NEWS, NOTES, TALKING POINTS

LAST GAME: The Sky lost its sixth of its last seven games on Wednesday to the Atlanta Dream, including its fourth straight. It is the longest losing streak of the season for Chicago. It had a four-game losing streak once in 2019, which was its longest. COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT led the Sky in scoring, dropping 22 points while dishing out in 11 assists. KAHLEAH COPPER and ALLIE QUIGLEY also each scored 17 points. The only other player for Chicago to reach a double-digit scoring total was GABBY WILLIAMS (12).

POSTSEASON BUBBLE BASKETBALL: Chicago clinched the postseason for the second straight year on September 1 after the Indiana Fever lost to the Atlanta Dream. It needs to win its final game of the regular season tonight to reach a winning season, which would be the fifth in franchise history. The Sky has not had back-to-back winning seasons since 2015 and 2016, going 21-13 and 18-16 respectively.

A CHANCE TO STAND ALONE (AGAIN): COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT was named the WNBA's Eastern Conference Player of the Month for August, the first time she has earned the honor. She averaged 13.6 PPG and 9.5 APG in the Sky's 14 games. During the game against Indiana on August 31, she broke Ticha Penicheiro's record for most assists in a game (18, previously set at 16). She continued her strong stretch of play on Wednesday by posting her 56th career game with a double-figure assist total, and her 37th career double-double. It was her first 20-point, 10-assist game this season and the eighth of her career. Vandersloot has gone 10 straight games with at least nine assists. She announced on August 12 that she will be donating $10 for each assist she records this season to DonorsChoose, an organization that helps cover the cost of classroom supplies for teachers across the country. She has contributed $2,070 through 21 games this season, and with the overwhelming support from her fans she has easily surpassed her $5,000 goal with still a game to play. Vandersloot leads the WNBA with 9.9 APG, over four more than Jordin Canada who ranks second (5.7). She needs 13 assists against the Wings to finish the season averaging 10 APG, which would make her the first player in WNBA history to do so.

OFFENSE CLOSE TO MAKING HISTORY: Chicago ranks first in field goal percentage (48.8%) and second assists per game (21.7). If the Sky's field goal percentage keeps its pace, it will break the all-time record for highest ever in a season (Los Angeles Sparks 2016, 48.7%). Sky is fourth in blocks per game (4.0), points (86.3) and 3-pointers made (161).

TURNOVERS DICTATING GAMES: The Sky only committed four turnovers in the first half on Wednesday against the Dream, giving itself a 10-point lead through the first two frames. However, Chicago gave the ball away seven times in the second half, causing Atlanta to score 13 points off those takeaways and come back from an 18-point deficit. Chicago ranks 10th in both TPG (15.8) and opponent points of turnovers (18.1).

MOST IMPROVED CANDIDATE: KAHLEAH COPPER is averaging 15.0 PPG, and is shooting a career-best 49.8% from the floor. She played over 30 minutes for the eighth straight occasion on Wednesday (33). Her 17-point performance against the Dream marked the 19th time this season where she reached a double-digit scoring total. In addition, her seven rebounds against Atlanta was the fourth time in her last five games where Copper pulled in seven or more boards.

CHICAGO'S ALL-TIME HOUSEHOLD: ALLIE QUIGLEY became the Sky's all-time leading scorer during the game against Minnesota on September 2, surpassing Sylvia Fowles (2,927 points). Her wife COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT passed Fowles for No. 2 all-time during Wednesday's game against Atlanta. Quigley has reached a double-digit scoring total in 20 of 21 games this season, including nine straight. She has attempted 52 shots over her last two games, shooting at a 28.9% clip. Quigley is shooting a career-best 91.9% from the free throw line (minimum 10 attempts). She made 26 consecutive free throws before missing one against Los Angeles on Sunday.

HEBARD'S ELITE SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Ruthy Hebard currently ranks first in the WNBA in field goal percentage (minimum 10 attempts), with a 67.1% clip from the floor during her first 21 career games. She has shot better than 50% in 14 consecutive outings. Her double-double on August 31 was the first to be done by a Sky rookie since Diamond DeShields scored 23 points and brought in 11 rebounds against the Atlanta Dream on June 27, 2018. Hebard is the ninth rookie in Sky franchise history to record a double-double.

#51 SYDNEY COLSON GUARD TEXAS A & M

MORE TO COME: Colson has donated $280 (28 points) to #SkyTakesAction this season. She tied for her season-high in minutes (16) during the loss to Seattle on August 29, also posting a season-high in points (6). Colson has played just a combined 20 minutes over the last five games.

BASKETBALL COMES SECOND: Colson is a member of the WNBA Social Justice Council, where she and other players will help serve as representatives for helping create meaningful conversations about race, LGBTQ support, gun control, voting rights and other relevant social issues in the United States.

COLSON ON THE SOCIAL JUSTICE COUNCIL: "I think that people will enjoy and learn from a lot of the things that we'll present to everyone. It's an awesome opportunity and I hope that people will help us amplify our message and people feel like they are gaining something from it and then that they take action and change things in their lives and in the lives of their family and friends."

Y'ALL THOUGHT THAT SHE WAS FINISHED: Copper has donated $3,140 (314 points) to the #SkyTakesAction initiative this season. Wednesday's game marked the 19th time this season she reached a double-digit scoring total (17), while playing at least seven rebounds for the fourth time in her last five games.

Copper is 15th in the WNBA in PPG (15.0), ahead of names such as Angel McCoughtry and Candace Parker.

Copper at the end of her postgame media availability on August 8:

#1 DIAMOND DESHIELDS GUARD TENNESSEE

BUBBLE BURST: DeShields has left the WNBA bubble, but contributed just under $900 through her scoring this season to #SkyTakesAction. The third-year guard joins teammate Gabby Williams as serving as the face and leader of the Sky's #SkyTakesAction campaign for this season. She and Williams worked alongside former Chicago Bears linebacker Sam Acho to develop the campaign in partnership with Athletes for Justice.

DeShields on how #SkyTakesAction has motivated her:

"It's everything. It's literally the reason why I put my jersey, it's the reason why I came out here. There was no way I was going to come out here and just dismiss myself from what's going on in the world right now. So, to have partnered up with Athletes For Justice and my teammates and everybody else, our sponsors to be on board with this, it's all the motivation that any of us needs on game days."

#24 RUTHY HEBARD FORWARD OREGON

SHE'S MADE THE TRANSITION:

Hebard shot at least 50% for the 14th straight time on Wednesday. She scored eight points on 4-6 shooting while pulling in five rebounds. During the game against Indiana on August 31, she recorded her first career double-double (12 points, 11 rebounds). She was the ninth rookie in Sky franchise history to record a double-double, and the first since Diamond DeShields did so on June 27, 2018 (23 points, 11 rebounds). During this stretch of 14 games, she is shooting 70.7% (41-58) from the floor, averaging just under seven points per game.

In addition, the rookie has contributed $1,030 (103 points) to #SkyTakesAction this season. She also ranks first in the WNBA in FG% (67.1%, minimum 10 attempts).

#23 STEPHANIE MAVUNGA FORWARD OHIO STATE

EASING INTO IT: Mavunga was acquired by the Sky on August 28 in exchange for Jantel Lavender as well as a second and third round pick in the 2021 WNBA Draft. She played eight minutes on Wednesday against Atlanta, scoring two points and bringing in three rebounds.

Mavunga has experience playing with Chicago Sky forward Gabby Williams, who both played for Head Coach & GM James Wade's wife Edwige-Lawson Wade's Basket Lattes Montpellier Agglomeration in Montpellier, France.

#3 ALEXIS PRINCE FORWARD BAYLOR

A PROMISING DEBUT:

Prince joins the Sky for its final stretch of games in the regular season as a player who has gained valuable experience in the postseason. While with the Phoenix Mercury in 2017, she made two appearances in the team's run to the semifinals round against the Los Angeles Sparks. Prince played just under eight minutes during Wednesday's game against Atlanta, scoring three points.

#32 CHEYENNE PARKER FORWARD MIDDLE TENNESSEE

ANSWERING THE CALL:

Parker has contributed $2,450 (245 points) to the #SkyTakesAction campaign this season. She leads the team in rebounds (121) and is shooting a career-best 85.9% from the free throw line. Wednesday's game was just the second time this season she didn't play at least 20 minutes this season.

Parker on the shirt she was wearing during her postgame media availability on August 8:

"It says arrest the cops who killed Breonna Taylor."

#14 ALLIE QUIGLEY GUARD DEPAUL

NINE TIMES: Quigley cemented herself once again in the Sky record books as she surpassed Sylvia Fowles for No. 1 all-time on the franchise scoring list on September 2 against the Minnesota Lynx. In addition, she reached 3,000 career points in the fourth quarter. Her 17 points against the Dream on Wednesday gave her 20 games this season with a double-digit scoring total, including nine straight. She is also shooting 91.9% (34-37) from the free throw line this season, a career-best (minimum 10 attempts). Quigley made 26 free throws in a row before missing in the first quarter against LA on Sunday. It was her first miss from the charity stripe since August 8 against Connecticut, the only other game this season where she missed a free throw.

The 12-year veteran has donated $3,340 (334 points) to the #SkyTakesAction initiative. In addition, Quigley announced on August 12 that she will be donating $20 for every 3-point field goal she makes this season to the Joilet, Illinois Salvation Army. She has contributed $920 through 21 games this season, which has helped raise funding for a food pantry, Christmas/holiday presents, interview clothing for clients seeking new employment, one month of transportation for a client, a month of intensive casework for two clients and setting up utilities, purchasing food and furniture for clients as they begin a new life.

#30 AZURÁ STEVENS FORWARD-CENTER CONNECTICUT

On #SkyTakesAction-Stevens donated $1,500(150 points) this season before suffering a season-ending injury.

"When they did the 26 seconds for Breonna Taylor before the game I took a minute just to talk to myself like, I'm going to go out here and just play as hard as I can for that. It's just crazy still that honestly like that happened and these cops haven't been arrested and people are just walking around like that's OK. And so I'm praying and hoping that they finally get the justice that they deserve. But yeah, I mean I think it motivates especially our team a little bit more because we're dedicating a season just to raise awareness and to make actual change. I don't know, like we've been talking about this for a long time before we even came here. Personal experiences we've all had just with racism and social injustice. And so, I mean it motivates me definitely a little bit extra because like that could have been my dad. George Floyd could've been my dad. Breonna Taylor could have been my sister. It could have been me. It could have been some of my teammates, like it's just this is real life right now, and it's a lot to take in but I mean I'm proud of our team for the awareness that we're raising and the stuff that we're doing."

#22 COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT GUARD GONZAGA

JUST WHEN YOU THOUGHT YOU'VE SEEN IT ALL:

During Wednesday's game against Atlanta, Vandersloot posted her 56th outing with a double-figure assists total. Over the course of her last four outings, Vandersloot has averaged nearly 15 PPG and just under 14 APG. Wednesday's game marked the 10th straight outing where she recorded at least nine assists. Vandersloot leads the WNBA in APG (9.9). She needs 13 assists against Dallas to finish the season averaging 10 assists per game.

Vandersloot has contributed $2,850 (285 points) to the #SkyTakesAction campaign throughout the course of 21 games this season. In addition, she announced on August 12 that for each assist she records this season, Vandersloot will donate $10 to DonorsChoose, an organization that helps provide classroom supplies for teachers. She has donated over $2,000 through her total assists. Fans have contributed $4,196 through her fundraising page, and with her total assists the combined total is $6,266 which smashes her $5,000 goal. In addition, she is auctioning off a pair of game-worn sneakers in collaboration with DonorsChoose. The auction ended Sept. 10, with the buy now price sitting at $1,500.

#15 GABBY WILLIAMS GUARD CONNECTICUT

A HUGE ROLE OFF THE BENCH:

Williams has contributed $1,640 (164 points) this season to the #SkyTakesAction campaign. She and guard Diamond DeShields were at the forefront of creating the program. She was the leading scorer off the Sky's bench during the game against Atlanta on Wednesday (12 points). Williams auctioned off a pair of game-worn sneakers as part of the work she is doing with the Chicago Community Bond Fund this season, which sold for $1,000. She will be matching that price as well.

"It's traumatizing. It's exhausting. To see people who look like you, people who do the same things as you, be murdered in cold blood, and then people turn their back and tell you that your life just doesn't matter. Or they try to distract you and say, all lives matter, or whatever it is. The fact that we have to fight to exist is exhausting And we're just exhausted. And we're sick and tired of it."
