CONGRATULATIONS!

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to cover a WNBA game featuring the two-time WNBA Champion Las Vegas Aces. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality. Regardless of how these game notes came into your possession, welcome to year 8 of the Las Vegas Aces.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 280 characters or less and 30-second Tik Tok videos, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the rest of this page, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover the most entertaining team in the WNBA.

Before we begin, we want you to know hat we've gone interactive with notes again to that we've gone interactive with notes again this year. Embedded links will take you to the interweb page that contains more information on each note or tidbit of information. Click through to your heart's content!

Aces, Stars & Starzz Franchise History

For a robust franchise history, including yearly team recaps dating to 1997, the league's inaugural season, award winners, transactions, draft picks, season statistical leaders, etc., see the Franchise History & Records page online.

Aces Media Central

For quick links to the Aces credential portal, past game notes, WNBA media policies, 2025 Year in Review (as it happens) and other media-centric information, be sure to check out the Aces Media Central page.

Statistics

If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both teams' stats are always located on the second to last page. We have decided not to include any box scores because we are lazy in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste. All WNBA box scores (PDFs) are located online and can be downloaded here.

Frequently Asked Questions

1) "I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?"

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several tpyos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

2) "I wish you would include [insert statistical note wish here] in your game notes."

Send us an email request and we'll try to add it to the notes package. After all, we are here to help you cover the Aces, and if there's something missing that will better help you do your job, please let us know!

Epilogue

THE QUICKENING

If she dishes out 2 assists against Washington, A'ja Wilson will become the 6th player in WNBA history to have at least 4,500 points, 2,000 rebounds, 500 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals. Not only that, but she will have done so 28 games faster than Lisa Leslie (258 games) and at 28 years and 286 days, will be the youngest on the list to reach the milestone (Candace Parker, 31 years, 127 days).

On July 10, 2024, Wilson became the 7th person in WNBA history to amass at least 4,000 points, 1,500 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals (Tina Charles became the 8th on the list four days later). Wilson was the quickest to do so, having reached the milestone in 210 games. Candace Parker previously held the record for the fastest to those marks in 229 games.

On Aug. 30, 2024, in her 220th career game, Wilson became the fastest player in league history to compile 4,500 points, 2,000 rebounds, 400 assists, 400 blocked shots and 200 steals, shattering the previous record held by Lisa Leslie, who took 258 games to hit all 5 milestones.

Further, Wilson is the second-youngest player to grab 2,000 rebounds (28 years, 22 days), and the fourth-fastest to do so in terms of number of games played (220). Charles holds the record for the quickest (196 games) and youngest (26 years, 278 days).

A'JA DOUBLES THE MONTHS

Wilson became the first player in WNBA history to average at least 25 points and 10 rebounds in two consecutive months, after doing so in May and June 2024. She then upped the streak to 5, through September of 2024 and, granted the Aces have played just two games, she's on pace to bump it to 6 by the end of May.

SCORING CHAMPS

Since 2020 the Aces have topped the league's scoring charts, including averaging 92.8 points in 2023, the second-highest scoring output in league history. In fact, the past five seasons are the top five scoring years in franchise history, which should come as no surprise with A'ja Wilson finishing among the top six in the league each of those years -- including a league-record 26.9 ppg in 2024.

While preseason action doesn't always foretell what's to come in the regular season, the Aces showed they have plenty of scoring to again vie for the top of the charts after averaging 98.5 ppg in their two exhibitions and after hitting just 78 in their first game, the Aces are back on track with an 87-point outburst in Game 2.

Starting with a 42-point outburst at Dallas on Aug. 27, 2024, and directly followed by 26-, 41- and 30-point games, Wilson scored a WNBA record-tying 139 points over that 4-game span. Maya Moore also tallied 139 over 4 consecutive games from July 10-22, 2014.

- A'ja Wilson scored 30 or more points 11 times in 2024, which was the 3rd most in WNBA regular season history. Jewell Loyd (2023) and Maya Moore (2014) share the top spot with 12 each.
- The 42 scored versus Dallas and 41 points two days later were the top two marks in a WNBA game last season and 2nd- and 3rd-most in franchise history.
- Wilson now has 4 career game of 40 or more points, tied with Breanna Stewart and Diana Taurasi for 1st in WNBA history.
- Wilson's 16 made field goals in each of her 40-point games are the most in a game in the WNBA last season and two off the league record held by Lauren Jackson.
- Not only did Wilson average 34.8 ppg from Aug. 27 Sept. 3, 2024, she averaged 13.3 rpg, 3.0 apg, 1.3 spg, 3.0 bpg with just 3 turnovers.

ALL ABOUT THAT PACE

The Aces have played at one of the fastest paces in the league since moving to Las Vegas as measured by possessions per 40 minutes.

NEVER GONNA GIVE YOU UP

Through the 2024 season, only 5 players in WNBA history averaged more than 20 points and fewer than 2.0 turnovers over the course of a season. A'ja Wilson has now accomplished the feat 4 times (2018, 2020, 2023 and 2024), which ranks 2nd behind Breanna Stewart (5). Elena Delle Donne and Lauren Jackson are 3rd with 3 such seasons apiece and Tina Charles joined the list in 2016. Wilson's 26.9 points a game tops the chart and her 1.26 turnovers per game ranks No. 4.

CAN'T TOUCH THIS

Entering the 2025 season, there had been 104 different occasions where a player averaged 15 or more shots per game while playing in at least 20 games—the very definition of a team's go-to offensive player.

Of those 104 instances, 65 shot 45% or worse from the field. Only 7 times has a player shot better than 50% from the field. Wilson became the first player to do it twice in her career after first doing so in 2023.

Of those who have previously accomplished this feat, most took fewer than 16 shots. Wilson in 2024 took 19.6 shots per game—more than 2 shots more per game than the next person on the list, Seimone Augustus.

MINUTE BY MINUTE

Since the franchise moved to Vegas, only one Aces player has logged an average of more than 33 minutes per game (Jackie Young, 33:13 mpg, 2022), although it used to happen with some degree of regularity.

In 2024, however, three Aces logged at least 33 minutes a game: A'ja Wilson (34:25), Kelsey Plum (34:00) and Jackie Young (33:13).

CURRENTLY IN USE

A'ja Wilson's 2024 usage rating (the percentage of a team's possessions that a player impacts) of 32.16 was the 9th highest in league history. None of the 8 players ahead of her had amazingly efficient offensive seasons. Most of the offensive efficiency ratings (OER) and offensive win shares (OWS) listed are above average to good, but there is nothing great about these performances.

A'ja Wilson's OER and OWS lapped the field on the chart. She impacted an ungodly amount of her team's possessions, and did it at an M'VP level that had never been seen before.

She then wiped out her own record in upping the \underline{W} record to $\underline{8}$ and is the only player with a current active streak of two 20/10 games.

LOW ON RESERVES??

The Aces bench averaged a league-record 35.0 points per game in 2020. Only 7 other teams in WNBA history averaged more than 30 points per game from their reserves. Two years later, in the Aces' first championship season, the bench averaged a league-low 12.9 points. En route to their second championship the 2024 reserves averaged 13.5 points a game, again the fewest in the league. The Aces bench in 2024 scored 15.0 points a game, which was the 4th-fewest in the league and this year's reserves are contrivuting a league 4th-lowest 15.5 points.

Jewell Loyd jumped from 18th in 2022 to no worse than second over the past two seasons. However, she has yet to take a trip to the line in 2025.

HEAD COACH BECKY HAMMON

Las Vegas Aces President Nikki Fargas announced on December 31, 2021, that the team hired San Antonio Spurs assistant and 6-time WNBA All-Star Becky Hammon as the team's head coach.

Hammon rewarded the Aces less than nine months later with the fanchise's first WNBA Championship.

She repeated that feat in her second season, helping the Aces become the first team to claim back-to-back WNBA titles in more than 20 years.

While the Aces 3-peat bid fell short in Hammon's third season, the injuryhampered team still advanced to the WNBA Semifinals and finished fourth in league play.

In her first three years with the Aces, Las Vegas tallied a 77-29 (.726) mark in the regular season, 19-6 (.760) in playoff games and also captured the 2022 Commissioner's Cup crown.

The seeds for Hammon's hiring were originally sewn when the Aces retired her jersey on September 13, 2021. That ceremony served as the culmination of the franchise's 25th anniversary alumni initiative, which saw the Aces embrace their Utah and San Antonio roots, and celebrate the players who helped build the franchise and the league from the ground up. Las Vegas owner Mark Davis spent time with Hammon and her family that week, and walked away understandably impressed.

Hammon played 16 seasons in the WNBA, including her final eight in San Antonio, where she led the franchise to its first finals appearance in 2008.

On August 5, 2014, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich hired Hammon as a full-time assistant making her the first woman in NBA history to hold that Since that time, Hammon continued to accumulate coaching 'firsts' in the NBA. On July 3, 2015, she became the first woman to serve as head coach in the NBA's Summer League where she led the Spurs to the league title.

Less than a year later, Hammon became the first woman to be part of an All-Star coaching staff, and on December 30, 2020, following Popovich's ejection in San Antonio's game against Los Angeles, Hammon took over on the bench, becoming the first woman acting head coach in the history of the NBA.

A member of the league's 15th, 20th and 25th anniversary teams, Hammon went undrafted in 1999 following her All-American career at Colorado State. She signed with New York as a free agent that same year, helping the team to WNBA Finals appearances in three of her first four years and represented New York on the Eastern Conference squad in 2005 and 2006 as well.

Following the 2006 season, New York traded Hammon to San Antonio. In her first year in silver and black, she posted what were then career highs in scoring (18.8 ppg), and assists (5.0) while earning another trip to the WNBA All-Star Game. As a team, the Silver Stars made their first appearance in the postseason since 2002, falling to Phoenix in the Western Conference Finals.

In 2008, Hammon led San Antonio to its first trip to the WNBA Finals where they fell to Detroit. The Silver Stars made the playoffs in each of her seven full seasons with the team, and Hammon once again was named to the All-Star team in 2009 and 2011.

She retired as the franchise leader in assists per game (5.1) and scoring average (15.6), and the WNBA leader in career free throw percentage (89.7).

Hammon, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 2023, was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022, the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 and the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.
