2026 Dallas Wings Nike Rebel Edition Uniform

Arlington, TX (May 8, 2025) — The Dallas Wings in partnership with the WNBA and Nike, have unveiled their newest WNBA Nike Rebel Edition Uniform, the team announced today. The Wings' new Rebel Edition uniform represents a bold celebration of Dallas, the evolution of the franchise, and the rich history of women's basketball in the city. Several elements of the uniform serve as symbols and homages to the city of Dallas. The design process began two years ago alongside the organization's announcement that it would move to Dallas full-time, with the goal of creating a uniform deeply rooted in the culture and landmarks of the city.

Most significantly, the uniform honors the legacy of women's professional basketball in Dallas. The script lettering across the jersey draws inspiration from the logo of the historic Dallas Diamonds teams that competed in the late 1970s and 1980s in the WBL and WABA. Additional nods to the Dallas Diamonds appear throughout the uniform, including a diamond detail featured within the "Wings" wordmark on the shorts.

The jersey prominently features "Dallas" across the chest as a reflection of the team's connection to the city and its future downtown presence. The royal blue colorway also serves as a nod to the franchise's early years in North Texas, reviving a fan-favorite color that had not been worn on court since 2017.

Additionally, several design details pay tribute to iconic elements of the Dallas skyline. The shorts feature patterns inspired by the city's signature cable and arch bridges, including the famous Margaret Hunt Hill Bridge. The jersey piping incorporates a crisscross pattern modeled after the illuminated aluminum framework of Dallas's Reunion Tower.

Notable Storylines

- Big-time Matchup… The Wings and Fever's August 14 showdown became the most-watched WNBA game in ION history, averaging 1.62 million viewers and reaching a peak audience of 2.2 million. Their first matchup in the May 9 season opener aired nationally on ABC and averaged 2.5 million viewers, becoming the second most-watched WNBA regular season game ever across ESPN networks.
- Milestones for Arike… After surpassing 1,000 career assists Monday night at Golden State, Ogunbowale enters Thursday's game needing just one point to reach 5,000 in her WNBA career. If she does, she would become the third-fastest player in WNBA history to tally 5,000 points and 1,000 assists, doing so in 261 games.
- Breaking Records with Bueckers… Paige Bueckers is four points shy of 700 on the year, looking to join Arike Ogunbowale, Liz Cambage and Satou Sabally as the only players in Wings history to record at least 700 points in a single regular season. The sophomore guard is also just four assists shy of 200 on the season, which would set a new Wings single-season record.
- Awak at the Top… With three blocks Monday night in San Francisco, Awak Kuier notched her fifth game this season with three or more blocks and became the Wings' all-time leader in blocks with 106 and counting. Kuier has registered at least two blocks in 12 games this year, good for fourth among WNBA players with four or fewer years of experience.
- Welcome Back Christyn… The Dallas Wings signed guard Christyn Williams to a Development Player contract on August 14, bringing her back from the Upshot League's Greensboro Groove, where she averaged 9.6 points, 3.0 rebounds and 1.9 assists over 14 games this season. Williams previously signed a hardship contract with Dallas last August and appeared in four games. She also played four seasons at UConn alongside current Wings teammates Paige Bueckers (two seasons) and Azzi Fudd (one season).
- 20-piece Arike… Arike Ogunbowale scored 20 points on August 14 in Indiana, marking her 15th 20-point game of the season. It also marked the 140th 20-point game of her WNBA career, the ninth-most in league history and just two behind DeWanna Bonner for eighth.
- History Made… Paige Bueckers eclipsed 500 field goals made in her WNBA career on August 12 against the Tempo, becoming the fastest player in franchise history and second fastest player in WNBA history to achieve the mark (68 games), trailing only Seimone Augustus (60 games).
- Taking Care of the Ball… The Wings recorded their 10th game this season with fewer than 10 turnovers in the win over Toronto on August 12, good for second across the league for most games with single digit mistakes.
- 20-Win Mark… Dallas earned their 20th win of the 2026 regular season with the 94-88 victory over Toronto on Wednesday, marking just the second time in team history and first since 2023 the team has earned 20+ wins in a regular season.
- 100 Block Club… Wings forward Awak Kuier tallied her 100th career block on August 12 in the victory over the Toronto Tempo. She joins Tearia McCowan as the only two players to hit 100 blocks in a Wings uniform.
- Limiting Fouls… The Wings committed a season-low eight fouls in the game on August 9 in Minnesota. The outing marks the first time since the 2021 season and just the fourth time in Wings history the team has committed eight or fewer fouls.

She has finished in the top seven in blocks in each of the last three WNBA seasons.

Smith has also enjoyed great success outside the WNBA and her National Team commitments. She has made stops overseas in South Korea, Poland, Turkey and China, and also returned to Australia to compete in WNBL and NBL1 competition. The performance made her just the third player in WNBA history to record a points-assists double-double in a single half and the first in Wings history to achieve the feat.

Ogunbowale's résumé is among the most decorated in the WNBA. She is a four-time WNBA All-Star (2021–2024) and a two-time All-Star Game MVP (2021, 2024). Indianapolis, IN (August 14, 2026) - Tonight, the Dallas Wings fell on the road to the Indiana Fever, 98-87, in their second regular-season meeting of the year. The game featured 12 ties and 12 lead changes, with the teams deadlocked at 66-66 with 9:45 remaining in the fourth quarter before Indiana closed the contest by outscoring Dallas, 32-21. Dallas drops to 20-15 on the year, while Indiana improves to 22-12 and ties the 2026 season series, 1-1.

Paige Bueckers led the Wings with 29 points, six rebounds, a team-high six assists and two steals in 36 minutes of action. She scored 17 of her 29 points in the second half and notched her sixth game this season with at least 25 points, five rebounds and five assists, good for second across the WNBA. Bueckers has recorded at least two steals in three straight games, matching the second-longest such streak of her career.

Arike Ogunbowale finished with 20 points, five rebounds and one assist over 29 minutes. She scored 17 of her 20 points in the second half, registering her 15th 20-point game of the season. Odyssey Sims rounded out Dallas' double-digit scorers with 11 points, two rebounds and two assists. She hit a season-high three three-point field goals and finished a team-best +9 in plus-minus rating on the night.

The Wings recorded six blocks on the night, three coming from Awak Kuier who also chipped in eight points, six rebounds and four assists. Kuier's three-block performance moved her into a tie with Teaira McCowan atop the Wings' all-time career blocks list with 103.

Dallas shot .441 overall, .241 from three and .900 from the free-throw line, while Indiana ended the night shooting .527 overall, .375 from three and .846 from the free-throw line. The Fever won the rebounding battle 34-31 and held the advantage in the paint (50-36) and on the fast break (13-7), while the Wings had more second chance points (11-10). Caitlin Clark led Indiana with 29 points, while Kelsey Mitchell and Aliyah Boston contributed 23 points and 16 points respectively.

First Quarter: Dallas 15, Indiana 17
The Wings utilized a starting lineup of Odyssey Sims, Paige Bueckers, Arike Ogunbowale, Awak Kuier and Alanna Smith for the second straight game as Azzi Fudd and Jessica Shepard remained sidelined with injuries. The Wings were also without Aziaha James who did not travel with the team due to a lower left leg injury. Indiana struck first with a two-pointer from Aliyah Boston, but back-to-back baskets from Smith and Bueckers put the Wings up 4-2 early. Dallas led 7-6 heading into the first media break of the contest. Both teams had a cold shooting start with the Wings beginning 2/8 (25%) and the Fever 3/11 (27.3%) from the field. A personal 4-0 run from Bueckers gave the Wings an 11-6 lead, but the Fever closed the quarter on an 11-4 run to go up two, 17-15, heading into the second. Bueckers led all scorers with eight first-quarter points, while Kuier pulled down five rebounds, finishing one short of matching her career-high total for a single quarter.

Second Quarter: Dallas 22, Indiana 18
A quick 4-0 start to the second from Indiana prompted Dallas to take a timeout with 8:12 remaining in the half, trailing 21-15. Sims connected from three out of the timeout, Sophie Cunningham answered with a triple for Indiana, and Kuier responded with another three-pointer to cut the Dallas deficit to 24-21, with 7:11 to play in the second. A 9-6 push from the Wings tied the game 30-30 and forced the Fever into a timeout with 3:04 to go in the quarter.

Sims scored all five points in a Dallas 5-2 run out of that Fever timeout, giving the Wings a 35-32 lead. Three straight points from Caitlin Clark evened the game 35-35 but a jumper from Bueckers gave the Wings the two-point lead at the break, 37-35. Bueckers led Dallas with 12 points, three rebounds and two assists, while Sims notched 11 points, two rebounds and two assists through two quarters of action. Kuier tied her career-high with three blocks in the second quarter, which also tied a Wings record for blocks in a single quarter. Dallas' 21 three-point attempts in the first half also marked a new season-high.

Third Quarter: Dallas 29, Indiana 28
Dallas started the second half on an 8-6 push to take a 45-41 lead with 7:17 to play in the third. Ogunbowale accounted for seven of the Wings' eight points to begin the half. Indiana responded on an 11-3 run to retake the lead, 52-48, and force Dallas into a timeout with 4:42 remaining in the quarter. The Wings answered on a 12-4 run to grab a four-point edge, 60-56, and prompt the Fever into a timeout with two minutes left in the third. Bueckers had five points, while Siegrist nailed a triple on that stretch for Dallas. The two teams traded buckets to close the third, with the Wings holding on to a three-point advantage, 66-63, heading into the fourth. Bueckers tallied 13 points, while Ogunbowale added nine in the third to lead Dallas.

Fourth Quarter: Dallas 21, Indiana 35
A 10-2 start to the fourth from Indiana forced Dallas to burn a timeout with 7:20 to go in the game, trailing 73-68. The Fever's Ty Harris hit two threes on that stretch to begin the closing quarter. Indiana continued their push, taking a ten-point lead, 78-68, before a jumper from Bueckers quieted the crowd with six minutes left in the fourth. An and-one conversion from Ogunbowale got the Wings back within five, 78-73, but four unanswered from the Fever gave them an 82-73 lead with 4:36 to play. Dallas would not get closer than seven in the final minutes of action, with Indiana winning the fourth, 35-21, to secure the 98-87 win.

San Francisco, CA (Aug. 17, 2026) - The Dallas Wings fell at the Golden State Valkyries 78-70 Monday night at Chase Center. The Wings outscored the Valkyries 24-16 in the fourth quarter to narrow a once 20-point deficit down to six, but Dallas couldn't complete the comeback. Paige Bueckers scored a team-high 21 points, including 19 in the second half, while Arike Ogunbowale added 17 points. Dallas moves to 20-16 on the year while Golden State improves to 25-9, clinching a playoff berth with the win.

Bueckers reached the 20-point mark for the 21st time this season – third-most in the WNBA in 2026. With three assists on the night, Ogunbowale reached 1,000 for her career, while her 17 points brought her to 4,999 in her career. Awak Kuier recorded three blocks – her fifth game of the year with three or more blocks – taking over the top spot on the Wings career blocks list with 106 and counting. Alanna Smith scored in double figures for the fifth time in her last six games, tallying 13 points off 6-9 shooting to eclipse 1,500 career points.

Dallas finished the night shooting .448 from the field, .227 from three and .867 from the free-throw line, but was hobbled by 18 turnovers resulting in 20 Golden State points. The Valkyries shot .375 overall, .333 from three including 12 makes, and .857 from the charity stripe, getting 10 offensive rebounds which led to seven second-chance points. The Wings won the rebounding battle overall 33-30 and outscored Golden State in the paint (32-22) and on the fast break (9-5), but the Valkyries bench outscored the Dallas reserves 27-12.

Gabby Williams led the Valkyries with a game-high 23 points, while Williams and Veronica Burton each made a trio of three-pointers. The Valkyries' 78 points were their fewest scored since July 18, while the Wings' 70 was their second-fewest of the season.

First Quarter: Dallas 19, Golden State 20

The Wings utilized a starting lineup of Paige Bueckers, Arike Ogunbowale, Alysha Clark, Jessica Shepard and Alanna Smith for the first time this season. Dallas continued to be without Aziaha James and Azzi Fudd due to injury. It marked the ninth different starting lineup of the year for the Wings.

The Wings started off hot, making four of their first five shots while the Valkyries sputtered to a 1-7 clip with Dallas leading 9-3 early. The Wings saw their lead grow to as many as seven, 15-8, before Golden State closed the quarter on a 12-4 run to lead 20-19 after 10 minutes, punctuated by a buzzer-beater from midcourt. Smith had a game-high nine points after one, matching her season high for points in a single quarter. Dallas shot .563 overall while Golden State posted a .389 clip. The Wings attacked the paint early with 12 of their 19 points coming inside.

Second Quarter: Dallas 9, Golden State 24

Golden State started to find their rhythm offensively in the second while turnovers took a toll on the Wings. Dallas committed five miscues for nine Valkyries points, while Golden State bumped its shooting percentage to .556, making four threes. An 11-2 Valkyries run midway through the frame forced a Wings timeout after they fell into a 33-25 deficit, the largest margin either team had led by up until that point. Ogunbowale knocked down a three to halt the run and get Dallas back within five, 33-28, before Golden State responded with threes on its next three possessions, forcing another Wings timeout, down 42-28 (1:36). The Valkyries would lead by as many as 16 as the Wings were limited to single-digit scoring in a quarter for just the third time this season. Dallas shot just .214 in the second, including 1-5 from deep, to find themselves down 44-28 at the half.

Third Quarter: Dallas 18, Golden State 18

Clark struck first for the Wings as Dallas chipped away at the 16-point deficit, narrowing it down to eight, 52-44, with 4:04 to go. Bueckers heated up in the third after starting 1-7 from the field and 0-2 from deep – going 3-5 overall towards nine points. After Dallas got back within eight, 54-46, Golden State responded by closing the quarter on an 8-0 run to regain its 16-point lead, 62-46. Dallas shot .417 from the field to Golden State's .368 clip, but the Valkyries made a trio of three-pointers to keep the Wings at bay. Turnovers continued to be an issue for Dallas with five miscues resulting in five points for the Valkyries.

Fourth Quarter: Dallas 24, Golden State 16

A 9-0 Wings run narrowed a 20-point deficit down to 11, 66-55, with five minutes to play as Dallas kept Golden State off the scoreboard for nearly five minutes in the middle of the fourth. Bueckers led the charge with 10 points over the final 10 minutes, with Dallas getting as close ae six with 39 seconds to play. Golden State would make its free-throws, going 7-8 over the final 1:12 of the game, to keep Dallas at a safe distance. The Valkyries shot just 3-17 (.176) over the final 10 minutes, but 9-10 from the free-throw line.

Jose Fernandez

Head Coach

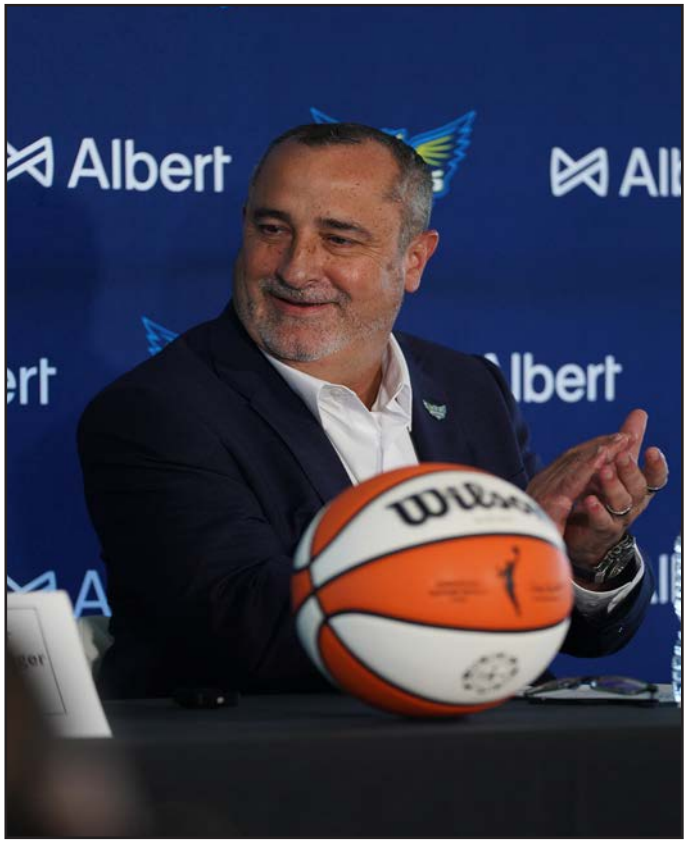
Jose Fernandez enters his first season as the Head Coach of the Dallas Wings.

A veteran leader, Fernandez brings nearly 35 years of coaching experience to Dallas, with the last 25 years spent as head coach of the University of South Florida women's basketball team. Fernandez helped build the Bulls into one of the most consistently successful programs in the nation.

A proven winner and established leader in player development, Fernandez earned nearly 500 career wins at USF while guiding more than 100 players into professional basketball careers worldwide. Under Fernandez, South Florida has had seven WNBA Draft selections, including current active players Courtney Williams of the Minnesota Lynx and Kitja Laksa of the Phoenix Mercury. In total, nearly 30 of Fernandez's former players are actively playing professionally in 2025-26.

Fenandez was hired as USF's Head Coach on Nov. 14, 2000, and would become the program's all-time winningest coach. Fernandez led the Bulls to 19 or more wins in 14 consecutive seasons and 19 post-season berths, including 10 NCAA Tournament appearances. Over the previous four seasons, he guided USF to two AAC Regular Season Championships and two AAC Tournament Championships.

Fernandez has recruited and coached 58 all-conference players, two Associated Press Honorable Mention All-Americans, three members of the USF Athletics Hall of Fame, two conference Players of the Year, one AAC Defensive Player of the Year, five conference Freshmen of the Year, two AAC Newcomers of the Year, two AAC Sixth Players of the Year, and four conference Most Improved Players.



Highly respected in the industry, the Miami native was a finalist for the 2021 WBCA Division I National Coach of the Year, a two-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year and is the current President of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

Fernandez has also been active in international basketball. He has won two gold medals with USA Basketball's U18 and U19 National Teams, serving as an assistant coach. At USF, Fernandez has recruited and coached players from over 22 different countries.

Prior to his time at South Florida, Fernandez served as a men's basketball assistant coach at Miami-Dade College (1991-92) and Miami Sunset High School (1992-94), before becoming an assistant at Barry University (1994-96). After coaching girls' basketball at Lourdes Academy from 1996-99, Fernandez served as the top assistant for Barry's women's team from 1999-00.

Jose and his wife Tonya are proud parents to five daughters, Sydnie, Alex, Taylor, Brianna, and Brooke, and have eight rescue dogs.
