CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 7 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the two-time defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 ~~280~~ characters or less and 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes again this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics

Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both teams' stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2024 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes

Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles

Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2024 season
- Career highlights
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes

This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super-specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent

These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent.

Frequently Asked Question

"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

If you have any additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to the Aces Media Relations duo listed on Page 1.

Thanks again for your interest in covering the Las Vegas Aces.

Your dedicated media relations team,

Giggy and Caroline

LOCK, STOCKS & TWO SMOKING BARRELS

A'ja Wilson, who is averaging 4.6 'stocks' per game, which combines steals and blocks, is on pace to surpass the all-time WNBA record of 4.5 stocks per game set by Yolanda Griffith in the leagues 4th season of play.

	Player	Year	Avg Stocks	SPG	BPG
1.	A'ja Wilson	2024	4.61	1.96	2.64

A 5TH ACE UP THE SLEEVE?

In four of the past five seasons the WNBA 6th Player of the Year Award has been earned by a member of the Aces team, including last year's winner Alysha Clark. The Aces are looking to go five for six with its early-season acquisition Tiffany Hayes. Signed as a free agent on May 31, Hayes is making her case for the award. The 12-year veteran is averaging 8.9 points while connecting on 49.6 percent of her shots from the field and 35.3 percent from 3-point range.

CALCIUM EFFICIENT

A'ja Wilson had her record for consecutive games scoring 20 or more points snapped at 20 when Washington held her to 11 points on June 29.

THEY'RE EIGHTEEN AND WE LIKE IT

A season after being among the first four teammates to average 15 or more points per game in the same season, Kelsey Plum (18.0 ppg), A'ja Wilson (26.8) and Jackie Young (17.7) are threatening to become the first three teammates to each average at least 18 points per game in the same year.

CAROM CHALLENGE

A'ja Wilson is threatening to set a new standard for the league's record for defensive rebounds per game, currently owned by Jonquel Jones.

	Player	Year	Team	DRPG	DRebs	Gms
1.	A'ja Wilson	2024	Las Vegas	9.571	268	28
2.	Jonquel Jones	2021	Connecticut	8.741	236	27
3.	Dearica Hamby	2024	Los Angeles	8.414	244	29

THE QUICKENING

On July 10, A'ja Wilson became the 7th person in WNBA history to amass at least 4,000 points, 1,500 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals. She was the quickest to do so, having reached the milestone in 210 games.

Through 217 career games, Wilson has tallied 4,511 points, 1,963 rebounds, 469 assists, 258 steals and 417 blocked shots.

Needing just 37 rebounds to hit the 2,000 carom mark, it is very conceivable that by the end of August Wilson also will become the quickest to 4,500 points, 2,000 rebounds 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals. Lisa Leslie currently holds that record, having accomplished the feat in 258 games.

YAWN, JUST ANOTHER 20/10

Wilson started the season by recording 5-straight 20-point, 10-rebound games, which broke the WNBA record of 4-straight 20/10 games, previously held by Sylvia Fowles (twice), Tina Charles and Glory Johnson.

That record has since been wiped out. Wilson tied her own record at Washington on July 14 and ended an 8-game streak on Aug. 18 versus Los Angeles.

XXX

A'ja Wilson has scored 30 or more points in 8 games this season and 21 times in her career. The WNBA record for most 30 point games in a season is 12 by Jewell Loyd in 2023 and Maya Moore in 2014.

Wilson is ranked tied for 8th with Elena Delle Donne for the most 30+ point career games in WNBA history. No. 7 is Tina Charles with 23 and No. 6 is Maya Moore with 24.

ALL ABOUT THAT PACE

The Aces have played at one of the fastest paces in the league since moving to Las Vegas as measured by possessions per 40 minutes.

GOOD GAWD!

When Chelsea Gray checked into the June 19 game against Seattle it was her first game played since October 15, 2023, when she injured her left foot in Game 3 of the 2023 WNBA Finals.

She handed out her first assist of the 2024 season 20 seconds later on an Alysha Clark triple for her 1,500th career assist. She now ranks 9th on the WNBA's career assist chart with 1,574 assists.

Gray also became the 7th player in WNBA history with at least 3,500 points and 1,500 assists, and was the third-fastest to accomplish the feat, doing so in 299 games (Sue Bird, 279; Lindsay Whalen, 294).

2024	A'ja Wilson (1)

Set the WNBA Western Conference Record with 10 in June. She put it up to 11 in July. Where can Wilson go from there? Where?

OLYMPICS RECAP (USA VERSION)

Chelsea Gray, Kelsey Plum, A'ja Wilson and Jackie Young now have two Olympic gold medals apiece after helping lead the USA to a 2024 Olympic gold medal finish in Paris. Posting an unblemished 6-0 record, the U.S. defeated France 67-66 in the Aug. 11 gold medal game. It marked the second five-on-five gold for Gray and Wilson, while Plum and Young became the first two athletes with Olympic golds in 3x3 and five-on-five. Additionally, FIBA's staff listed Wilson as the M'VP.

Wilson averaged a team-leading 18.7 points, 10.2 rebounds and 2.7 blocks per game, which ranked 3rd, 2nd and 1st among all competitors, respectively. Wilson also finished 3rd in the field for field goal percentage (.592) and 6th for 2-point percentage (.600).

Gray's 5.2 assists per game led the USA and ranked 8th among the Olympic field.

Further, Wilson posted 4 double-doubles, the most by any player in Paris, and equaling the most double-doubles for a U.S. team member since 2000 when Yolanda Griffith posted 4. Wilson now has 6 double-doubles over two Olympiads, tying Lisa Leslie as second-most in U.S. history. Griffith and Katrina McClain tallied a total of 7 each during their Olympic appearances.

Wilson's points and rebounds averages are the second-most for an American after Leslie posted 19.5 ppg in 1996 and McClain grabbed 10.4 rpg in 1988. Wilson also tied Leslie for most 20+ point games over an Olympic career (6).

OLYMPICS RECAP (SPANISH VERSION)

Megan Gustafson, who helped Spain earn its Olympic berth, led Spain in Paris to a 5th place finish—Spain's best showing on the world stage since its bronze medal campaign at the 2018 World Cup and one place better than the 6th place the nation garnered at the 2020 Olympics.

Spain was eliminated in a 79-66 quarterfinal loss to Belgium, ending its Olympic run with a 3-1 record. Gustafson capped her Olympic campaign averaging team-highs of 18.0 points, 9.3 rebounds and 1.8 steals per game, while posting the highest efficiency (23.0) of any player on her squad.

Through the quarterfinals when Spain bowed out, Gustafson ranked 6th among the 12-team field for scoring and field goal percentage (.577), 3rd for rebounding and 2-point field goal percentage (.667), 4th for defensive rebounds per game (6.3) and 5th for offensive rebounds per game (3.0).

OLYMPICS RECAP (AZERBAIJAN VERSION)

Tiffany Hayes led Azerbaijan to its berth into the 3x3 Olympic tournament and led the nation again in Paris where Azerbaijan finished the tournament with a 2-5 record and in 7th place among the 8-team field. AZE's two victories came against eventual bronze medalist USA and 6th place finisher China.

Despite not advancing to the medal round, Hayes finished as the tournament's leading scorer (7.7 ppg), rebounder (6.3 rpg) and defensive rebounder (5.3 def rpg). She also led in statistics unique to the 3×3 game, including highlights per game (3.7) and drives per game (2.4), while finishing 2nd in player value (63.8).

RECORD SETTER

Against Dallas on July 7, A'ja Wilson scored 28 points and surpassed Sophia Young-Malcolm (4,300 points) as the franchise's leading scorer, finishing the game with 4,301 career points. (She surpassed Young-Malcolm's franchise rebounding record earlier in the season.)

Playing in her 7th season, Wilson now ranks 35th on the WNBA all-time scoring list with 4,511 points. Next up are No. 33 Skylar Diggins-Smith and Penny Taylor (4,606). If she keeps up her scoring pace, Wilson could break into the top 30 by the end of the season (No. 30 is Chamique Holdsclaw with 4,716 points).

Sylvia Fowles (June 1-8, 2012) and Yolanda Griffith (June 14-19, 1999) own the record with 56 apiece.

Wilson then missed tying the record for rebounds over a 4-game stretch by 1 board in the final game ahead of the break (14 vs Chicago) for a combined 69 caroms over that span. Charles holds the record for rebounds over a 4-game stretch with 70 (June 18-25, 2010).

30 FOR 30

On June 13 against Phoenix, A'ja Wilson (32 points) and Jackie Young (34) became the second set of teammates who have each scored 32 or more points in a regulation game—and the only duo who picked up a win while doing so. RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

Las Vegas established a new franchise record for points in a quarter with 42 in the second period against Phoenix on June 13 with the help of a WNBA single-quarter record 10 made 3-pointers. They also broke the league mark for most made 3s in a quarter without a miss (10 of 10).

20/20/20 VISION

On May 21 and 25, A'ja Wilson, Jackie Young and Kelsey Plum became the third trio in WNBA history to each score 20 or more points in back-to-back games.

Previously, Chelsea Gray, Plum and Wilson each scored 20+ on July 25 and 30, 2023; and the Mercury's DeWanna Bonner, Brittney Griner and Diana Taurasi were the first trio to do so on Aug. 12 and 17, 2018.

Two years later, in the Aces' first championship season, the bench averaged a league-low 12.9 points. En route to their second championship the 2024 reserves averaged 13.5 points a game, again the fewest in the league.

The Aces bench in 2024 is scoring 15.2 points a game and sits as the 5th-fewest in the league.

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN, WIN, WIN

Having won the second-most games in league history before turning 25 and shattering the record for most wins before turning 26, Jackie Young this season set her sights on the most W victories before age 27. She captured that mark with win No. 138 over the Sparks on Aug. 18, and will look to raise the bar over the next 12 games until she turns 28 on September 16.

Looking towards the next milestone, Maya Moore holds the record for wins (164) before turning 28, a number well within Young's reach before next September. Young ranks 6th on that list. A'ja Wilson's 147 wins before turning 28 is No. 3.

CENTURY MARK

The Aces scored 100 or more points in 7 games in 2021 and 2022, and upped that to a WNBA record-setting 11 times in 2023. The WNBA record for most times reaching the century mark in a season was previously 10, set by the 2010 Phoenix Mercury.

This season it took the Aces, who lead the W in scoring at 87.3 ppg, until their 11th game before scoring in triple digits, and they hit triple digits for the second time in their 20th game.

QUAD LIFT

A'ja Wilson (22.8), Kelsey Plum (18.7), Jackie Young (17.6) and Chelsea Gray (15.3) finished last year as the first four teammates in WNBA history to average 15 or more points per game in the same season.

A'JA THE LOVE BUG

A'ja Wilson poured in a WNBA record-tying 53 points in the Aces 112-100 victory over Atlanta on Aug. 22, 2023. The 53-point outburst also set a new franchise scoring standard—just 11 days after tying the previous franchise-high of 40 points set initially by Kelsey Plum on July 9.

BOARD ALLERGIES

Offensive Rebound Percentages had been declining for years as teams relied more and more on the 3-pointer as a weapon.

From 1997-2003, no team grabbed fewer than 30 percent of available offensive rebounds.

Last season, 9 teams finished below 30 percent, and the 2023 Aces and Mystics now list among the all-time "low 5" in that category. The current low mark this season is held by the Aces, which would surpass the league record low of 23.3% set by Los Angeles in 2021.

While it's still early in her WNBA coaching career, not only did Becky Hammon lead the Aces to the their first championship during her inaugural season at the helm and follow that up with back-to-back titles in 2023, but she also boasts the highest winning percentage of any coach in WNBA history for those who have coached at least 50 games.

The Aces led the W in 2023 with 92.8 ppg, 4.8 bpg, 48.6% shooting from the field, 54.9% from 2-point, 84% from the line, a +12.6 scoring differential, a WNBA-record for offensive efficiency rating at 113.0, 97.7 defensive efficiency rating, 15.3 net rating and 1.85 assist-to-turnover ratio, and a league-low 11.8 turnovers a game. They missed out on leading in all 4 shooting percentage categories after dropping to 37.2% from 3-point range, just behind NY's 37.4%.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021, that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach.

Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

She repeated that feat in her second season, helping the Aces become the first team to claim back-to-back WNBA titles in more than 20 years.

In her first two years with the Aces, Las Vegas tallied a 60-16 (.789) mark in the regular season, 16-3 (.842) in playoff games and also captured the 2022 Commissioner's Cup crown.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022, the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.

On Christmas Eve, 1968, astronaut Bill Anders
Snapped a photo of the earth
As Apollo 8 orbited the moon.

Those three guys
Were surprised
To see from their eyes
Our planet looked like an earthrise
A blue orb hovering over the moon's gray horizon, with deep oceans and silver skies.

It was our world's first glance at itself
Our first chance to see a shared reality,
A declared stance and a commonality;

A glimpse into our planet's mirror,
And as threats drew nearer,
Our own urgency became clearer,
As we realize that we hold nothing dearer than this floating body we all call home.

We've known
That we're caught in the throes
Of climactic changes some say
Will just go away,
While some simply pray
To survive another day;
For it is the obscure, the oppressed, the poor,
Who when the disaster
Is declared done,
Still suffer more than anyone.

Climate change is the single greatest challenge of our time,

Of this, you're certainly aware.
It's saddening, but I cannot spare you
From knowing an inconvenient fact, because It's getting the facts straight that gets us to act and not to wait.

So I tell you this not to scare you,
But to prepare you, to dare you
To dream a different reality,

Where despite disparities
We all care to protect this world,
This riddled blue marble, this little true marvel
To muster the verve and the nerve
To see how we can serve
Our planet. You don't need to be a politician
To make it your mission to conserve, to protect,
To preserve that one and only home
That is ours,
To use your unique power
To give next generations the planet they deserve.

We are demonstrating, creating, advocating

We heed this inconvenient truth, because we need to be anything but lenient
With the future of our youth.

And while this is a training,
in sustaining the future of our planet,
There is no rehearsal. The time is Now
Now
Now,
Because the reversal of harm,
And protection of a future so universal
Should be anything but controversial.

So, earth, pale blue dot
We will fail you not.

Just as we chose to go to the moon
We know it's never too soon
To choose hope.
We choose to do more than cope
With climate change
We choose to end it—
We refuse to lose.
Together we do this and more
Not because it's very easy or nice
But because it is necessary,
Because with every dawn we carry the weight of the fate of this celestial body orbiting a star.
And as heavy as that weight sounded, it doesn't hold us down,
But it keeps us grounded, steady, ready,
Because an environmental movement of this size
Is simply another form of an earthrise.

To see it, close your eyes.
Visualize that all of us leaders in this room and outside of these walls or in the halls, all of us changemakers are in a spacecraft,
Floating like a silver raft
in space, and we see the face of our planet anew.
We relish the view;
We witness its round green and brilliant blue,
Which inspires us to ask deeply, wholly:
What can we do?
Open your eyes.
Know that the future of this wise planet
Lies right in sight:
Right in all of us. Trust
this earth uprising.
All of us bring light to exciting solutions never tried before
For it is our hope that implores us, at our uncompromising core,
To keep rising up for an earth more than worth fighting for.

~~ Amanda Gorman, the first Youth Poet Laureate of the United States
