SPARK PLUGS

20 YEARS OF MEMORIES

2016 marks the 20th year since the WNBA's inception, and the league continues to grow in popularity with each new season. While the league started with eight teams in 1997, the WNBA has since grown to include 12 teams in 11 states. Los Angeles is one of three original franchises (NY, Phoenix, LA) remaining from the league's inaugural season. The league has seen eight different franchises earn championships over the 20-year span, with the now defunct Houston Comets leading the way with four consecutive championships from 1997-2000. Los Angeles has two championships of its own, winning back-to-back titles in the 2001 and 2002 seasons.

FULL SEASON OF CANDACE

In 2015, the Sparks started off the regular season with a 3-13 record, causing a playoff berth to seem like an afterthought. However, after resting through the first half of the season following an offseason of overseas basketball, forward Candace Parker returned at the midpoint in the year and led the Sparks to an 11-7 finish to the regular season. Her stellar player resulted in an unlikely playoff appearance for the Sparks, who had been counted out for a majority of the season. Parker averaged a team-high 19.4 points and 10.1 rebounds in 2015, and looks to build on those numbers over the course of a full season this year.

AN ESSENCE OF EAST COAST BASKETBALL

One of the Sparks key offseason acquisitions was guard Essence Carson, who came to Los Angeles after eight years with the New York Liberty. Carson has been a symbol of consistency in the league, averaging 7.7 points per game to go along with veteran leadership and an energetic playing style. Known as a solid mid-range shooter, the 6'0 guard will look to provide a boost on offense in 2016. For a team full of youth and talent, Carson will be looked upon to provide poise and charisma to help the Sparks throughout the year. In 2015, she won the WNBA Community Assist Award presented by State Farm for the month of June, which was her second time receiving the prestigious award.

REUNITED AND IT FEELS SO GOOD

Tonya Edwards joined the Sparks coaching staff this offseason, reuniting with her former head coach Brian Agler. Edwards was drafted by Agler and the Minnesota Lynx in the 1999 WNBA Draft, earning All-Star honors during her rookie campaign. Edwards' skills and knowledge of basketball have contributed greatly to her 18-year coaching career, most recently with Alcorn State University from 2008-2015. This season will mark Edwards' first coaching stint in the WNBA, after spending five years in the league as a player.

FROM A SMALL SCHOOL TO THE BIG CITY

Sparks rookie Whitney Knight became the first Florida Gulf Coast player to ever be chosen in the WNBA Draft with the 15th overall selection in 2016. The Winston-Salem, NC native ranked second in FGCU history with 1574 points in her college career. The 6'3" guard was named Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year in her final two seasons with the Eagles, and was an honorable mention Associated Press All-American in 2016. Her 7.2 rebounds per game led the Eagles in 2015-16, while her 13.2 points per game mark ranked second on the team.

NEW SEASON, NEW TEAM

Chelsea Gray was another key acquisition for the Sparks in 2016, as the second-year guard comes to Los Angeles after an impressive rookie campaign with the Connecticut Sun. In 2015, she averaged 6.9 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.7 assists in 34 games while reaching the double-digit point plateau on nine occasions. The former Duke Blue Devil was chosen 11th overall in the 2014 WNBA Draft after twice earning All-ACC First Team honors before getting injured during her senior year.

FROM THE FINAL FOUR TO THE WNBA

Rarely can WNBA teams bring in two players with championship pedigree and experience in the same draft class, but the Sparks were able to accomplish just that with their selection of Brianna Butler (23rd overall) and Talia Walton (29th overall). Butler, a Syracuse product, helped lead the fourth-seeded Orange to the National Championship game, where they fell to four-time defending National Champion, UConn. Walton, a forward from Washington, led the seventh-seed Huskies to the Final Four, earning All-Final Four honors for her stellar play in Indianapolis. Walton averaged 16.5 points per game for the Huskies in 2015-16, while Butler averaged 13.2 in her final year with the Orange.

CLOSING IN ON 200

Sparks head coach Brian Agler currently sits at sixth in WNBA history with 198 career victories. Agler ranks fourth among coaches with at least 150 wins with his .512 winning percentage spanning over 13 seasons in the league. He began his professional coaching career in the American Basketball League, winning 82 games in three seasons with the Columbus Quest, winning two championships in that time. His combined 280 victories are the most among professional women's basketball head coaches.

LEAVING A LEGACY

Already known as the winningest coach in women's professional basketball, 13-year WNBA head coach Brian Agler is on his way to becoming the first head coach in league history to win the WNBA Championship with two different teams - current New York Liberty head coach and former Detroit Shock head coach, Bill Laimbeer has the same opportunity. In terms of playoff coaching, Agler owns the seventh best playoff winning percentage (min. 10 postseason wins) in WNBA history with a win percentage of .524. He is also one of only three other current coaches in the postseason to have a playoffs winning percentage above .500 (min. 10 postseason wins).

UN-SUNG HERO

Forward Jantel Lavender is the only player on the Sparks roster to have started and played in all 34 games during the 2015 season - the first time in her career to start in every game played. She also led the team with the most 10+ point games (30) and 10+ rebound games (12) and led the team in scoring (14), rebounding (16), blocked shots (14) and minutes played (11) in a game. Considered the team's Iron Woman, Lavender has played 139 consecutive regular season games - second most in franchise history.

OVERSEAS CHAMPION

Sparks guard Alana Beard returns to Los Angeles as a champion, after her Perfumerias Avenida team won the Spanish League championship by winning two of three games against Uni Girona. The championship was Perfumerias Avenida's fourth in team history, and its first since 2012-13. Beard is preparing to begin her 12th year in the WNBA and fourth with the Sparks, after averaging 7.8 points per game to go along with 3.1 rebounds in 2015 for Los Angeles.

Head Coach Brian Agler-2nd Season

On January 5, 2015, Brian Agler joined the Los Angeles Sparks as the 12th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA.

In his first season with LA and 12th in the WNBA, Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance, finishing 4th in the Western Conference standings (14-20). The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history, Agler enters the 2016 season two wins shy of 200 career WNBA (198) regular season wins to go along with his 78 wins in the ABL.

Agler came to the Sparks from Seattle, where he led the Storm to six consecutive playoff appearances (2008-2013) in seven years. He compiled a 136-102 (.571) record during his time in the Pacific Northwest, including his 212th career (WNBA and ABL) victory in 2012. The win on June 1 against the Tulsa Shock moved him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories. Under his direction, UMKC led the NCAA in scoring defense three consecutive seasons from 1990-93. In 1991, UMKC set an NCAA record, allowing 51.8 points per game.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.
