James Wade is in his fourth season as the General Manager and Head Coach of the Chicago Sky. He was hired as the team's sixth head coach in November of 2018. Last season, Wade became the first coach to deliver the franchise a WNBA Championship. He is also the only Sky coach to ever win Coach of the Year after a 20-14 season during his first year at the helm.

This season, Coach Wade won the Coach of the Month award for the month of June and July, where the Sky held a 9-2 record during both months. He previously won the award in June 2021. He was also named head coach for the 2022 WNBA All-Star Game in Chicago, along with the rest of the Sky coaching staff. He is only one of three head coaches in the WNBA to win the award three or more times.

Wade has the highest winning percentage of any coach in franchise history (.545) and the team has never finished with a losing record in any of his first three seasons. In 2021, he turned the sixth-seeded Sky into the lowest playoff seed to ever win a WNBA title. In 2020, he led the team to a historic offensive season, breaking the all-time record for highest field goal percentage in a single season.

Wade spent two seasons as an assistant under Head Coach Cheryl Reeve of the Minnesota Lynx before joining the Sky. He was a part of the staff that brought home a fourth WNBA championship to Minneapolis in 2017. Prior to his time with the Lynx, Wade worked with current Seattle Storm coach Dan Hughes' staff with the San Antonio Stars from 2012-16.

Prior to becoming a coach, Wade played across Europe for 13 seasons with stops in the United Kingdom, France, Russia, Spain, the Czech Republic and Belgium. He is a dual citizen of the United States and France. Wade played collegiately at Middle Tennessee State, Chattanooga State and Kennesaw State University, where he graduated in 1998. Wade is married to former San Antonio Stars guard Edwige Lawson-Wade. They have one son, James III.
