When Los Angeles and Dallas face-off on Sunday, it will be the second of three meetings between the Western Conference foes. The Wings currently have a record of 7-7, sitting in third place in the Western Conference. The Sparks defeated Dallas 97-73 on June 11 behind a record-setting game from Nneka Ogumike. Not only did the veteran forward record 32 points, she did so on 12-of-12 shooting from the field, and a 7-for-7 clip from the free throw line. Her combined performance set a WNBA record for most shots made without a miss, part of an incredible 23-consecutive made attempts streak that spanned over three games.

SPARK PLUGS

STATEMENT VICTORY

After falling at home to the Minnesota Lynx on Tuesday for the team's first loss of 2016, the Los Angeles Sparks exacted some revenge on their Western Conference foes with a commanding 94-76 victory in Minnesota on Friday. The Sparks had entered the week at 11-0, the team's best start to a season in franchise history, before suffering the setback on Tuesday. Minnesota entered Friday's game with a perfect 13-0 mark, a WNBA record to open the season, before falling at the hands of Los Angeles.

NO TIME TO REST

After playing only six of its first 13 games at home, the Sparks are set to return for a six-game homestand from today until July 10th. Los Angeles opens up with four games in the next seven days, the team's first four-game week of the season. The Sparks are currently 5-1 on its home court, while they have yet to lose a game on the road at 7-0 to this point. Los Angeles will not play another home game after July 10th until September 4th due to one five-game road trip along with a four-game road trip to surrounding the WNBA's Olympic break.

SHARP-SHOOTER

Two-time WNBA All-Star Kristi Toliver has had one of her best all-around seasons in 2016, averaging 15.2 points per game, the second-highest scoring output of her career (17.5 in 2012). Toliver has improved her scoring largely due to some stellar shooting from three-point range, where she ranks second in the WNBA with a .494 mark from beyond the arc. Her 38 made three-pointers are only two behind league leader Diana Taurasi, who has 41 more attempts from long-range. Toliver is also the only Sparks player to score in double-figures in each of the team's 13 games, including a season-high 25 points in her last game against the Minnesota Lynx. The veteran guard tied a career-high with 7 made three-pointers in the victory, including 4 in the second half to seal the win. The 5-7 guard also has 44 assists compared to only 13 turnovers, good for a 3.6 assist-to-turnover ratio that ranks 1st in the WNBA.

BIG-TIME BENCH PERFORMERS

While the starting five has played a huge role in Los Angeles beginning the season 12-1, the Sparks were recipients of some brilliant bench play on Friday, getting 22 points from the reserves in the 94-76 victory. Janel Lavender scored 10 points, while Chelsea Gray added 7 and Jelena Dujic scored a career-best 5 points. While the Los Angeles starters struggled to score in the first half, the Sparks bench scored 14 of the team's 38 first half points to maintain a lead heading into halftime. Lavender has continued to be the Sparks most reliable bench scorer, averaging 9.1 points per game off the bench.

GETTING OVER THE HUMP

The Los Angeles Sparks have struggled to win in Minnesota in recent years, having failed to defeat the Lynx on its home court since August of 2014. The Sparks overcame their struggles at the Target Center on Friday, beating the previously unbeaten Lynx 94-76. The Sparks victory was Minnesota's first regular season loss at home since September 2015.

SPARKS 20@20

In celebration of the WNBA's landmark 20th season, the league announced 20 of its greatest and most influential players in history on June 21. Five Sparks players made the list, including one current player, Candace Parker. Lisa Leslie (1997-2006, 2008-09) was named to the list as one of the franchises most recognizable players, having been a part of both of the Sparks WNBA Championship teams. The other three Sparks to earn the distinction were Ticha Penicheiro (2010-11), Tina Thompson (2009-11) and Teresa Weatherspoon (2004). The nominees were selected based on factors such as on-court performance and ability, leadership, sportsmanship and contributions to the team's overall success.

NNEKA'S DOMINANT RUN

Sparks forward Nneka Ogumike has put together one of the best six-game stretches in recent memory. Since 6/7 against the New York Liberty, Ogumike has shot 47-for-63 from the field, good for an incredible 74.6% mark. No player with at least an average of at least eight shot attempts per game has ever shot that well over a six-game stretch, as proof of the veteran's dominance. For the season, Ogumike leads the WNBA with a 68.0% shooting percentage, while sitting at fourth in the league with 8.6 rebounds per game.

FAST BREAK SPECIALISTS

As one of the league's top offensive teams, it can be expected that fastbreak points will factor greatly into that offensive output. The Sparks excel at pushing the ball up the court, averaging 11.4 fastbreak points per game, outscoring opponents in that category in 9 of the team's 13 games. In the four games where they have not outscored opponents in fastbreak points, the Sparks have averaged 83.7 points per game, compared to an 87.1 mark in games where they have an advantage. The Sparks have outscored opponents in nine of the past 10 games in the fastbreak category, showing the team's new-found emphasis on running a fast-paced offense.

THREE-POINT LINE DOMINANCE

Very rarely in sports is there a team that completely dominates one aspect of the game as well as the Sparks control the three-point line. The Sparks are currently shooting 39.5% from beyond the arc, a mark that currently leads the league. Led by sharpshooters Kristi Toliver (.494/2nd) and Candace Parker (.395/9th) who rank in the top-10 of qualified shooters (at least one made three-pointer per game). Overall, 9 of the 12 Sparks players have made a three-pointer on the season. However, Los Angeles is also the league's best team in terms of defending the three-point line, allowing opponents to shoot just 25.6% from deep. The New York Liberty is the only other team to sit in the top-three of the league in both categories.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

Not only are the Sparks one of the top offensive teams in the league, they also lead the WNBA with just 71.8 points per game allowed, which is almost four points better than the nearest competition. One explanation of the dominant defensive effort is their 9.4 steals per game, the second-most in the league. Los Angeles also defends 3-pointers at an extremely strong rate, allowing opponents to knock down just .256% of shots from deep. Minnesota is the only other team to rank in the top-5 in both offensive and defensive scoring.

SUPERWOMAN

LA's three-time All-Star, Nneka Ogumike, had one of the best nights of her career in Dallas (6/11) the other night. The fifth-year forward put together a stat line of 32 points on 12-of-12 shooting from the field, 7-of-7 from the free throw line, 10 rebounds and 3 assists. Her exceptional performance set the following WNBA records:

- Most Field Goal Attempts, all made. The previous mark was 11-of-11 by Seimone Augustus (6/8/07 for MIN at LA) with 28 pts (11-11 FG, 2-2 3-PT, 4-6 FT).
- Second player in WNBA history to make all field goals and free throws and have a double-double.

IRON WOMAN

Consistency and durability are just a few terms that describe Sparks forward Jantel Lavender, who has now played in 151 consecutive regular season games for the Sparks. Lavender is the only player on the Sparks roster to have started and played in all 34 games during the 2015 season. Lavender looks poised to continue that streak throughout the 2016 season, as she leads all reserves with an average of 9.0 points in 17.3 minutes for Los Angeles. She recorded a season-high 22 points on June 7th against the Liberty, knocking down 10-of-14 shots in 22 minutes of action.

ATOP THE LEADERBOARD

Nneka Ogumike currently sits at 9th in points per game with her mark of 17.2, while teammate Candace Parker isn't far behind with 15.7 points per game, 11th in the league. Kristi Toliver also finds herself in the top 15, sitting at 13th in the league with 15.2 points per game. Los Angeles is the only team with three top-15 scorers in the league, showing the Sparks emphasis on offensive balance. Ogumike (68.0%/1st), Jantel Lavender (51.0%/13th) and Alana Beard (49.5%/16th) also rank in the top-20 of the WNBA, shooting some of the highest percentages in the league. In regards to the three-point shot, Toliver (49.4%/2nd) and Parker (39.5%/9th) each sit in the top-10 from behind the arc. Not only are Parker and Toliver scoring at a high level, but the two Sparks' veterans are sharing the ball as well, both ranking in the top-20 of assists with 4.5 and 3.4 assists, respectively. While the Sparks are statistically one of the lowest-rebounding teams in the WNBA, Ogumike currently brings in 8.6 boards per contest, good for fourth in the league.

HEAD COACH BRIAN AGLER (2nd Season)

On January 5, 2015, Brian Agler joined the Los Angeles Sparks as the 12th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA.

In his first season with LA and 12th in the WNBA, Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance, finishing 4th in the Western Conference standings (14-20). The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history, Agler enters the 2016 season two wins shy of 200 career WNBA (198) regular season wins to go along with his 78 wins in the ABL.

Agler came to the Sparks from Seattle, where he led the Storm to six consecutive playoff appearances (2008-2013) in seven years. He compiled a 136-102 (.571) record during his time in the Pacific Northwest, including his 212th career (WNBA and ABL) victory in 2012. The win on June 1 against the Tulsa Shock moved him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

ASSISTANT COACH AMBER STOCKS (2nd Season)

Amber Stocks joined the Los Angeles Sparks coaching staff on April 14, 2015, bringing with her 13 years of coaching experience both in the WNBA and at the collegiate level.

A veteran women's collegiate basketball coach and analyst, Stocks joins Los Angeles for her first coaching stint in the WNBA. Most recently she served the past year as a men's and women's basketball analyst for ESPN3 and Big East Digital Network. Prior to moving to the television side, she was the program director and head coach of the Tucson HEAT Basketball Association in Arizona (2009-2013).

Stocks served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Xavier University from 2002-2009. During her years with Xavier, she helped put together six 20-win seasons and six national postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournaments. Prior to joining Xavier in 2002, Stocks spent two seasons as women's director of basketball operations for the University of Tennessee, working closely with then Lady Vols head coach Pat Summitt on the daily operations of the program. She was part of the staff that helped lead Tennessee to two regular season SEC Championships and advanced to the 2002 Final Four.

Stocks is also a certified strength and conditioning coach, overseeing strength and conditioning at the University of Notre Dame (1999-2000) and serving on the staff for the University of Cincinnati and Xavier (1998 – 1999) during her undergraduate careers.

She attended the University of Cincinnati where she was a four-time Bearcat Scholar honoree, three-time Defensive Player Award recipient and helped lead the Bearcats to a Conference USA Championship. She graduated from UC in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion and education.

ASSISTANT COACH TONYA EDWARDS (1st Season)

Tonya Edwards enters her first season as an assistant coach with the Sparks, bringing 18 years of coaching experience to her first coaching stint in the WNBA.

Edwards is reunited with head coach Brian Agler whom she played for in both the ABL (Columbus Quest) and the WNBA (Minnesota Lynx). Drafted in 1999 by Agler, then head coach of the Lynx, she was named a WNBA All-Star as a rookie, and went on to play five seasons in the league with Minnesota, Phoenix, and Charlotte before finishing her playing career overseas.

Most recently, Edwards served as the head coach of Alcorn State University (2008-15), where she led the Lady Braves to the SWAC Championship game in 2012 and was named 2010-11 SWAC Coach of the Year. Prior to Alcorn State, Edwards served as an assistant coach at the University of Detroit-Mercy (2006-08), the Chicago Blaze (2005) of the National Women's Basketball League and two seasons at Mott Community College (1990-92).

Her coaching career began at her alma mater, Northwestern Community High School, where she earned a 78-23 record in four seasons (1991-94), winning a state title in 1993 while subsequently being named the Michigan High School Coach of the Year.

Edwards attended the University of Tennessee (1986-1990), where she won two national championships with the Lady Vols (1987, 1989) and was named most valuable player in the 1987 NCAA Tournament. She finished her career with 1,309 points and was inducted into the UT Hall of Fame in 2006.
