NEWS, NOTES, TALKING POINTS

LAST GAME: The Sky lost its fifth of its last sixth games on Sunday to the Los Angeles Sparks, including its third straight. It is the longest losing streak of the season for Chicago. It had a four-game losing streak once in 2019, which was its longest. Cheyenne Parker led the Sky in scoring on Sunday, dropping a career-high 24 points while pulling in 10 rebounds. It was her second double-double in her last three games. She is averaging just over 22 points, 10 rebounds and shooting 70.3% over the course of her last three outings. Chicago had just three players reach a double-digit scoring total (Parker (24), Quigley (22), Copper (14)), with Gabby Williams being the only player off the bench to score (nine points).

POSTSEASON BUBBLE BASKETBALL: Chicago clinched the postseason for the second straight year on September 1 after the Indiana Fever lost to the Atlanta Dream. It needs just one more victory in its next two games to reach a winning season, which would be the fifth in franchise history. The Sky has not had back-to-back winning seasons since 2015 and 2016, going 21-13 and 18-16 respectively.

APPRECIATE IT WHILE IT LASTS: Courtney Vandersloot was named the WNBA's Eastern Conference Player of the Month for August, the first time she has earned the honor. She averaged 13.6 PPG and 9.5 APG in the Sky's 14 games. During the game against Indiana on August 31, she broke Ticha Penicheiro's record for most assists in a game (18, previously set at 16). She continued her strong stretch of play on Sunday by posting her 55th career game with a double-figure assist total, which marked the third time this season she posted at least 15 assists. Vandersloot has gone nine straight games with at least nine assists. She announced on August 12 that she will be donating $10 for each assist she records this season to DonorsChoose, an organization that helps cover the cost of classroom supplies for teachers across the country. She has contributed $1,960 through 20 games this season, and with the overwhelming support from her fans she has surpassed her $5,000 goal with still two games to play. Vandersloot leads the WNBA with 9.8 APG, nearly four more than Jordin Canada and Jullie Allemand who are tied for second (5.6).

OFFENSE CLOSE TO MAKING HISTORY: Chicago ranks first in field goal percentage (48.9%) and assists per game (21.7). If the Sky's field goal percentage keeps its pace, it will break the all-time record for highest ever in a season (Los Angeles Sparks 2016, 48.7%). It is fourth in blocks per game (4.0) and points (86.2). Chicago is also fifth in both major metrics from beyond the 3-point line (153 made and 34.7%).

TURNOVERS DICTATING GAMES: The Sky only committed five turnovers in the first half on Sunday against the Sparks, giving itself a one-point lead through the first two frames. However, Chicago gave the ball away 10 times in the second half, causing LA to score 12 points off those takeaways and win the game by six. Chicago ranks 10th in both TPG (16.0) and opponent points of turnovers (18.1).

MOST IMPROVED CANDIDATE: Kahleah Copper is averaging 14.9 PPG, and is shooting a career-best 49.8% from the floor. She played over 30 minutes for the seventh straight occasion on Sunday (37), a career-high. Her 14-point performance against the Sparks marked the 18th time this season where she reached a double-digit scoring total.

NO. 14 BECOMES NO. 1: Allie Quigley became the Sky's all-time leading scorer during the game against Minnesota on September 2, surpassing Sylvia Fowles (2,927 points). In addition, the 12-year veteran reached 3,000 career points during the fourth quarter, part of her team-high 23-point game. She has reached a double-digit scoring total in 19 of 20 games this season, including eight straight. In addition, Quigley has scored 20+ points in two of her last three games and five times this season. She is shooting a career-best 91.4% from the free throw line (minimum 10 attempts). Quigley made 26 consecutive free throws before missing one against Los Angeles on Sunday.

HEBARD'S ELITE SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Ruthy Hebard currently ranks first in the WNBA in field goal percentage (minimum 10 attempts), with a 67.2% clip from the floor during her first 20 career games. She has shot better than 50% in 13 consecutive outings. Her double-double on August 31 was the first to be done by a Sky rookie since Diamond DeShields scored 23 points and brought in 11 rebounds against the Atlanta Dream on June 27, 2018. Hebard is the ninth rookie in Sky franchise history to record a double-double.

#51 SYDNEY COLSON GUARD TEXAS A & M

MORE TO COME: Colson has donated $280 (28 points) to #SkyTakesAction this season. She tied for her season-high in minutes (16) during the loss to Seattle on August 29, also posting a season-high in points (6). Colson has played just a combined 19 minutes over the last four games.

BASKETBALL COMES SECOND: Colson is a member of the WNBA Social Justice Council, where she and other players will help serve as representatives for helping create meaningful conversations about race, LGBTQ support, gun control, voting rights and other relevant social issues in the United States.

COLSON ON THE SOCIAL JUSTICE COUNCIL: "I think that people will enjoy and learn from a lot of the things that we'll present to everyone. It's an awesome opportunity and I hope that people will help us amplify our message and people feel like they are gaining something from it and then that they take action and change things in their lives and in the lives of their family and friends."

#1 DIAMOND DESHIELDS GUARD TENNESSEE

BUBBLE BURST: DeShields has left the WNBA bubble, but contributed just under $900 through her scoring this season to #SkyTakesAction. The third-year guard joins teammate Gabby Williams as serving as the face and leader of the Sky's #SkyTakesAction campaign for this season. She and Williams worked alongside former Chicago Bears linebacker Sam Acho to develop the campaign in partnership with Athletes for Justice.

DeShields on how #SkyTakesAction has motivated her:

"It's everything. It's literally the reason why I put my jersey, it's the reason why I came out here. There was no way I was going to come out here and just dismiss myself from what's going on in the world right now. So, to have partnered up with Athletes For Justice and my teammates and everybody else, our sponsors to be on board with this, it's all the motivation that any of us needs on game days."

She has contributed $860 (86 points) to #SkyTakesAction this season. Dolson is also auctioning off a pair of game-worn shoes customized by her teammates.

She provided t-shirts for the Sky to wear against the Connecticut Sun earlier this season that read:

"Arrest the cops who killed Breonna Taylor."

Dolson is shooting above 40% from the 3-point line for the first time in her career since 2017. In addition, her 50.0% field goal clip marks the second straight year where she's shooting at least 50%.

#24 RUTHY HEBARD FORWARD OREGON

RUTHY'S GETTING HER CHANCE

Hebard shot at least 50% for the 13th straight time on Sunday. During the game against Indiana on August 31, she recorded her first career double-double (12 points, 11 rebounds). She was the ninth rookie in Sky franchise history to record a double-double, and the first since Diamond DeShields did so on June 27, 2018 (23 points, 11 rebounds). During this stretch of 13 games, she is shooting 71.1% (37-52) from the floor, averaging just under seven points per game.

In addition, the rookie has contributed $950 (95 points) to #SkyTakesAction this season. She also ranks first in the WNBA in FG% (67.2%, minimum 10 attempts).

#3 ALEXIS PRINCE FORWARD BAYLOR

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS:

Prince joins the Sky for its final stretch of games in the regular season as a player who has gained valuable experience in the postseason. While with the Phoenix Mercury in 2017, she made two appearances in the team's run to the semifinals round against the Los Angeles Sparks.

Over the course of her two seasons in the league (2017 & 2018), Prince has averaged 6.8 MPG in 20 appearances, 18 of which came in 2017 with the Mercury.

#32 CHEYENNE PARKER FORWARD MIDDLE TENNESSEE

ANSWERING THE CALL:

Parker has contributed $2,430 (243 points) to the #SkyTakesAction campaign this season. She leads the team in rebounds (118) and is shooting a career-best 85.9% from the free throw line. Parker registered her second double-double in her last three games with a career-high 24 points and pulling in 10 rebounds in Sunday's loss to Los Angeles. Over the course of her last three games, she is averaging just over 22 points, 10 rebounds and shooting 70.3% from the floor. She has played at least 20 minutes in 17 of 18 games in which she has appeared in this season.

Parker on the shirt she was wearing during her postgame media availability on August 8:

"It says arrest the cops who killed Breonna Taylor."

#14 ALLIE QUIGLEY GUARD DEPAUL

QUIGLEY: Quigley cemented herself once again in the Sky record books as she surpassed Sylvia Fowles for No. 1 all-time on the franchise scoring list on September 2 against the Minnesota Lynx. In addition, she reached 3,000 career points in the fourth quarter. Her 22 points against the Sparks on Sunday gave her 19 games this season with a double-digit scoring total, including eight straight. She is also shooting 91.4% (32-35) from the free throw line this season, a career-best (minimum 10 attempts). Quigley made 26 free throws in a row before missing in the first quarter against LA on Sunday. It was her first miss from the charity stripe since August 8 against Connecticut, the only other game this season where she missed a free throw.

The 12-year veteran has donated $3,170 (317 points) to the #SkyTakesAction initiative. In addition, Quigley announced on August 12 that she will be donating $20 for every 3-point field goal she makes this season to the Joilet, Illinois Salvation Army. She has contributed $900 through 20 games this season, which has helped raise funding for a food pantry, Christmas/holiday presents, interview clothing for clients seeking new employment, one month of transportation for a client, a month of intensive casework for two clients and setting up utilities, purchasing food and furniture for clients as they begin a new life.

#30 AZURÁ STEVENS FORWARD-CENTER CONNECTICUT

On #SkyTakesAction-Stevens donated $1,500(150 points) this season before suffering a season-ending injury.

"When they did the 26 seconds for Breonna Taylor before the game I took a minute just to talk to myself like, I'm going to go out here and just play as hard as I can for that. It's just crazy still that honestly like that happened and these cops haven't been arrested and people are just walking around like that's OK. And so I'm praying and hoping that they finally get the justice that they deserve. But yeah, I mean I think it motivates especially our team a little bit more because we're dedicating a season just to raise awareness and to make actual change. I don't know, like we've been talking about this for a long time before we even came here. Personal experiences we've all had just with racism and social injustice. And so, I mean it motivates me definitely a little bit extra because like that could have been my dad. George Floyd could've been my dad. Breonna Taylor could have been my sister. It could have been me. It could have been some of my teammates, like it's just this is real life right now, and it's a lot to take in but I mean I'm proud of our team for the awareness that we're raising and the stuff that we're doing."

#22 COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT GUARD GONZAGA

HISTORIC IS PUTTING IT LIGHTLY: During Sunday's game against Los Angeles, Vandersloot posted her 55th outing with a double-figure assists total. She also recorded at least 15 assists for the second time in her last four games (third time this season). Over the course of her last four outings, Vandersloot has averaged about 13 PPG and just over 14 APG. Sunday's game marked the ninth straight outing where she recorded at least nine assists. Vandersloot leads the WNBA in APG (9.8).

Vandersloot was also named the Eastern Conference Player of the Month for the first time in her career for the month of August.

Vandersloot has contributed $2,630 (2630 points) to the #SkyTakesAction campaign throughout the course of 20 games this season. In addition, she announced on August 12 that for each assist she records this season, Vandersloot will donate $10 to DonorsChoose, an organization that helps provide classroom supplies for teachers. Fans have donated $3,526 through her fundraising page, and with her total assists the combined total is $5,486 which surpasses her $5,000 goal. In addition, she is auctioning off a pair of game-worn sneakers in collaboration with DonorsChoose. The bid as of Sept. 8 is $900; the auction ends Sept. 10.

#15 GABBY WILLIAMS GUARD CONNECTICUT

A HUGE ROLE OFF THE BENCH:

Williams has contributed $1,520 (152 points) this season to the #SkyTakesAction campaign. She and guard Diamond DeShields were at the forefront of creating the program. She was the only player to score off Chicago's bench during Sunday's game against Los Angeles (nine points). Williams auctioned off a pair of game-worn sneakers as part of the work she is doing with the Chicago Community Bond Fund this season, which sold for $1,000.

"It's traumatizing. It's exhausting. To see people who look like you, people who do the same things as you, be murdered in cold blood, and then people turn their back and tell you that your life just doesn't matter. Or they try to distract you and say, all lives matter, or whatever it is. The fact that we have to fight to exist is exhausting And we're just exhausted. And we're sick and tired of it."
