TEAM NOTES

The Toronto Tempo are in Phoenix to face the Mercury for the first time in the third game of a four-game road trip. They enter having secured a 106-96 victory over the Los Angeles Sparks in their second consecutive appearance against LA on Sunday night, bouncing back from a Friday night loss against the Sparks. Toronto recorded their first 100+ point game and shot a season-high 92.9 percent from the free-throw line (39-of-42). The Tempo are now 2-2 on the season and 1-1 on their four-game road trip. Following Tuesday night, they will end with a preseason re-match against the Minnesota Lynx before returning home.

Brittney Sykes led all scorers with a career-high 38 points, going 15-for-15 from the free-throw line. She became the second player to record 25+ points on a double-digit perfect free throw stat-line in consecutive games — joining Jewell Loyd who did it in 2023 with Seattle. Sykes is also the third player in WNBA regular season history to have a perfect free throw percentage on 15+ attempts (Elena Delle Donne 2X, Angel McCoughtry).

Kiki Rice made her first career WNBA start and poured in a season-high 19 points (5-8 FG, 8-10 FT) in 35 minutes of play while completing no turnovers. Rice now has double-digits in three-consecutive games — she is one of three rookies in the league to have this streak.

Marina Mabrey added 14 points against the Sparks — while Kia Nurse led Tempo reserves with a season-high ten points in 12 minutes.

Quotes:

Kiki Rice on getting her first WNBA start:

“Yeah, just like, you know, being ready for whatever the team needs. I mean, I’m here to learn from the players around me, from the vets — they have a ton of experience, and just being able to absorb, to take everything in, and whenever, you know, I need to step in, because, you know, Julie’s obviously a great player, and if I need to step in, she’s out there coaching me, just doing what the team needs me to do.”

HC Sandy Brondello on bouncing back against LA:

“Yeah, you know, we started really poorly. We’re still sleeping, I think I said that, but, a little bit more urgency today. I think we were way more connected, and... but we still had a great fight back. We had opportunities to win that game. I was confident going into it if we could just stay together and execute the plan, even though we still scored a lot of points. You know, we found a way to get the win today, so really proud, even though we were undermanned, Kiki (Rice) stepping up was fantastic, and I mean, this one here, it’s pretty special.”

HC Sandy Brondello on Kiki Rice’s potential for growth:

“Yeah, look, I think she’s a really good player when she came in. She was one of our best camp players, and just how she competed every single day, and, you know, played to her identity. We’re just trying to add to her, like, you know, shooting the 3-ball, we keep encouraging her to do that. She puts a lot of work into that. She can, but we think she can be an even better shooter. But we want to put her in places that plays to her strengths that she already has. So now it’s all... she has the tools. Now it’s about playing against the best players in the world, and finding ways to be successful, and, you know, she has the IQ, so she’s a quick learner. She’s a worker, I know that. Sometimes we have to kick her out of the gym, but she’s a worker, and that’s why she’s so good.”

Slim on how she’s been able to flourish in year 10:

“I’ve managed, in those 10 years, right, to just figure it out, and, like, find a way. Things really weren’t tailored to me, right? Like, I was that floating piece that you can kind of put in any offense, and I just make it do what it do. But here, like, I’m getting to do what I want to do, which is, like, score the ball, but also play both ends of the floor. I have a coach in Sandy and the rest of the staff where they understand the asset that I am, and they let that go on full display. There’s a green light for me to just play my basketball, right? So some of that is, like, teams aren’t used to me being this active, and also, it’s another thing of, like, damn, they finally have activated her, so I get to have free reign against any defense, you know, and I get to do it with the likes of Kiki, the likes of T, the likes of Marina, you know, like, it’s fun playing with this group, and I’m glad I went to Toronto to do that, you know?”

Slim on how her and Kiki complimented each other tonight:

“Oh, man, it was lovely! It was... it was, one of those things where you get to watch a rook just grow up in real time. She found out, you know, in shoot around that we were, gonna start her. So, you don’t see any type of fear in her eyes. You know, she might have a rookie moment or two, but, she bounces back, and she’s fearless. Going to the basket the way she does, staying poised like she do, you really can’t read her when it comes to if she’s, you know, shaky or not, so that’s a plus for us. And, she’s a big body, so we can switch, we can trust her. She got her fair share of, possessions with KP, so welcome to the league (laughs). But, yeah, it’s been great. I love her. I’m glad we drafted her, and she has a high ceiling, man.”

SANDY BRONDELLO
COACHING STAFF

A two-time WNBA Champion and one of the most accomplished coaches in international basketball, Sandy Brondello enters the inaugural season of the Toronto Tempo as the first Head Coach in franchise history. Widely respected for her championship pedigree, player-centred leadership style, and ability to build a sustainable winning culture, Brondello brings decades of experience across the WNBA and global game to Canada's first WNBA franchise. Brondello joined the Tempo following more than a decade of success as a WNBA head coach, leading the Phoenix Mercury (2014–2021) and New York Liberty (2022–2025) to four WNBA Finals appearances. She captured her first WNBA championship in 2014 with Phoenix, earning WNBA Coach of the Year honours in her debut season with the club, and added a second title in 2024 with New York. She is one of only two coaches in league history to win championships with multiple franchises and currently ranks sixth all-time in WNBA career wins and games coached, and second in playoff victories. In addition to her success at the professional level, Brondello has served as Head Coach of the Australian Women's National Team since 2017. Under her leadership, the Opals earned a bronze medal at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, continuing her long-standing impact on the international stage. As a head coach, she has guided Australia at multiple Olympic Games and FIBA World Cups, reinforcing her reputation as one of the premier coaches in the global women's game. Before transitioning into coaching, Brondello enjoyed an illustrious playing career spanning nearly two decades. A native of Mackay, Queensland, she represented Australia at four Olympic Games, winning three medals (bronze in 1996; silver in 2000 and 2004), and is regarded as one of the country's all-time great shooting guards. She was named the WNBL Most Valuable Player in 1995 and competed professionally in Australia, Germany, and the WNBA, where she was selected to the league's first-ever All-Star Game in 1999. Following her playing career, Brondello moved seamlessly into coaching, beginning as an assistant with the San Antonio Silver Stars before later serving as an assistant with the Los Angeles Sparks. She earned her first WNBA head coaching opportunity in 2010, and ultimately established herself among the league's elite during her eight-season tenure in Phoenix, where her teams reached the playoffs every year and won a league title. Brondello was inducted into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010, recognizing her exceptional contributions to the sport as both a player and coach. Known for her collaborative approach, defensive discipline, and emphasis on accountability and team culture, she brings a proven blueprint for success as the Tempo prepare to compete in their inaugural WNBA season.
