AP -- Veronica Burton hit six 3-pointers and scored 30 points — both career highs — Cecilia Zandalasini also made six 3s and finished with 20 points, and the Golden State Valkyries beat the Washington Mystics 88-83 on Wednesday night for their third straight win. The expansion Valkyries set franchise records for 3-pointers (15) and 3-point percentage (46.7%). Burton, who made 10 of 13 from the field, finished with seven rebounds and seven assists. Tiffany Hayes scored 14 points and Janelle Salaün added 11 for Golden State (17-15), which has won all three meetings with Washington. Sonia Citron scored 13 points for the Mystics during a 29-9 fourth-quarter run that trimmed their deficit to 86-83. Citron converted a three-point play and hit a 3-pointer before she found Sug Sutton for a 3 that capped the spurt with 53.8 seconds to play. Hayes made two free throws with 15.4 seconds left. Sutton had 15 points and seven assists and Citron also finished with 15 points. Kiki Iriafen added 14 points and 10 rebounds — the rookie's 10th double-double this season. Emily Engstler hit three 3s and scored 13 points on 5-of-5 shooting, and Jade Melbourne scored 10 points. Washington (14-18), which beat Dallas 91-78 behind a career-high 23 points by Iriafen on Sunday, has lost five of six. Zandalasini hit a 3-pointer just over a minute into the game that made it 5-2 and the Valkyries led the rest of the way. Golden State made 9 of 11 from the field in the first quarter to take a 30-12 lead.

Team:

- The Mystics are set to play 44 regular season games for the first time in league history. The 44-game season is an increase from the WNBA's 40-game season the past two years.
- Washington will appear on national TV (ESPN3, CBSSN, ION, NBA TV) 17 times this season.
- Washington has 10 afternoon games this season, with seven of the 10 games having a 3:00 p.m. tip-time.
- The Mystics will play four games away from CareFirst Arena this season. Washington's annual Camp Day game will be played on Tuesday, July 8 at Eagle Bank Arena in Fairfax, VA. The Mystics will also play two games at CRF Bank Arena in Baltimore, MD.
- Washington's opening night roster has four rookies, the most since 2011 (four rookies).
- Washington holds four international players on their opening night roster (Australia, Mali/Spain, Canada), the second consecutive season the Mystics have held four or more players on their opening night roster.
 - This marks the fourth consecutive year (2022-25) Washington's opening night roster has held an international player.
- The Mystics' opening night roster had an average age of 24-348 which ranked as the youngest in the WNBA. This marked the youngest roster Washington has had on opening night since 2016 (24-183).
- All but two of Washington's players have three or fewer years of experience. Veterans Stefanie Dolson (11 seasons) and Alysha Clark (12 seasons) are the only players on the roster with four-plus years of service.
- The Mystics aim to average 20+ assists per game for the fourth time in franchise history, having previously accomplished the feat in 2024, 2022, and 2019. Washington averaged 21.6 assists per game in 2023.
- The Mystics averaged 7.3 steals per game in 2024 and will look to record seven or more steals per game for the 20th time in franchise history — and for the fifth time since 2020.
- Washington is targeting a top-five finish in pace for the first time since the 2013 season, when they ranked fourth (93.29; 4th).
- The Mystics are looking to average 20.0 free throw attempts per game, the first time since the 2017 season (21.4).

Individual:

- Veteran center Stefanie Dolson looks to build on her three-point success from last season. Dolson shot 46.5% from beyond the arc in 2024, the third-highest percentage in the league, and the second consecutive season she has shot at least 40.0% from three-point territory.
 - Her 72 three-point makes in 2024 were the most by any center.
 - Dolson totaled at least 300 points, 150 rebounds, 100 assists, and 50 three-pointers last season, joining T. Catchings (2012) and J. Loyd (2024) as the only players to amass those benchmarks in the 10th or later season of their career.
 - At the age of 33, Dolson would become the oldest player in WNBA history to record those totals in a single season.
- Center Shakira Austin is coming off a career-best season, posting career highs in points (11.8), steals (1.3), and both free throw attempts (4.5) and makes (3.0).
 - In 2025, she aims to average at least 12.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, which would make her the seventh Mystic in franchise history to reach those averages.
- Rookie Watch:
 - The Mystics aim to have a rookie average at least 8.0 points per game during the 2025 season. If accomplished, it would mark the 13th rookie in franchise history to do so, and the first since Shakira Austin (2022).
 - Only six rookies in Mystics history have averaged 10.0+ points per game, with the last coming in 2018 (A. Atkins).
- Washington is also targeting a rookie average 3.0 assists per game – which would be just the seventh time in team history that a rookie reached that assist mark (last: Natasha Cloud, 2015).
- For the second consecutive season, the Mystics look to have a rookie average 5.0 rebounds per game.
 - Since 2020, Washington has had two rookies achieve this feat. The Mystics would join Chicago and Indiana as the only teams since 2020 to have at least three rookies average 5.0 rebounds in their debut seasons.

THE STAGE IS HER COURT

- On 7/29 vs. CHI, Citron scored a career-high 28 points (10-15 FG).
- Citron has recorded seven 20+ point games this season, with three coming in the first half of the season, the third most 20+ point games by a rookie in a first half of a season in franchise history. All three of her 20+ point games came in the month of June, the first rookie since Alana Beard (September, 2004) to total three or more 20+ point games in a single month (Beard; 6).
- Her seven 20+ point games are the second most by a rookie this season, and has totaled 25+ points in three game, the second most by a rookie this season.
- She has also recorded three double-doubles on the season, becoming just the second rookie in Mystics history with multiple 20+ point, 10+ rebound games in a season.

NEW ACQUISITIONS

- On Aug. 5, 2025, the Mystics acquired the Seattle Storm's first-round pick in the 2026 WNBA Draft along with forward Alysha Clark and guard Zia Cooke in exchange for guard Brittney Sykes. In order to complete the trade, the Mystics waived forward Sika Koné...In a subsequent move, Washington waived guard Zia Cooke.
- Clark returns to Washington after signing with the Mystics in 2021 (she did not make her debut till 2022 due to a foot injury).
- On Aug. 7, 2025, Washington acquired guard Jacy Sheldon and a 2026 first-round pick swap (Minnesota's own with New York's own) in exchange for forward Aaliyah Edwards.
- Sheldon appeared in 28 games (17 starts) for the Sun this season, averaging 7.5 points (47.0 FG%, 41.2 3PT%), 2.0 assists, 1.9 rebounds, and 1.0 steals in 24.1 minutes per game.
- Sheldon made her Mystics debut on 8/10 at Dallas, scoring eight points grabbing two rebounds. She also went 4-5 from the free-throw line.

SONIA'S SHOOTING

- Sonia Citron is shooting 47.2% from the field and 43.0% from three-point range and holds a true shooting percentage of 60.9%, the best among rookies and the 18th best in the WNBA.
- Citron looks to become the first rookie in WNBA history to total at least 500 points, 150 rebounds, 50 3PM, with a 60.0% true shooting percentage.
- Her 60.9 TS% ranks as the sixth best TS% in franchise history [min. 750 mp].
- Citron is on pace to finish the season shooting 40.0% or better from three-point territory, becoming only the second Mystic to shoot 40.0% or better in a season [min. 125 3PA].
- She would also become the sixth rookie in WNBA history to shoot 40.0% or better [min. 125 3PA].
- She is currently two three-pointers shy of holding the rookie franchise record for three-pointers in a season (Julie Vanloo; 72).
