MATCHUP NOTES

The Los Angeles Sparks look to extend their 6-game winning streak against the Dallas Wings Sunday at 3 p.m. PT. Last season, the Wings won two of the three matchups against Los Angeles, where Dallas' Arike Ogunbowale led the offense with 35 points in the most recent meeting. The Sparks and the Wings are both coming off of highly contested overtime wins Friday night. Los Angeles beat the Atlanta Dream 93-85 in the first overtime of the 2020 WNBA season and Dallas defeated the Washington Mystics 101-92. Sparks guard Chelsea Gray led the offense with 20 points, dominating in overtime scoring 10 points to put the Sparks ahead of the Dream.

The Los Angeles Sparks improved to 9-3 on the season and the Wings moved to 5-8 in the season.

RIQUNA WILLIAMS BOLSTERS SIXTH WOMAN OF THE YEAR CAMPAIGN

Last week, Riquna Williams led the Sparks in scoring in all three victories, including scoring 21 points and draining seven 3-pointers in the Sparks 90-76 win over the Indiana Fever on Aug. 15. Williams is second in the WNBA in 3-pointers made with 30. She's shooting nearly 50.0% on 5.3 attempts per game.

Riquna's seven 3-pointers made on 8/15 tied her own franchise record set twice (8/31/19 and 6/24/18). Chelsea Gray, Kristi Toliver and Mwadi Mabika have also hit seven 3's in a game in a Sparks uniform. Riquna Williams' personal record is eight 3's in a game as a member of the Tulsa Shock on 9/8/13.

CANDACE PARKER CLIMBING THE DEFENSIVE RANKINGS

After an MVP-like offensive tear to start the season, Parker's defense has been elite as well. Per Basketball reference, Parker is second in the WNBA in defensive win shares and third in the WNBA in defensive ratings. She's also first in the WNBA in rebounds per game at 9.4. For the season she's averaging 13.3 points, 9.4 rebounds and 3.8 assists, 1.3 blocks and 1.4 steals per game while shooting 46.2% from the field.

BENCH CREW

The Sparks bench, led by Riquna Williams, Seimone Augustus and Te'a Cooper was averaging 33.8 points per game on 8/17, the third highest output for a bench in WNBA history, trailing just the 2008 Minnesota Lynx (33.9) and the 2020 Las Vegas Aces (34.2). The bench is now averaging 31.1 points, tied with the 2011 San Antonio bench (31.1) for eighth highest output for a bench in WNBA history. The team is getting solid contributions from Kristine Anigwe, Reshanda Gray and Marie Glich in their first seasons with the Sparks.

SPARKS SET FRANCHISE RECORDS

After setting the franchise record on Aug. 9 for best single game field goal percentage in a regular season game (65.5%), the Sparks followed it up last week by setting the franchise record for 3-point field goal percentage in a regular season game, minimum 15 attempts, on Aug. 11 against the New York Liberty. The team shot 11-for-17 on 3-pointers in the 93-78 win, good for 64.7%.

LEADERSHIP

Head Coach Derek Fisher has improved his regular season record to 31-15 in his two seasons as the LA Sparks head coach. The five-time NBA champion guided the team to the WNBA Semifinals in his first season despite key players including Candace Parker missing a combined 74 games.

President & COO Danita Johnson is in her second season overseeing all business operations. In her first year, the LA Sparks won the 2019 Business Franchise of the Year Award and took the top honors for Marketing Performance and Ticket Sales. Johnson brings 15 years of experience in the WNBA, NBA and NBA G League.

Sparks Win Overtime Thriller Over Dream

The Los Angeles Sparks pulled off a gutsy overtime win against the Atlanta Dream, 93-85, to extend their winning streak to six games. Trailing 79-75 with 1:11 remaining in the game, the Sparks were able to tie the game at 79-79. After Courtney Williams hit a jumper to give the Dream an 81-79 lead with 3.7 seconds remaining, Candace Parker scored on a drive as time expired to force overtime, where Chelsea Gray took over as the Sparks pulled away. Gray finished with 20 points and Parker added 17 points and 9 rebounds.

“When you find yourself in situations where you have to be disciplined in order to get the job done, we’re able to rise to that challenge,” said Head Coach Derek Fisher after the win.

Tonight’s victory was a full-team effort with all five starters scoring in double figures; Chelsea Gray (20), Candace Parker (17), Sydney Wiese (15), Nneka Ogumike (14), and Brittney Sykes (12). As a team, the Sparks shot 45.5% from the field and 44.4% from 3-point range.

The Sparks got off to a slow start going down 8-0 within the first minutes of the game. The start didn’t last long, as the Sparks went on a 13-4 run to take their first lead of the game halfway through the first quarter. Los Angeles ended the first quarter on top 25-17, with Sydney Wiese’s six points leading the Sparks. Atlanta shot 58.3% from the field in the first quarter keeping them in the game despite the Sparks run.

Good ball movement at the start of the second quarter led to a wide-open jumper by Seimone Augustus and gave the Sparks their biggest lead of 10 points. Los Angeles’ bench scored 14 points in the first half as nine Sparks players scored. The Dream kept it a close game, shooting 44.4% from 3-point range throughout the second quarter. A buzzer-beating 3-pointer by Betnijah Laney made it 40-35 Sparks at the half.

After the Sparks opened up an 11-point lead in the third quarter, Atlanta made a comeback late into the third. Glory Johnson made back-to-back shots to bring the Dream to within one with under a minute left. The Sparks were unable to hold the Dream from the lead as a Shekinna Stricklen 3-pointer gave Atlanta a 58-56 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Glory Johnson continued to hurt the Sparks as she’d finish with 23 points off the bench as the teams went back and forth in the fourth quarter, setting up the exciting finish. Nneka Ogumike sank three crucial free throws to tie the game at 79-79 before Williams’ shot gave Atlanta the 81-79 lead. Candace Parker perfectly executed the play Coach Fisher drew up as time expired and sent the game into overtime.

“That’s the type of adversity that we’re going to see when we’re trying to win the championship and when we get to those playoffs, like I said before, we have to handle every single game one at a time and we have to take care of business like we did today,” said Brittney Sykes after the game.

Overtime was the Chelsea Gray show. After Atlanta scored first, Gray hit back-to-back 3-pointers before Parker hit a transition layup to put the Sparks up 89-83. Defensive plays from Brittney Sykes and Candace Parker, who drew a key charge, helped maintain the Sparks lead and the Dream would never recover.

“In overtime, of course, [the team] put together a great series of defensive possessions that they should all be proud of and that’s usually what it takes in order to win and I’m glad we got a chance to have this kind of experience,” said Fisher.

The Atlanta Dream had four players score in double digits, including Glory Johnson’s 23 points, Shekinna Stricklen and Courtney Williams both with 16, and Betnijah Laney with 15. The team shot 48.5% from the field, but had a costly 29 turnovers.

The Los Angeles Sparks improved to 9-3 on the season and are now tied for second in the standings. The team will look to extend their current six-game winning streak on Sunday, Aug. 23 at 3 p.m. PT against the Dallas Wings on Spectrum Sportsnet and Facebook Watch.

Los Angeles Highlights:

- All five starters finished with double-digit scoring, led by Chelsea Gray (20)
- Candace Parker contributed 17 points, 9 rebounds, 5 assists, and 2 blocks.
- Sydney Wiese went 4-for-5 from 3-point range as part of her 15 point performance. She also added six rebounds and a game-high four steals.
- Chelsea Gray dominated in overtime, scoring 10 of the team's 12 points as the Sparks outscored the Dream 12-4.
