Home Court Advantage
• The Valkyries lead the league in home attendance with an average of 18,064 fans. Indiana is second and averaging 16,657.29 fans per game, and New York is third at 16,013.86. Golden State has sold out all eight home games this season.

• On March 26, 2025, the Golden State Valkyries eclipsed the 10,000 season ticket mark for the team's inaugural 2025 season, presented by Kaiser Permanente. The Valkyries, who are the first WNBA expansion team since 2008, became the first WNBA team on record to hit this milestone.

• The Valkyries drew a sellout attendance of 18,064 during their home opener on May 16, which is the second-highest attendance by a WNBA team in their first-ever home game (Washington Mystics - 20,674 on 6/19/1998). That attendance was also the sixth highest in a team's first home game of the season. Golden State followed up with two more sellouts, becoming the first WNBA franchise to have an attendance of 18,000+ in each of its first three home games.
