2026 Dallas Wings Nike Rebel Edition Uniform

Arlington, TX (May 8, 2025) — The Dallas Wings in partnership with the WNBA and Nike, have unveiled their newest WNBA Nike Rebel Edition Uniform, the team announced today. The Wings' new Rebel Edition uniform represents a bold celebration of Dallas, the evolution of the franchise, and the rich history of women's basketball in the city. Several elements of the uniform serve as symbols and homages to the city of Dallas. The design process began two years ago alongside the organization's announcement that it would move to Dallas full-time, with the goal of creating a uniform deeply rooted in the culture and landmarks of the city.

Most significantly, the uniform honors the legacy of women's professional basketball in Dallas. The script lettering across the jersey draws inspiration from the logo of the historic Dallas Diamonds teams that competed in the late 1970s and 1980s in the WBL and WABA. Additional nods to the Dallas Diamonds appear throughout the uniform, including a diamond detail featured within the "Wings" wordmark on the shorts.

The jersey prominently features "Dallas" across the chest as a reflection of the team's connection to the city and its future downtown presence. The royal blue colorway also serves as a nod to the franchise's early years in North Texas, reviving a fan-favorite color that had not been worn on court since 2017.

Additionally, several design details pay tribute to iconic elements of the Dallas skyline. The shorts feature patterns inspired by the city's signature cable and arch bridges, including the famous Margaret Hunt Hill Bridge. The jersey piping incorporates a crisscross pattern modeled after the illuminated aluminum framework of Dallas's Reunion Tower.

- Paige Getting It Done... In last Thursday's contest against Minnesota, Paige Bueckers eclipsed 750 career points with her 27-point outing. - Eyes on the Wings... The Wings' May 9 season opener at the Indiana Fever aired nationally on ABC and averaged 2.5 million viewers. The game was the second most-watched WNBA regular season game ever across ESPN networks.
- Hot Start from the Field... In their season opener at Indiana, the Wings shot 59.1% (39/66) from the floor in the win, marking just the sixth time in franchise history and first since 2023 the team has shot 59% or better in a regular season contest. The 59.1% field goal percentage is also good for second-best in WNBA history by any team in a season opener.
- Over the Century Mark... May 9th's opening game marked the first season opener in WNBA history where both teams scored 100 points. Additionally, Dallas's 107 points marks a new WNBA record for most points scored in a season opener. Los Angeles, CA (June 5, 2026) - Tonight the Dallas Wings (7-3) defeated the Los Angeles Sparks (4-6), 104-96, on the road at Crypto.com Arena. The win marks the Wings' first regular season road victory over the Sparks since May 26, 2024, and extends the team's win streak to four, the longest streak for Dallas since the 2023 regular season.

All five starters scored in double-digits, led by Arike Ogunbowale who finished with a season-high 30 points, six rebounds and six assists in 34 minutes of action. The outing marks the 24th 30-point performance of her career in regular season action. The eighth-year guard now has 12 games in her career with at least 30 points and five made three-point field goals, which is good for second all-time in WNBA history.

Paige Bueckers recorded her first double-double of the year, notching 18 points and a career-high 14 assists. She also added three rebounds and one steal in 36 minutes of play. Her 14 assists ties Ogunbowale for most assists in a single game in Wings history and the Atlanta Dream's Jordin Canada for most assists by a player in a game this season. She dished out nine of her 14 assists in the first half, the most in a single half in her career, and tied her personal best for assists in a quarter with six in the first frame of action.

Jessica Shepard notched her sixth double-double of the season with 22 points, 15 rebounds, five assists and two steals in 37 minutes of play. Her 22 points tied a season and career best. Shepard now has three career games with at least 20 points, 15 rebounds and five assists which is good for third all-time in WNBA history (tying Tamika Catchings).

Maddy Siegrist finished with 16 points, four rebounds, a career-high four steals and one block in the win. Fernandez was hired as USF's Head Coach on Nov. 14, 2000, and would become the program's all-time winningest coach. Fernandez led the Bulls to 19 or more wins in 14 consecutive seasons and 19 post-season berths, including 10 NCAA Tournament appearances. Over the previous four seasons, he guided USF to two AAC Regular Season Championships and two AAC Tournament Championships.

Highly respected in the industry, the Miami native was a finalist for the 2021 WBCA Division I National Coach of the Year, a two-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year and is the current President of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

Fernandez has also been active in international basketball. He has won two gold medals with USA Basketball's U18 and U19 National Teams, serving as an assistant coach. At USF, Fernandez has recruited and coached players from over 22 different countries.

Prior to his time at South Florida, Fernandez served as a men's basketball assistant coach at Miami-Dade College (1991-92) and Miami Sunset High School (1992-94), before becoming an assistant at Barry University (1994-96). After coaching girls' basketball at Lourdes Academy from 1996-99, Fernandez served as the top assistant for Barry's women's team from 1999-00.
