The team fell to the New York Liberty 97-82 at Barclays Center in Brooklyn on June 3, snapping a two-game winning streak. The Liberty made 14 three-point field goals compared to Toronto's six. The team will return to Toronto for a two-game homestand against the Chicago Sky (June 7) and Connecticut Sun (June 10).

SANDY BRONDELLO COACHING STAFF

A two-time WNBA Champion and one of the most accomplished coaches in international basketball, Sandy Brondello enters the inaugural season of the Toronto Tempo as the first Head Coach in franchise history. Widely respected for her championship pedigree, player-centred leadership style, and ability to build a sustainable winning culture, Brondello brings decades of experience across the WNBA and global game to Canada's first WNBA franchise. Brondello joined the Tempo following more than a decade of success as a WNBA head coach, leading the Phoenix Mercury (2014–2021) and New York Liberty (2022–2025) to four WNBA Finals appearances. She captured her first WNBA championship in 2014 with Phoenix, earning WNBA Coach of the Year honours in her debut season with the club, and added a second title in 2024 with New York. She is one of only two coaches in league history to win championships with multiple franchises and currently ranks sixth all-time in WNBA career wins and games coached, and second in playoff victories. In addition to her success at the professional level, Brondello has served as Head Coach of the Australian Women's National Team since 2017. Under her leadership, the Opals earned a bronze medal at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, continuing her long-standing impact on the international stage. As a head coach, she has guided Australia at multiple Olympic Games and FIBA World Cups, reinforcing her reputation as one of the premier coaches in the global women's game. Before transitioning into coaching, Brondello enjoyed an illustrious playing career spanning nearly two decades. A native of Mackay, Queensland, she represented Australia at four Olympic Games, winning three medals (bronze in 1996; silver in 2000 and 2004), and is regarded as one of the country's all-time great shooting guards. She was named the WNBL Most Valuable Player in 1995 and competed professionally in Australia, Germany, and the WNBA, where she was selected to the league's first-ever All-Star Game in 1999. Following her playing career, Brondello moved seamlessly into coaching, beginning as an assistant with the San Antonio Silver Stars before later serving as an assistant with the Los Angeles Sparks. She earned her first WNBA head coaching opportunity in 2010, and ultimately established herself among the league's elite during her eight-season tenure in Phoenix, where her teams reached the playoffs every year and won a league title. Brondello was inducted into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010, recognizing her exceptional contributions to the sport as both a player and coach. Known for her collaborative approach, defensive discipline, and emphasis on accountability and team culture, she brings a proven blueprint for success as the Tempo prepare to compete in their inaugural WNBA season.
