The Sparks head to Chicago looking to pick up where they left off from last season, when they defeated the Sky by double-digit margins in both regular season contests. This will be the first of three meetings between these cross-country foes in the 2016 season. In their most recent matchup, the Sparks utilized a 21-point game from Candace Parker to earn the 76-64 victory. Los Angeles shot 48.4% from the floor in the game, compared to just 32.4 from the Sky. Elena Delle Donne led Chicago with 23 points on the night.

SPARK PLUGS

HISTORICAL MATCHUP

While every regular season game is important in the WNBA, some matchups carry more weight than others, including Los Angeles' trip to New York. The Sparks and Liberty hold a special place in WNBA history, as the two teams took part in the league's first-ever regular season game. Current Sparks Executive Vice President and General Manager Penny Toler even made the first basket in WNBA history, knocking down a jumper to put the league's first points on the board. Saturday's matchup will be the first of three between these cross-country rivals this season.

NEW MEMBER OF THE 200 CLUB

With Friday's win at Washington, Sparks head coach Brian Agler earned his 200th WNBA career coaching victory. The win ranks Agler fourth among coaches with at least 150 wins with a .513 winning percentage spanning over 13 seasons in the league. He began his professional coaching career in the American Basketball League, winning 82 games in three seasons with the Columbus Quest, winning two championships in that time. His combined 280 victories are the most among professional women's basketball head coaches. With an abundance of talent coupled with several key veteran players on this year's Sparks roster, Agler figures to see that total grow considerably throughout the season.

OLD STOMPING GROUNDS

Both Sparks forward Essence Carson and guard Chelsea Gray will have a bit of a homecoming on this upcoming Sparks road trip, as both players will head to the city where their professional careers began. For Carson, her return to New York will surely be an emotional one after spending eight seasons with the Liberty. While Gray only played one year for the Connecticut Sun, her matchup against the team that drafted her will provide a unique professional experience for the second-year guard.

SEASON-OPENING RECORD

The Los Angeles Sparks got the 2016 season started on an extremely positive note, defeating the Seattle Storm by a score of 96-66. The 30-point margin of victory is the franchise's largest in a season-opening game, as Los Angeles shot a scorching 54.5% from the floor, including 40.0% from three-point range. Los Angeles took advantage of 24 Storm turnovers, turning those miscues into 30 points. After failing to defeat Seattle in four attempts last season, the Sparks were able to overcome their Western Conference foes and protect their home court in the process. After breaking the 90-point barrier only three times in 2015, the Sparks offense easily broke that barrier with a 51-point first half, punctuated by 31 points in the final quarter. The Sparks continued their impressive pace with another 30-point victory over Washington on May 20, the first time in franchise history that the team has opened up the regular season with two victories of that wide of a margin.

NEXT UP: 4000 POINTS

Sparks forward Candace Parker has been one of the WNBA's best players ever since she entered the league in 2008, with two MVP's to her credit as evidence of her dominance. After crossing the 3,500 point plataeu in LA's season-opening victory over Seattle, the next barrier to be broken is the 4,000-point mark. If her 34-point performance in the 2016 opener is any indication, the 478 points she needs to reach the mark is well within reach. She will also have an opportunity to catch teammate Alana Beard on the all-time scoring list, as the 12-year veteran currently sits 25th with 4,120 career points.

ROAD TRIP

After only one home game to begin the 2016 campaign, the Los Angeles Sparks are set to depart on a 10-day road trip that will take them to Washington D.C., New York, Chicago and Connecticut. The four-game stretch is the Sparks' second longest of the season, with Los Angeles due to make a five-game road trip in July, spanning 12 days before the league begins its Olympic Break. Last year, the Sparks went just 5-12 away from home, a mark that will need to be improved upon if the team hopes to return to the postseason.

20 YEARS OF MEMORIES

2016 marks the 20th year since the WNBA's inception, and the league continues to grow in popularity with each new season. While the league started with eight teams in 1997, the WNBA has since grown to include 12 teams in 11 states. Los Angeles is one of three original franchises (NY, Phoenix, LA) remaining from the league's inaugural season. The league has seen eight different franchises earn championships over the 20-year span, with the now defunct Houston Comets leading the way with four consecutive championships from 1997-2000. Los Angeles has two championships of its own, winning back-to-back titles in the 2001 and 2002 seasons.

AN ESSENCE OF EAST COAST BASKETBALL

One of the Sparks key offseason acquisitions was guard Essence Carson, who came to Los Angeles after eight years with the New York Liberty. Carson has been a symbol of consistency in the league, averaging 7.7 points per game to go along with veteran leadership and an energetic playing style. Known as a solid mid-range shooter, the 6'0 guard will look to provide a boost on offense in 2016. For a team full of youth and talent, Carson will be looked upon to provide poise and charisma to help the Sparks throughout the year. In 2015, she won the WNBA Community Assist Award presented by State Farm for the month of June, which was her second time receiving the prestigious award. In the Sparks' season-opening victory, Carson scored nine points and recorded three assists to help carry her team to the win.

SPARK PLUGS

REUNITED AND IT FEELS SO GOOD

Tonya Edwards joined the Sparks coaching staff this offseason, reuniting with her former head coach Brian Agler. Edwards was drafted by Agler and the Minnesota Lynx in the 1999 WNBA Draft, earning All-Star honors during her rookie campaign. Edwards' skills and knowledge of basketball have contributed greatly to her 18-year coaching career, most recently with Alcorn State University from 2008-2015. This season will mark Edwards' first coaching stint in the WNBA, after spending five years in the league as a player.

UN-SUNG HERO

Forward Jantel Lavender was the only player on the Sparks roster to have started and played in all 34 games during the 2015 season - the first time in her career to start in every game played. She also led the team with the most 10+ point games (30) and 10+ rebound games (12) and led the team in scoring (14), rebounding (16), blocked shots (14) and minutes played (11) in a game. Considered the team's Iron Woman, Lavender has played 141 consecutive regular season games - second most in franchise history. After two consecutive appearences in 2016, the streak is poised to continue.

OVERSEAS CHAMPION

Sparks guard Alana Beard returns to Los Angeles as a champion, after her Perfumerias Avenida team won the Spanish League championship by winning two of three games against Uni Girona. The championship was Perfumerias Avenida's fourth in team history, and its first since 2012-13. Beard is preparing to begin her 12th year in the WNBA and fourth with the Sparks, after averaging 7.8 points per game to go along with 3.1 rebounds in 2015 for Los Angeles.

CHAMPIONSHIP MVP RETURNS HOME

Sparks forward Jantel Lavender returned to the United States just in time for the 2016 regular season, fresh off of a Turkish League Championship with Fenerbahce. Lavender earned MVP honors for her performance in the playoffs, which included 21 points in the 68-66 victory over Hatay BSB in the deciding game. The title was Fenerbahce's first since the 2012-13 season, after previously winning eight consecutive championships leading up to that season.

HEAD COACH BRIAN AGLER (2nd Season)

On January 5, 2015, Brian Agler joined the Los Angeles Sparks as the 12th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA.

In his first season with LA and 12th in the WNBA, Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance, finishing 4th in the Western Conference standings (14-20). The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history, Agler enters the 2016 season two wins shy of 200 career WNBA (198) regular season wins to go along with his 78 wins in the ABL.

Agler came to the Sparks from Seattle, where he led the Storm to six consecutive playoff appearances (2008-2013) in seven years. He compiled a 136-102 (.571) record during his time in the Pacific Northwest, including his 212th career (WNBA and ABL) victory in 2012. The win on June 1 against the Tulsa Shock moved him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

ASSISTANT COACH AMBER STOCKS (2nd Season)

Amber Stocks joined the Los Angeles Sparks coaching staff on April 14, 2015, bringing with her 13 years of coaching experience both in the WNBA and at the collegiate level.

A veteran women's collegiate basketball coach and analyst, Stocks joins Los Angeles for her first coaching stint in the WNBA. Most recently she served the past year as a men's and women's basketball analyst for ESPN3 and Big East Digital Network. Prior to moving to the television side, she was the program director and head coach of the Tucson HEAT Basketball Association in Arizona (2009-2013).

Stocks served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Xavier University from 2002-2009. During her years with Xavier, she helped put together six 20-win seasons and six national postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournaments. Prior to joining Xavier in 2002, Stocks spent two seasons as women's director of basketball operations for the University of Tennessee, working closely with then Lady Vols head coach Pat Summitt on the daily operations of the program. She was part of the staff that helped lead Tennessee to two regular season SEC Championships and advanced to the 2002 Final Four.

Stocks is also a certified strength and conditioning coach, overseeing strength and conditioning at the University of Notre Dame (1999-2000) and serving on the staff for the University of Cincinnati and Xavier (1998 – 1999) during her undergraduate careers.

She attended the University of Cincinnati where she was a four-time Bearcat Scholar honoree, three-time Defensive Player Award recipient and helped lead the Bearcats to a Conference USA Championship. She graduated from UC in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion and education.

ASSISTANT COACH TONYA EDWARDS (1st Season)

Tonya Edwards enters her first season as an assistant coach with the Sparks, bringing 18 years of coaching experience to her first coaching stint in the WNBA.

Edwards is reunited with head coach Brian Agler whom she played for in both the ABL (Columbus Quest) and the WNBA (Minnesota Lynx). Drafted in 1999 by Agler, then head coach of the Lynx, she was named a WNBA All-Star as a rookie, and went on to play five seasons in the league with Minnesota, Phoenix, and Charlotte before finishing her playing career overseas

Most recently, Edwards served as the head coach of Alcorn State University (2008-15), where she led the Lady Braves to the SWAC Championship game in 2012 and was named 2010-11 SWAC Coach of the Year. Prior to Alcorn State, Edwards served as an assistant coach at the University of Detroit-Mercy (2006-08), the Chicago Blaze (2005) of the National Women's Basketball League and two seasons at Mott Community College (1990-92).

Her coaching career began at her alma mater, Northwestern Community High School, where she earned a 78-23 record in four seasons (1991-94), winning a state title in 1993 while subsequently being named the Michigan High School Coach of the Year.

Edwards attended the University of Tennessee (1986-1990), where she won two national championships with the Lady Vols (1987, 1989) and was named most valuable player in the 1987 NCAA Tournament. She finished her career with 1,309 points and was inducted into the UT Hall of Fame in 2006.
