

CHICAGO SKY (10-6) vs. SEATTLE STORM (13-3)

BRADENTON, FLA. | HOME OF 2020 WNBA SEASON | AUGUST 29, 2020

						FINAL
	SEA	20	29	26	13	88
	CHI	16	18	21	19	74

TEAM

HIGH POINTS

HIGH ASSISTS

HIGH REBOUNDS

CHICAGO

Copper (19)

Vandersloot (9)

Copper, Hebard (6)

SEATTLE

Stewart (21)

Canada (9)

Howard (15)

KEY RUNS

- Seattle went on a 10-0 run with just under three minutes to play in the first quarter, pushing its lead to ten (18-8).
- Chicago answered with an 8-0 run to cut Seattle's lead to just two points with under a minute to play in the opening frame.
- The Storm went on a 11-4 run to close the half, which brought its lead to 15 (largest at the time).
- Seattle continued its push to begin the second half, opening the first minute and a half of the third on a 9-2 run (58-36).
- Sky fought back in the middle of the third quarter, going on an 8-2 run that trimmed Seattle's lead to 16.

KEY STATS

- Seattle scored 14 points off Chicago's nine turnovers in the first half. Conversely, the Sky produced just four points off the Storm's eight turnovers.
- The Storm outscored the Sky 28-14 in the paint during the first half.
- Both teams shot exceptionally well from the free throw line- Seattle shot 24-28 (85.7%) and Chicago went 12-14 (also 85.7%) from the charity stripe.
- Seattle had six players score in double figures, including four of its starting five reaching at least 11 points.

CHICAGO NOTES

- The Sky missed its first eight shots from the 3-point line, finishing the game shooting 4-21 (19.0%).
- Chicago went scoreless for over two minutes late in the second quarter (3:57-1:38).
- Allie Quigley, Courtney Vandersloot and Kahleah Copper scored 22 of the Sky's 34 points in the first half, shooting a combined 9-19 (47.8%) while the rest of the team scored just 12 points on 5-15 (33.3%) shooting.
- No player on the Sky had a positive plus-minus in the first half.
- Copper surpassed her season-high for most points in a season (235) with her 19 points today. She pushed her double-digit points streak to 13 games as well.
- Quigley registered a double figure scoring total for the 15th time in 16 games this season off her 11-point performance, including her fourth straight.
- Ruthy Hebard shot at least 60% from the floor for the ninth straight game, scoring 11 points (tied for her career-high) for the third time this season.
- In its two games against Seattle this season, Chicago has averaged just 72.5 PPG. By contrast, its seasonal figure is 87.9 PPG.

SEATTLE NOTES

- The Storm began the game making seven of its first 12 shots, with 11 of its 15 points coming from Natasha Howard (six) and Jewell Loyd (five).
- Breanna Stewart was the only player to reach a double-digit scoring total in the first half with 13 points on 4-8 shooting (50%).
- Seattle led for the entire game, with its largest lead peaking at 24.
- The Storm has swept the Sky in the regular season in two of the last three years (2018 & 2020).