 attendance counts since moving to Vegas have come in 2023 and 12 of the top 20. The Aces also have 7 sellouts this season.

The 5th-year guard set career-highs in all 3 shooting percentage categories and led the league in effective field goal percentage. She was second in the WNBA in offensive efficiency and behind only A'ja Wilson and Breanna Stewart in Win Shares.

Up until this year, 7 teams in WNBA history have boasted both the best offense and defense in the same season as measured by Offensive (OER) and Defensive Efficiency Ratings (DER)—points scored and allowed per 100 possessions—and 6 of them have won the title (*). The Aces became the 8th to end the season ranking first for both OER and DER.

SILENT BUT DEADLY ASSASSIN

Jackie Young may be quiet off the court, but she is a deadly assassin on it. She connected on a league second-best 44.9 percent of her 3-pointers on the year, and now ranks No. 2 in league history for highest 3-point percentage when attempting at least 150 from distance. The record is 45.28 percent set by Maya Moore in 2023.

The Aces, who shot a league-high 48.6% from the field in 2023, produced 3 of the top 5 single-game field goal percentages in the W this year, including a season-high 59.7% against the Lynx on July 9.

TYING A LLEGEND

A'ja Wilson scored 35 points against Minnesota on July 22 and her 82.4% (14-17 FGs) shooting from the field tied the mark for highest single-game field goal percentage for a W player attempting at least 17 field goals (Lisa Leslie, Aug. 1, 2002, 14-17 FGs).

RAREFIED AIR

Only 5 players in the history of the league have each produced 60 or more games with 20+ points and 10+ rebounds. Of those 5, 2 are active and are on this year's Aces squad—Candace Parker (2nd) and A'ja Wilson (5th).

The Aces scored 100 or more points in 7 games in 2021 and 2022, and upped that to a WNBA record-setting 11 times this year. The WNBA record for most times reaching the century mark in a season was originally set by the 2010 Phoenix Mercury.

LAYING POINTS

Only 22 players in WNBA history scored 40 or more points in a single game (as of Sept. 10), with a total of 40, 40+ point games overall and 35 in the regular season. Kelsey Plum (at Minnesota, July 9) and A'ja Wilson (vs. Washington, Aug. 11) are 2 of them, having scored 40 points apiece in games this season. Wilson followed her 40-point game up with a 53-point outburst against Atlanta on Aug. 22.

Plum and Wilson became the first pair of teammates in league history to accomplish the feat in the same season. Only one franchise in W history has seen 3 different players score 40 or more, but not in the same season (Los Angeles: Kristi Toliver, 43, 2015; Lisa Leslie, 41, 2006; Candace Parker, 40, 2008).

IF A T(H)REE FALLS IN THE WOODS ...

Although the Aces have been one of the best 3-point shooting teams over the past 5 years, it wasn't always a big part of their arsenal. In 2022, the Aces began utilizing the 3-pointer to a much greater degree, more than doubling their average made and attempted 3s from 2018, and continued to look beyond the arc in 2023.

The Aces took care of the basketball better than almost anybody in the WNBA in each of the past 3 seasons, finishing 0.1 behind Dallas in 2020. They led in fewest turnovers in 2021 and 2022, and topped the league again this season.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021 that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant, and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach. Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon has continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
