NOTES

Aces Connections

• Valkyries head coach Natalie Nakase won consecutive WNBA Championships with the Aces in 2022 and 2023. Nakase was an assistant coach under Becky Hammon in Las Vegas from Feb. 2022 until Oct. 2024, when she was hired as Golden State's head coach.

• Golden State guard Tiffany Hayes was named the league's Sixth Player of the Year with Las Vegas in 2024. The lefty shot a career-high 50.0 percent (minimum 150 FGA) from the field, and 40.2 percent from deep, which ranked 10th in the W.

• Valkyries assistant coach Ta'Shauna "Sugar" Rodgers spent 8 years in the WNBA and played her last 2 seasons with the Aces. She helped lead Las Vegas' 2020 team to the finals against the Storm with a three-point percentage of 35.7. Following the 2020 finals, Rodgers became the assistant coach for the Aces for one year and later an assistant coach with the Valkyries.

• Golden State center Kiah Stokes played for Las Vegas from 2021-25, winning three WNBA Championships with the Aces.

• Aces forward Stephanie Talbot was selected by Golden State in the 2024 WNBA Expansion Draft, appearing in 16 games for the Valkyries last season.

Regular Season Notes

• Golden State had a 2025 season for the history books. The Valkyries set the record for wins by an expansion team (23), became the first-ever WNBA expansion team to reach the postseason during its inaugural season, and secured a winning record during its inaugural season.

• Kaitlyn Chen, Tiffany Hayes, Kiah Stokes and Gabby Williams give the Valkyries four former UConn players on the roster, the most former Huskies on any roster in the WNBA.

• The Valkyries boast the most returners this year of any other WNBA team, bringing back nine players who saw minutes in a Golden State uniform from a year ago.

• The Valkyries wrapped up regular-season home action with a league-leading 17 home wins in 2026, and their 77.3 home winning percentage is also the best in the WNBA. Additionally, GSV's 70.0 winning percentage on the road is the third best in the W.

• Golden State allowed a WNBA-low 75.1 PPG on the year (next best is 82.7 - WASH), including 71.4 the last five games. The Valkyries have held their opponents to 70 points or less in a league-leading 16 games this season (6 road games) more than double the next highest team, including four games under 60 points (also the most in the league - no other team has done this more than once - GSV did it a league-high 5 time in 2025). The Valkyries are also leading the league in opponent PPG at home at 74.6. Golden State is the first WNBA team since New York in 2017 to hold its opponent to 70 or fewer points in six straight games.

• Golden State led the league with the fewest turnovers per game, giving the ball up just 11.5 times each contest. Defensively, the Valkyries are fourth in forced turnovers per game at 15.0. GSV is 12-5 when turning the ball over 9 or fewer times.

• Kiah Stokes passed Tamika Catchings on the all-time blocks list with her 386th swat. Stokes currently has 390 career blocks .

• The Valkyries went 24-3 when they dish out more assists than their opponent, and, 20-3 when Veronica Burton hands out six or more assists in a game. Golden State's 69.1 assist percentage in wins is the fifth highest in the league.

• Veronica Burton wrapped up the regular season ranking ninth with 5.7 assists per game, and second with a 3.94 assist-to-turnover ratio which is also currently the sixth-best single season mark in league history (min. 20 GP). The future All-WNBA honoree is tied for the league lead with four games this season of 10+ points, 7+ assists, and zero turnovers (also Jackie Young).

• Burton is one of six WNBA players all time to average over 12.0 PPG, 5.0 APG while posting no more than 2.0 turnovers per game in a single season.

• At 26.8 points per game, Veronica Burton was 16th in the league in points created (points per game and assisted points created per game), while Gabby Williams is 37th at 20.0. Burton's 14.6 APC ranks seventh in the W.

• The best defensive center in the league, Kiah Stokes is fourth in the league with 1.7 BPG (trailing A'ja Wilson and Cameron Brink - it's the most BPG since Stokes' rookie 2015 season), leads all centers with a 2.39 a/to, and is third in the W with a 67.3block percentage (min. 25 GP). Stokes is first in the position, and second overall, with a defensive rating of 94.5 (min. 25 GP). Stokes is one of 31 players all-time with over 1,000 points, 300 blocks and 200 assists, including one of 10 active players.

• Janelle Salaün became the ninth-fastest player all-time to reach 100 career threes (49 games) on 6/12 against Seattle. Salaün has made five threes in four games this season, and is eighth in the W with 93 total threes on the year (also is No. 1 among bench players). Salaün is fourth in the league with a 39.2 3FG% (among players with at least 5.0 3PA per game and 5 GP), and leads all bench players in the category (min. 5 BGP). The Valkyries are 8-1 when Salaün makes four or more threes in a game this year.

• Golden State went a perfect 8-0 this season when Salaün scores 18 or more points, and the Valkyries are 17-3 when she shoots better than 40% from the field in a game.

• The league's Sixth Player of the Year, Janelle Salaün drained the most three-pointers by a reserve player in a season in league history with 93 (previous record was 68), and the most total points (previous record is 457) at 509. Her average of 2.3 made threes per game is a WNBA record by a reserve player. Salaün's 27 10+ point games are the most in a season by a reserve player. Additionally, Salaün's 12.7 PPG off the bench is currently the seventh best in league history and leads all reserves in the W this year. ASSOCIATED PRESS AWARDS
Golden State Valkyries forward Janelle Salaün was named the Associated Press (AP) Sixth Woman of the Year, and guard Gabby Williams was selected to the All-AP WNBA Second Team, the AP announced Sunday. The awards were voted on by a panel of national women's basketball sportswriters.

Salaün's 12.7 points per game led all reserve players this season and ranked seventh all-time in league history. This year she set all-time single-season WNBA records for total points (509), threes (93), and threes per game (2.3) by a reserve player. The forward shot 39.2 percent from deep this season, which ranked fourth in the league among players with at least five attempts per game. Salaün's 27 10-point games this year are the most by a reserve player in league history, and her six 20-point games are tied for the fourth most in a season by a reserve in WNBA history.

Williams led Golden State in scoring with a career-best 14.4 points per game, and her six 20-point games were tied for the team lead. A top defender in the WNBA, Williams ranked second in the W with 24 NET defensive points, fourth in defensive WAR at 1.4, ninth in defensive win share at .162, and her 1.6 steals per game were the fifth-most in the league this season. Williams earned her second-career WNBA All-Star selection earlier this season, becoming Golden State's first-ever All-Star starter.

SALAÜN NAMED KIA WNBA SIXTH PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Golden State Valkyries forward Janelle Salaün was unanimously selected as the Kia WNBA Sixth Player of the Year, the league announced today. Salaün received all 74 votes from a national panel of sportswriters and broadcasters, becoming the first-ever unanimously voted Sixth Player of the Year.

Salaün appeared in 40 games for Golden State this season, all as a reserve, averaging 22.1 minutes, 12.7 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 1.2 assists while shooting 42.5 percent from the field. The forward set the single-season WNBA record by a reserve player for total points (509), threes (93), and threes per game (2.3). Her 12.7 points per game led all reserve players this season and ranked seventh all-time in league history. Salaün shot 39.2 percent from deep this season, which ranked fourth in the league among all players with at least five attempts per game.

Salaün's 27 10-point games this year are the most by a reserve player in league history, and her six 20-point games are tied for the fourth most in a season by a reserve in WNBA history. On July 8 at Toronto, Salaün scored a career-high 26 points on 5-6 shooting (83.3 percent) from three-point range, and is one of six reserve players in WNBA history to score 25-plus points with five or more threes in fewer than 25 minutes.

This is Salaün's second-ever WNBA end-of-season award after she was named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team a season ago.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) Gabby Williams had 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists, Kiah Stokes added 14 rebounds and three blocked shots, and the Golden State Valkyries took Game 1 of the WNBA semifinals by beating the defending champion Las Vegas Aces 71-60 on Sunday.

A'ja Wilson scored 24 points while Chelsea Gray contributed 16 points for Las Vegas, which lost guard Jewell Loyd to a left leg injury early in the third quarter, and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The team said she was being evaluated and coach Becky Hammon didn't have an immediate update afterward.

Playing to chants of “Gabby! Gabby!” from the sellout crowd at Chase Center, Williams scored 18 of her points on 6-for-10 shooting in the first half, including a 3-pointer that put Golden State ahead 32-23 with 5:43 left before halftime.

That defeaning “Ballhalla” home crowd turned the arena into a sea of violet-colored T-shirts and energy the Valkyries have so counted on in their first two seasons. Fans waved and cheered when the final buzzer sounded and confetti fell.
Game 2 in the best-of-five series is Wednesday night back at Chase Center.

“The goal here is to win our home games, so yes we did well for the first game but the Aces are championship-caliber, they know what it takes to win,” Stokes said. “I know in their locker room they're not happy with how they played so their whole goal is to come to our house and still win games, so they still have the opportunity to do that. Going forward we know that we need to come out on Wednesday and make sure we set the tone again.”

Valkyries coach Natalie Nakase was well enough to coach after she went down on the sideline near Golden State's bench with 1:40 remaining Friday night in a 77-73 comeback win to clinch the first-round series against Dallas. She was examined by a doctor during the day off Saturday.
Jackie Young’s 3-pointer with 8:25 left pulled Las Vegas within 58-53. WNBA leading scorer and reigning MVP Wilson made 6 of 11 first-half shots for 15 points for the third-seeded Aces.

It was a defensive, low-scoring game in which neither team shot particularly well - the Valkyries 37.7% to 33.9% for Las Vegas - after both went the distance in the best-of-three first round to advance.

Valkyries point guard Veronica Burton struggled on the offensive end, missing a layup and 3-pointer during one third-quarter sequence and sat down at the 7:29 mark. Nakase then went to Kaitlyn Chen for the rest of the game and she scored 11 points.

Burton didn't have a health issue.
“She's amazing and she's feeling great,” Nakase said. “Kaitlyn Chen was fresh and I'm playing a fresh Kaitlyn Chen.”

Mixing and matching rotations worked out after Golden State shot just 31.4% - 11 for 35 and 5 of 15 on 3s - in the first half. Newcomer Aminata Gueye came off the bench to score nine points in 12-plus minutes for the Valkyries. She signed with the team Sept. 20 after playing with Williams and Janelle Salaun on the French team in the FIBA Women’s Basketball World Cup.

Salaun received a rousing ovation when she entered the game with 2:25 left in the first quarter after being named WNBA Sixth Player of the Year before the game.

Kayla Thornton also pulled down 11 rebounds to go with eight points for the Valkyries, who dominated the boards with a 52-25 advantage.

“We were really really connected tonight, I felt we were communicating, I felt like we were showing them bodies and then it came down to rebounding,” Williams said. “I said after the game that KT and Kiah really won this game for us, limited them to one possession and gave us extra possessions.”

Hammon called it one of her team's "most atrocious games of the season" in which they were outhustled.
“We lost the game on the boards, no question about that,” Hammon said, noting all her team talked about the past 48 hours was rebounding and blocking out.

Golden State was 3 for 10 from 3-point range in the opening quarter and finished just 7 of 24 from deep, also overcoming 14 turnovers that led to 11 Las Vegas points.

Aces forward Stephanie Talbot missed the game because of a left leg injury.

HEAD COACH NATALIE NAKASE

SCHOOL: UCLA - '03 EXPERIENCE: 2nd Season

Natalie Nakase is in her second season as head coach of the Golden State Valkyries. Nakase takes the helm of the Valkyries following over 16 years of coaching professional basketball, including 10 seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, and three seasons as first assistant coach with the Las Vegas Aces.

Nakase is the first Asian American head coach in the WNBA, and was the first female coach to sit on an NBA team's bench when she was an assistant coach for the Los Angeles Clippers during the 2014 summer league.

In her first season at the helm of the Valkyries, Nakase led Golden State to 23 regular season wins during its inaugural year, a WNBA single-season record by an expansion team, and the Valkyries became the first-ever expansion franchise to reach the playoffs in their inaugural season. In June 2025, Nakase was named the league's Coach of the Month after the Valkyries went 7-4 (.636), and had three wins by 24 points or more.

Under Nakase and her staff, the Valkyries posted one of the best defenses in the WNBA, leading the league in opponent points per game (76.3) and opponent field goal percentage (40.5), while having the third-best defensive rating (99.8). Offensively, Golden State ranked top five in the WNBA in rebounds per game (35.3), three pointers made (427), and free throw percentage (81.5) during the regular season.

Following the season, Nakase was named the 2025 State Street Investment Management SPY WNBA Coach of the Year as well as the Associated Press Coach of the Year. Under Nakase's leadership, many Valkyries reached new career heights during the 2025 season, including Veronica Burton, who earned 2025 Kia WNBA Most Improved Player honors, Kayla Thornton, who was selected as a WNBA All-Star, and Janelle Salaün, who was named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team.

Nakase spent three years (2022-2024) as first assistant coach with the Aces, where she played a critical role guiding the team to back-to-back WNBA Championships (2022, 2023). During her tenure, Las Vegas topped the WNBA's defensive rating charts in 2023, with a rating of 97.7. She assisted with in-game adjustments, substitution rotations, end of game decisions, time out strategies, head coach's challenge usages, clock management and organizing the team on both ends of the court. Nakase also served as the Aces top scout for college and international athletes. With Nakase on the sideline, the Aces went 87-29 over the last three seasons, including a 19-6 mark in the playoffs.

Prior to her time with the Aces, Nakase spent 10 seasons in various capacities with the Clippers, most recently as an assistant coach and player development coach in a dual role with the NBA team and their G League affiliate, the Agua Caliente Clippers. There, she assisted then-Head Coach Tyronn Lue with in-game planning on offense and defense, and assisted with player development and defensive scouting reports.

Nakase got her coaching start in 2008 with the Women's Professional Basketball German League, serving as head coach for the Wolfenbuttel Wildcats for two seasons (2008-10). She then served as an assistant coach for the Tokyo Apache for one season (2010-11) in the Men's Professional Basketball Japan League, followed by acting as head coach for the Saitama Broncos from 2011-12, making her the first woman to serve as head coach in the league.

Nakase was a walk-on women's basketball player at University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) from 1998-2003, where she played her way into the starting lineup and served as team captain for three seasons. A native of Los Angeles, she graduated with her bachelor of science in psychology. After graduation, she played professionally for two years in the National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) with the San Jose Spiders and San Diego Siege. Nakase also competed for one season in Germany, where she suffered a career-ending knee injury in 2008.
