CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the defending WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to year 7 of the Las Vegas Aces—our first as the two-time defending WNBA Champs.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 ~~280~~ characters or less and 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know that we've gone interactive with notes again this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

So let's get started. These notes are divided into 3 primary sections: Season Notes, Individual Player Profiles and Statistics.

Statistics

Let's take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both teams' stats are always located on the second to last page.

There is also a separate statistical packet in a different document with more detailed information about both teams.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous games in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season's box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today.

Given all these possibilities, with the exception of 2024 games between the two teams playing today, we have decided not to include any box scores ~~because we are lazy~~ in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Additional Notes

Notes you've seen plenty of times, are still important, but not enough to take up prime real estate in the front of the game notes.

Individual Player Profiles

Each player on the roster has at least one page of info in this doc.

Included in these are ...

- Notes from the 2024 season
- Career highlights
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player's most recent efforts.
- Single-season and career highs.
- Career Stats
- Links to a more robust bio online

Additional information is available on each player's online biography, linked from various spots in the notes, including the front page, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes

This area is divided into 3 primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super-specific to this year's team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the question, "Why do the Aces have the record they have?"

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year's team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might (in theory) still have relevance to this year's team.

Today's Opponent

These pages let you know how the Aces have performed historically against today's opponent.

Frequently Asked Question

"I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue

If you have any additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to the Aces Media Relations duo listed on Page 1.

Thanks again for your interest in covering the Las Vegas Aces.

Your dedicated media relations team,

Giggy and Caroline

A'NOTHER EXCLUSIVE CLUB

A'ja Wilson became the 5th player in league history with at least 800 points (811) and 400 rebounds (400) in postseason play, and was the quickest to do so on Oct. 1, her 41st playoff game. Candace Parker (43 games), Lisa Leslie (45), Tamika Catchings (48) and DeWanna Bonner (60) round out the list.

Further, she's just the third player—and quickest (41 games)—to have at least 800 points, 400 boards and 80 blocked shots (87), and just the third to reach those stats in playoff games. Leslie and Parker both did so in their respective 45th playoff game.

ALL IN

All the major franchise career playoff records are held by members of the 2024 Aces, including games played (A'ja Wilson, Jackie Young-41), points (Wilson-8117), Assists (Chelsea Gray-180), assist/turnover ratio (Gray-2.466), offensive rebounds (Wilson-84), defensive rebounds (Wilson-316), total rebounds (Wilson-400), steals (Wilson-40), blocked shots (Wilson-87), field goals made (Wilson-307), 2-point field goals made (Wilson-302), free throws made (Wilson-192) and double-doubles (Wilson-19).

The only one not held by a player on this year's Aces team heading into the playoffs was owned by head coach Becky Hammon, who made a then-franchise-high 73 3-point field goals in postseason play. But that record fell in Game 2 against New York—Kelsey Plum is now in the lead with 74 made 3-pointers.

DEFENDING THE HOUSE

The Aces win over the Storm on Sept. 24 was their 11th consecutive home playoff victory, the longest active streak in the league and tied with Los Angeles (2001-04) and Sacramento (2003-06) for the longest in league history.

WELCOME TO THE M'VTHREE CLUB

When A'ja Wilson earned her 3rd M'VP honor this year, she joined Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie and Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in league history with three M'VP awards. Watch their congratulatory messages.

PERFECTION

On Sept. 22, Las Vegas (11-11 FTs) and Seattle (13-13 FTs) combined to shoot a perfect 24 of 24 from the line. It marked just the second playoff game in league history where both teams were 100% from the line. The first also featured Seattle. The Storm and Mercury each tossed in 11 of 11 from the stripe in the Western Conference Semifinals on Aug. 24, 2007 (Phoenix won, 101-84).

AN ACE UP THE SLEEVE

In four of the past five seasons the WNBA 6th Player of the Year Award has been earned by a member of the Aces team, including last year's winner Alysha Clark.

The Aces are looking to go five for six with its early-season acquisition Tiffany Hayes. Signed as a free agent on May 31, Hayes is making her case for the award. In 28 games off the bench, the 12-year veteran averaged 8.5 points and 2.0 assists, while connecting on 47.6% of her shots from the field and 36.5% from 3-point range.

NEVER BEEN DONE BEFORE

A'ja Wilson wrapped her season as the first player in WNBA history to to lead the league in total points, rebounds and blocked shots in a single season. In fact, since blocks became an official NBA stat in 1973-74, nobody has led that league in those three categories, either.

Only 3 times in WNBA history has the same player led in 2 of the 3 categories (including Wilson with rebounds and blocked shots in 2022), which has been accomplished just 11 times in the NBA since 1973-74.

TRIPLE THREAT

On Sept. 13 against Indiana, Kelsey Plum became the 4th player in WNBA history with 100 3-pointers made in multiple seasons behind Diana Taurasi (2006, 2018), Kelsey Mitchell (2023, 2024) and Arike Ogunbowale (2023, 2024). Sabrina Ionescu (2023, 2024) has since joined the list. Plum, who made 110 made 3s this year, also hit the mark in 2022 when she connected on 113 made 3s.

THE ANSWER TO THE ULTIMATE QUESTION OF LIFE

Starting with a 42-point outburst at Dallas on Aug. 27 and directly followed by 26-, 41- and 30-point games, A'ja Wilson scored a WNBA record-tying 139 points over that 4-game span. Maya Moore also tallied 139 over 4 consecutive games from July 10-22, 2014.

JUST THE FACTS, A'JACK

- A'ja Wilson scored 30 or more points 11 times this season, which is the 3rd most in WNBA regular season history. Jewell Loyd (2023) and Maya Moore (2014) share the top spot with 12 each.
- Wilson has 24 games of 30 or more points in her career, which are tied with Maya Moore for 6th most in WNBA history.
- The 42 scored versus Dallas and 41 points two days later were the top two marks in a WNBA game this season and 2nd- and 3rd-most in franchise history.
- Wilson now has 4 career game of 40 or more points, tied with Breanna Stewart and Diana Taurasi for 1st in WNBA history.
- Wilson's 16 made field goals in each of her 40-point games are the most in a game in the WNBA this season.
- Not only did Wilson average 34.8 ppg from Aug. 27 - Sept. 3, she averaged 13.3 rpg, 3.0 apg, 1.3 spg, 3.0 bpg with just 3 turnovers.

RECORD SETTER

Against Dallas on July 7, A'ja Wilson scored 28 points and surpassed Sophia Young-Malcolm (4,300 points) as the franchise's leading scorer, finishing the game with 4,301 career points. (She surpassed Young-Malcolm's franchise rebounding record earlier in the season.)

Wilson now ranks 31st on the WNBA all-time scoring list with 4,782 points behind No. 30 Skylar Diggins-Smith (4,808) and No. 29 Kayla McBride (4,835).

CAN'T TOUCH THIS

Entering the 2024 season, there had been 94 different occasions where a player averaged 15 or more shots per game while playing in at least 20 games—the very definition of a team's go-to offensive player.

Of those 94 instances, 60 shot 45 percent or worse from the field. Only 6 times has a player shot better than 50 percent from the field. Wilson became the first player to do it twice in her career after doing so in 2023.

Of those who have previously accomplished this feat, most took fewer than 16 shots. Wilson, this year, took 19.4 shots per game—more than 2 shots more per game than the next person on the list, Seimone Augustus.

THE QUICKENING

On July 10, A'ja Wilson became the 7th person in WNBA history to amass at least 4,000 points, 1,500 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals (Tina Charles became the 8th on the list four days later). She was the quickest to do so, having reached the milestone in 210 games. Candace Parker previously did so in 229 games.

On Aug. 30, in her 220th career game, Wilson became the fastest player in league history to compile 4,500 points, 2,000 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals, shattering the previous record held by Lisa Leslie, who took 258 games to hit all 5 milestones.

Further, Wilson is the second-youngest player to grab 2,000 rebounds (28 years, 22 days), and the fourth-fastest to do so in terms of number of games played (220). Charles holds the record for the quickest (196 games) and youngest (26 years, 278 days).

CURRENTLY IN USE

A'ja Wilson's 2024 usage rating (the percentage of a team's possessions that a player impacts) of 32.2 is the 9th highest in league history. None of the 8 players ahead of her had amazingly efficient offensive seasons. Most of the offensive efficiency ratings (OER) and offensive win shares (OWS) listed are above average to good, but there is nothing great about these performances.

A'ja Wilson's OER and OWS lapped the field on the chart. She impacted an ungodly amount of her team's possessions, and did it at an M'VP level that has never been seen before.

Only 5 players in WNBA history have averaged more than 20 points and fewer than 2.0 turnovers over the course of a season. A'ja Wilson has now accomplished the feat 4 times (2018, 2020, 2023 and 2024), which ranks 2nd behind Breanna Stewart (5). Elena Delle Donne and Lauren Jackson are 3rd with 3 such seasons apiece and Tina Charles joined the list in 2016. MINUTE BY MINUTE

Since the franchise moved to Vegas, only one Aces player has logged an average of more than 33 minutes per game (Jackie Young, 33:13 mpg, 2022), although it used to happen with some degree of regularity.

In 2024, however, three Aces logged at least 33 minutes a game: A'ja Wilson (34:25), Kelsey Plum (34:00) and Jackie Young (33:13).

GOOD GAWD!

When Chelsea Gray checked into the June 19 game against Seattle it was her first game played since Oct. 15, 2023, when she injured her left foot in Game 3 of the 2023 WNBA Finals. She handed out her first assist of the 2024 season 20 seconds later on an Alysha Clark triple for her 1,500th career dime. She now ranks 9th on the WNBA's career assist chart with 1,631 assists. Candace Parker is 8th with 1,634.

Gray also became the 7th player in WNBA history with at least 3,500 points and 1,500 assists, and was the third-fastest to accomplish the feat, doing so in 299 games (Sue Bird, 279; Lindsay Whalen, 294).

M'ST 400K

Aja Wilson became the 8th player in WNBA history with 4,000 points and 400 blocked shots after swatting her 400th against Seattle on July 10. She is the second-youngest (27 years, 337 days) and second-fastest (210 games) to accomplish the feat, behind Lauren Jackson.

She then became the quickest, and second-youngest, player to reach 4,500 points and 400 blocked shots, doing so in 217 games at 28 years and 15 days.

On June 13 against Phoenix, A'ja Wilson (32 points) and Jackie Young (34) became the second set of teammates who have each scored 32 or more points in a regulation game—and the first duo who picked up a win while doing so. Odyssey Sims (39) and Skylar Diggins-Smith (34) did so in a Tulsa 95-93 loss to San Antonio on on July 22, 2014. It has since been accomplished by Natasha Howard (30) and Arike Ogunbowale (33) in a win over LA on Aug. 25, 2024, and Caitlin Clark (35) and Kelsey Mitchell (30) did so in a victory over Dallas on Sept. 15, 2024.

M'ST 4K

A'ja Wilson scored her 4,000th career point in her 198th career game on June 9 against LA. Two years later, in the Aces' first championship season, the bench averaged a league-low 12.9 points. En route to their second championship the 2024 reserves averaged 13.5 points a game, again the fewest in the league.

The Aces bench in 2024 scored 15.0 points a game, which was the 4th-fewest in the league.

This season it took the Aces, who led the W in scoring at 86.1 ppg, until their 11th game before hitting triple digits, and they hit the mark for just the second and final time in their 20th game.

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021, that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach.

Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

She repeated that feat in her second season, helping the Aces become the first team to claim back-to-back WNBA titles in more than 20 years.

In her first two years with the Aces, Las Vegas tallied a 60-16 (.789) mark in the regular season, 16-3 (.842) in playoff games and also captured the 2022 Commissioner's Cup crown.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that position.

Since that time, Hammon continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years in the Big Apple.

The Rapid City, South Dakota native earned her first All-Star nod in 2003, and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022, the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
