HISTORY (REG SEASON & PLAYOFFS)

Overall: Aces lead 49-48.

At Home: Aces lead 29-19

On the Road: Aces trail 20-29

Current streak: Aces won the last 2

Becky Hammon vs. Seattle: 12-3

Last 10: Aces lead 9-1.

Last Meeting: A'ja Wilson and Jackie Young combined for 51 points and 25 rebounds as the Aces collected an 84-79 win in Seattle on July 10. Trailing most of the first half, and behind 3 in the 3rd, the Aces went on a 13-0 run and led 54-45 with 13:09 to play. The Aces never again trailed, but Seattle remained close to the end.

NEXT UP

Las Vegas closes out the season at home against Dallas (9-30), which has been eliminated from the playoffs. Should the Aces not win against Seattle on Tuesday, they would need a win against Dallas to lock up the No. 4 seed and home court advantage for the First Round. The Aces can claim the No. 3 seed if they win against Seattle and Dallas, and Connecticut loses its final two games.

PENDING MILESTONS & RECORDS

WNBA Single Season Rebound Record: (446, Angel Reese, 2024): A'ja Wilson (444 + 3)

Single-Season Milestone

100 Blocked Shots: A'ja Wilson (98+2)

CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 7 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the two-time defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 ~~280~~ characters or less and 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes again this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics

Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both teams' stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2024 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes

Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles

Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2024 season
- Career highlights
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes

This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super-specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent.

Frequently Asked Question

"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several typos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

If you have any additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to the Aces Media Relations duo listed on Page 1.

AN ACE UP THE SLEEVE

In four of the past five seasons the WNBA 6th Player of the Year Award has been earned by a member of the Aces team, including last year's winner Alysha Clark.

The Aces are looking to go five for six with its early-season acquisition Tiffany Hayes. Signed as a free agent on May 31, Hayes is making her case for the award. In 27 games off the bench, the 12-year veteran is averaging 8.5 points and 2.0 assists, while connecting on 47.3% (14th in the league) of her shots from the field and 36.5% (13th) from 3-point range.

TWO-TIME WORLD CHAMPION LAS VEGAS ACES GAME NOTES (STATS & RANKINGS THROUGH 9/16/2024)

CAN'T TOUCH THIS

Entering the 2024 season, there had been 94 different occasions where a player averaged 15 or more shots per game while playing in at least 20 games—the very definition of a team's go-to offensive player.

Of those 94 instances, 60 shot 45 percent or worse from the field. Only 6 times has a player shot better than 50 percent from the field. Wilson would become the first player to do it twice in her career if she continues shooting at her current pace.

Of those who have previously accomplished this feat, most took fewer than 16 shots. Wilson, this year, is taking 19.4 shots per game—more than 2 shots more per game than the next person on the list, Seimone Augustus.

Player	Year	FGA/G	FG%

CURRENTLY IN USE

If the world imploded today, A'ja Wilson's 2024 usage rating (the percentage of a team's possessions that a player impacts) of 32.2 would be the 9th highest in league history. None of these players had amazingly efficient offensive seasons. Most of the offensive efficiency ratings (OER) and offensive win shares (OWS) listed are above average to good, but there is nothing great about these performances.

A'ja Wilson's OER and OWS are lapping the field on the chart. She is impacting an ungodly amount of her team's possessions, and continuing to do it at an MVP level that has never been done before.

NEVER GONNA GIVE YOU UP

Only 5 players in WNBA history have averaged more than 20 points and fewer than 2.0 turnovers over the course of a season.

A'ja Wilson has accomplished the feat 3 times (2018, 2020 and 2023) in the past, tied with Elena Delle Donne and Lauren Jackson for 2nd. Breanna Stewart is on pace for her 5th such season, and Tina Charles joined the list in 2016.

Wilson's 27.0 points a game tops the chart and her 1.27 turnovers per game ranks No. 5.

HOLD ON TIGHTLY

A'ja Wilson, who is leading the league this season in turnover percentage, is on track to produce one of the best turnover percentage rates in WNBA single season history (minimum of 500 minutes played), while playing more minutes than Elena Delle Donne in 2018.

Player	Team	Year	TO%	TOs	Minutes
1. E. Delle Donne	Washington	2018	4.891	26	933:31

3. E. Delle Donne	Chicago	2015	5.548	36	1031:35

Wilson also ranks second only to Delle Donne on the all-time league turnover percentage chart.

Player	Team	TO%	TOs	Minutes
1. E. Delle Donne	Chicago/Wash	6.523	275	7279:21

THE QUICKENING

On July 10, A'ja Wilson became the 7th person in WNBA history to amass at least 4,000 points, 1,500 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals. She was the quickest to do so, having reached the milestone in 210 games. Candace Parker previously did so in 229 games.

On August 30, in her 220th career game, Wilson became the fastest player in league history to compile 4,500 points, 2,000 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals, shattering the previous record held by Lisa Leslie, who took 258 games to hit all 5 milestones.

Further, Wilson is the second-youngest player to grab 2,000 rebounds (28 years, 22 days), and the fourth-fastest to do so in terms of number of games played (220). Tina Charles holds the record for the quickest (196 games) and youngest (26 years, 278 days).

YAWN, JUST ANOTHER 20/10

Wilson started the season by recording 5-straight 20-point, 10-rebound games, which broke the WNBA record of 4-straight 20/10 games, previously held by Sylvia Fowles (twice), Tina Charles and Glory Johnson.

That record has since been wiped out by none other than Wilson herself when she upped the W record to 8 games.

RECORD SETTER

Against Dallas on July 7, A'ja Wilson scored 28 points and surpassed Sophia Young-Malcolm (4,300 points) as the franchise's leading scorer, finishing the game with 4,301 career points. (She surpassed Young-Malcolm's franchise rebounding record earlier in the season.)

Playing in her 7th season, Wilson now ranks 31st on the WNBA all-time scoring list with 4,761 points. Next up are No. 30 Skylar Diggins-Smith (4,791) and No. 29 Kayla McBride (4,821). The next non-active player on the list is Sheryl Swoopes at No. 28 with 4,875 points.

FOR THE RECORD

In addition to the records listed in the previous notes, A'ja Wilson has rewritten or is on track to rewrite several other WNBA single-season records, including points, 20+ point games, field goals made and attempted per game and 2-pointers made per game.

GOOD GAUD!

When Chelsea Gray checked into the June 19 game against Seattle it was her first game played since October 15, 2023, when she injured her left foot in Game 3 of the 2023 WNBA Finals.

She handed out her first assist of the 2024 season 20 seconds later on an Alysha Clark triple for her 1,500th career assist. She now ranks 9th on the WNBA's career assist chart with 1,626 assists. Candace Parker is 8th with 1,634.

Gray also became the 7th player in WNBA history with at least 3,500 points and 1,500 assists, and was the third-fastest to accomplish the feat, doing so in 299 games (Sue Bird, 279; Lindsay Whalen, 294).

MOVIN' ON UP

The Aces finished among the top 3 teams in the league for shooting percentage over the past 4 seasons, including an all-time league third-best 48.6% last season.

However, the 2024 Aces struggled to find the bottom of the net to start the season, making just 41.8% of their attempts to rank 7th in the league over their first 9 games. The Aces reversed course and are now shooting 45.1% from the field, which is 2nd in the W.

SILENT BUT DEADLY ASSASSIN

Jackie Young may be quiet off the court, but she is a deadly assassin on it. She connected on a league second-best 44.9% of her 3-pointers in 2023, and now ranks No. 2 in league history for highest 3-point percentage in a season when attempting at least 150 from distance. The record is 45.28 percent set by Maya Moore in 2013.

30 FOR 30

On June 13 against Phoenix, A'ja Wilson (32 points) and Jackie Young (34) became the second set of teammates who have each scored 32 or more points in a regulation game—and the first duo who picked up a win while doing so. Odyssey Sims (39) and Skylar Diggins-Smith (34) did so in a Tulsa 95-93 loss to San Antonio on on July 22, 2014. It has since been accomplished by Natasha Howard (30) and Arike Ogunbowale (33) in a win over LA on Aug. 25, 2024, and Caitlin Clark (35) and Kelsey Mitchell (30) did so in a victory over Dallas on Sept. 15, 2024.

M'ST 4K

A'ja Wilson scored her 4,000th career point in her 198th career game on June 9 against LA. Only three players in league history have scored 4,000 points in fewer than 200 games. Wilson, who was 27 years and 306 days old on June 9, also became the fourth-youngest to hit the 4K mark.

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

Las Vegas established a new franchise record for points in a quarter with 42 in the second period against Phoenix on June 13 with the help of a WNBA single-quarter record 10 made 3-pointers. They also broke the league mark for most made 3s in a quarter without a miss (10 of 10).

20/20/20 VISION

On May 21 and 25, A'ja Wilson, Jackie Young and Kelsey Plum became the third trio in WNBA history to each score 20 or more points in back-to-back games.

Previously, Chelsea Gray, Plum and Wilson each scored 20+ on July 25 and 30, 2023; and the Mercury's DeWanna Bonner, Brittney Griner and Diana Taurasi were the first trio to do so on Aug. 12 and 17, 2018.

LOW ON RESERVES??

Las Vegas' bench averaged a league-record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves. Two years later, in the Aces' first championship season, the bench averaged a league-low 12.9 points. En route to their second championship the 2024 reserves averaged 13.5 points a game, again the fewest in the league.

The Aces bench in 2024 is scoring 14.8 points a game, which sits as the 4th-fewest in the league.

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN, WIN, WIN

Having won the second-most games in league history before turning 25 and shattering the record for most wins before turning 26, Jackie Young this season set a new standard for W victories before age 27 with 145 victories before turning 27 on September 16.

Looking towards the next milestone, Maya Moore holds the record for wins (164) before turning 28, a number well within Young's reach before next September. Young ranks 4th on that list.

CENTURY MARK

The Aces scored 100 or more points in 7 games in 2021 and 2022, and upped that to a WNBA record-setting 11 times in 2023. The WNBA record for most times reaching the century mark in a season was previously 10, set by the 2010 Phoenix Mercury.

This season it took the Aces, who lead the W in scoring at 86.1 ppg, until their 11th game before scoring in triple digits, and they hit triple digits for just the second time in their 20th game.

BOARD ALLERGIES

Offensive Rebound Percentages had been declining for years as teams relied more and more on the 3-pointer as a weapon.

From 1997-2003, no team grabbed fewer than 30 percent of available offensive rebounds.

Last season, 9 teams finished below 30 percent, and the 2023 Aces and Mystics now list among the all-time "low 5" in that category. The current low mark this season is held by the Aces, which would surpass the league record low of 23.3% set by Los Angeles in 2021.

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN

While it's still early in her WNBA coaching career, not only did Becky Hammon lead the Aces to the their first championship during her inaugural season at the helm and follow that up with back-to-back titles in 2023, but she also boasts the highest winning percentage of any coach in WNBA history for those who have coached at least 50 games.

HEAD COACH BECKY HAMMON

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021, that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach.

Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the franchise's first WNBA Championship.

She repeated that feat in her second season, helping the Aces become the first team to claim back-to-back WNBA titles in more than 20 years.

In her first two years with the Aces, Las Vegas tallied a 60-16 (.789) mark in the regular season, 16-3 (.842) in playoff games and also captured the 2022 Commissioner's Cup crown.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022, the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
